John Clark currently serves as the President and CEO of Masterclock, Inc. A graduate of the University of Missouri – Columbia business school, Mr. Clark brings a wealth of unique experience to the position and is focused on growing the company’s international presence.

Growing up as Masterclock evolved from his family’s garage into the business it is today allowed Mr. Clark to begin traveling around the world many times over before entering the full-time workforce. This experience combined with a study-abroad period in Barcelona has given Mr. Clark a very thorough understanding of cultural differences encountered in international business and is being reflected in the company’s current growth pattern.

Mr. Clark enjoyed his time in college by getting involved in almost every aspect of college life. He was a research assistant for the psychology department focusing on family development, a walk-on punter for the Missouri Tigers football team, President of Alpha Kappa Lambda fraternity, and an advocate for the Mid-Missouri Big Brother Big Sisters program. Since entering the workforce, he has served as the Community Service/PR Chair for the Rotary Club of St. Charles, a board member of the Economic Development Center of St. Charles County, and a founding member of the Young Professionals Group for the Boys and Girls Club of St. Charles County.
