

Releasing an Advising Hold

1. On your Faculty Center page, choose the Advisement tab to navigate to the New Drop-In Advisee Page or select the Advisement menu link on the left side of the page.

The screenshot shows the MyView@UMSL interface for a Sample Instructor. The 'Faculty Center' tab is active, and the 'advisement' sub-tab is highlighted with a blue arrow. The 'Faculty Center' section displays the current term as '2008 Summer Semester' and offers options to 'Show all classes', 'Only classes with enrollment', or 'View My Weekly Schedule'. Below this, there is a 'My Teaching Schedule' table for the 2008 Summer Semester.

Class	Class Name	Enrolled	Days and Time	Room	Class Dates
ANTHRO 4329-001 IND 10032	Intrnshp Physical Anthro (Independent Study)	1	TBA	Arranged	May 12, 2008-Jun 30, 2008
ANTHRO 4350-001 IND 10033	Special Study (Independent Study)	1	TBA	Arranged	May 12, 2008-Jun 30, 2008

Only Graduate Education is currently assigning individual advisors to students. Those advisors will see a list of names on the page below:

The screenshot shows the 'View My Advisees' section of the MyView@UMSL interface. The 'advisement' sub-tab is selected. A message box states: 'There is no information for the transaction you requested.' Below this message is a button labeled 'New Drop-In Advisees'.

2. All other instructors/advisors should click on New Drop-In Advisees.

The New Drop-In Advisees page will be displayed.

Educational records are kept by University offices to facilitate the educational development of students. Faculty and staff members may also keep informal records relating to their functional responsibilities with individual students.

A federal law, the Family Educational Rights And Privacy Act of 1974 (also known as FERPA, and the Buckley Amendment) as amended, affords students certain rights concerning their student educational records. Students have the right to have some control over the disclosure of information from the records. Educational institutions have the responsibility to prevent improper disclosure of personally identifiable information from the records.

WHEN IN DOUBT, err on the side of caution and do not release student educational information. Contact the Office of the Registrar for guidance.

11. Click on the Return to Previous Page button .

12. To verify that the advising hold was removed, search for the student again. If an Advising hold was the student’s only hold, then the negative service indicator will no longer be displayed.

Other Negative Service Indicators (Holds)

If you click on the negative service indicator icon, and receive a screen with the following information, stating that for this student “You have no Holds”, that means their only negative service indicator is for their non-response to eConsent in their Student Center. This will not keep you from enrolling the student in classes. They must agree to eConsent before they can register themselves for classes in MyView.
