

ANNOUNCING A NEW COURSE FOR FALL 2011:

Foreign Languages 1100
Languages and World View

How does language shape our understanding of the world? Do different languages have contrasting ways of thinking about time, space, and human relationships? What are some common cultural misunderstandings among native speakers of English and speakers of other languages? Learn about variations in the phenomenon we call language, using examples from across the globe, and enjoy guest lectures from UMSL faculty who will talk about the languages they teach.

This 3-credit course fulfills general education requirements for Humanities & Fine Arts and Communicating.

There is no prerequisite.

The course will meet Tuesdays and Thursdays, 2:00-3:15 p.m.

206 Clark Hall

For more information, contact Dr. Jeanne Zarucchi

314-516-6575 or zarucchi@umsl.edu

Department of Anthropology, Sociology, and Languages