Woodblock printing in Japan

Presented By: Anuradha Vedagiri and Jeffrey Sippel

Date: Saturday, March 4
Time: 12:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.
Location: UMSL North Campus
Fine Arts Building

We will start with a presentation by Anuradha Vedagiri who will explore the history of woodblock printing in Japan during the Edo period.

We then move from the classroom to the print studio for a hands-on workshop given by Jeffrey Sippel that will explore the traditional Japanese form of woodblock printmaking known as Mokuhanga.

A tour of the fine arts facilities and refreshments will be provided.
