

University of Missouri – St. Louis Graduate Assistantships at the Office of the Western History Association

Stipends and tuition scholarships (in-state and out-of-state) for two graduate assistantships will be awarded on a competitive basis to qualified UM – St. Louis graduate students enrolled full-time in either the Master's in History or Education program. Starting in the fall of 2008, graduate assistants will help support (for 20 hours a week) the Office of the Western History Association.

Founded in 1961, the Western History Association exists to promote the study of the North American West in its varied aspects and broadest sense.

Send a letter of interest, your curriculum vitae (or résumé), and two letters of recommendation to the Executive Director of the Western History Association. These documents should be postmarked no later than April 1st, 2008. Applications for admission to either MA program should be sent to the UM – St. Louis Graduate Admissions Office, 217 Millennium Student Center, One University Boulevard, St. Louis, MO 63121-4499.
