

University of Missouri–St. Louis
The Graduate School

Master of Arts (MA) History – Museum Studies

Degree Program

A minimum of 39 credit hours is required for the Master of Arts degree in History with an Emphasis Area and Graduate Certificate in Museum Studies. The program is designed to be completed on a full-time basis in two years, preparing students for immediate entry into museum careers. Those interested in curatorial work will be prepared to start a Ph.D. in history. Seven courses in museology are required in a prescribed sequence.

Minimum of 3.2 on 4.0 scale.

Application Deadline

March 1, 2013 for Fall 2013. NO applications are being accepted for Fall 2012 admission.

Applications are accepted only for the fall semester. Because of the prescribed sequence of course work, no midyear entry into the program is permitted. This is a very competitive program and only 12 positions exist each year. Applicants are encouraged to prepare outstanding applications and submit them early.

Application Fee

$35 ($40 for international students)

Financial Support

Most applicants admitted to the program also receive offers of financial aid which usually takes the form of a fellowship that covers a portion of the educational fees, or a Graduate Research Assistantship that covers all fees, and pays a stipend of $7500 per academic year. Applicants should contact the Program Director about the type of assistance available.
