Undergraduate Minor in Transportation Studies
Center for Transportation Studies and
College of Business Administration

Courses for Academic Year 2014-15

Fall 2014
MKTG 3770  (required for the minor)
Introduction to Transportation
Online
MKTG 3777/HIST 4142
Aviation in American Life
Wednesdays, 2:00-4:45 pm
MKTG 3798
Introduction to Supply Chain Management
Mondays, 6:55-9:35 pm
MKTG 3799
Independent Study
MKTG 3790
Internship

Spring 2015
MKTG 3771 (required for the minor)
Traffic and Transportation Management
Online
MKTG 3776
Transportation Security, Safety and Disaster Preparedness
Online
MKTG 3798
Domestic Transportation
Online
MKTG 3799
Independent Study
MKTG 3790
Internship

The Minor in Transportation Studies is available to undergraduate students of any major who desire employment in a transportation-related field. Recent graduates have been hired at firms such as Cass Information Systems, Henderson Trucking, Unyson Logistics, NFI and C.H. Robinson.

For more information, contact:
Daniel L. Rust, Ph.D.
Assistant Director of the Center for Transportation Studies
240 J.C. Penney North
(314) 516-7254
rustd@umsl.edu