THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

Petition for Course Overload (G-7)

Name _____ Student No. _____ Date _____

is requesting to take an overload (_____ total hours) during the _____ term for the following reasons:

Total Graduate Hours Completed: _____ Graduate GPA: _____

Approved by:

Advisor Date

Chair/Director of Graduate Studies Date

Graduate Dean Date

The normal course load for a regular semester is 9 to 12 hours. For an eight week summer session it is two courses consisting of no more than 6 semester hours. Three hours is the maximum load during intersession.

Heavier than normal loads may be permitted on rare occasion by the Graduate Dean, on recommendation of the director of graduate studies for:

1. Students whose cumulative UM-St. Louis graduate point averages are substantially above the department or school average.
2. Students in good academic standing for whom an overload of one course will permit the student to graduate during the term in which the overload is taken.

This petition must be presented in advance of the registration period.
