

Students with Disabilities

A Career Counselor Can Help You Answer:

- Should I disclose my disability on my resume or in an interview? If so, how?
- How does the American with Disabilities Act (ADA) affect me?
- What should I expect from employers?
- How can I access mentors in career fields of interest to me?

Tips for Researching Employers:

- Review the anti-discrimination policies of the organization
- Know in advance what accommodations you require
- Participate in employer information sessions, UMSL career fairs and campus recruiting
- Access UMSL Career Services Office resources

On-Campus Resources:

Disability Access Services

Local/ State Resources:

- Starkloff Disability Institute
- Paraquad Employment Services
- Challenge Unlimited Careers and Employment
- Easter Seals Midwest, Autism Services-St. Louis

National Resources:

- Disability Connect
- Bender Consulting Services
- Americans with Disabilities Act
- Rehabilitation Services for the Blind
- Career Information for Students with Disabilities
- U.S. Equal Employment and Opportunity Commission