

International Business Development Manager (St. Louis, Missouri): Direct business development operations in Latin America and Mexico; evaluate and develop policies and business strategies for cultivating business opportunities abroad; coordinate all international import/export activities with the assistance of marketing, sales, and customer service managers. Requires Bachelor degree in Marketing or closely-related field and 5 years of experience in marketing with significant part of that time spent in Import/Export between U.S. and Mexico/Latin America. Send resume to: Mr. Steve Gund, International Resources Group, 1805 Beltway Dr., St. Louis, MO 63114.