The College Hits the Road with a New Mobile Eye Clinic — in the news: The College of Optometry at the University of Missouri-St. Louis has converted a 28-foot Winnebago into a portable classroom and eye clinic.

What's New

New Learning Experiences

The College of Optometry, University of Missouri-St. Louis is rolling out a new way of training tomorrow's optometrists while better serving disadvantaged communities, social service agencies and even business and industry. The mobile clinic concept is not a distance, time and affordability barrier that can separate patients from optometrists, College of Optometry Dean Larry J. Davis said.
