Mission Statement

The Finance and Legal Studies Area is committed to:

- Providing students with a solid educational foundation in finance and legal principles;
- Preparing students to be the business leaders for the next generation;
- Carefully integrating the latest financial and legal theories with industry practices in all our programs;
- Assisting our faculty to conduct research on cutting edge issues to solve real world problems;
- Partnering with the St. Louis community to promote the economic development of the whole region and state.
