

Philmont Scout Ranch – Seasonal Summer Employment 2012

Philmont Scout Ranch is a national high adventure base owned and operated by the Boy Scouts of America National Council. It is comprised of 137,500 acres (214 square miles) of mountainous country in the Sangre de Cristo mountain range in northern New Mexico, near Cimarron, NM (roughly halfway between Albuquerque, NM and Colorado Springs, CO). Base camp elevation is at 6,700 feet, with program areas reaching above 12,000 feet. We serve about 25,000 participants every summer in our camping and training center programs. Philmont is the largest camping operation in the world.

Each summer, Philmont Scout Ranch employs more than 1,000 seasonal staff members to operate and support backcountry programs, our national training center, food service, maintenance, retail operations, customer services, museums and ranching, and to assist the administrative staff. A wide variety of positions are available, including rangers, backcountry program counselors, Training Center and base camp support staff. Starting base salary is $1,030/month, plus room and board. Other position's salaries are dependent upon experience and level of responsibility.

The summer employment season is from late May through mid-August. All staff members, no matter what their job or where they work, have a very important role to play in the total success of Philmont.

For more information about summer seasonal employment at Philmont, check out the visit www.PhillmontScoutRanch.org/jobs .

