Starting Your Own Software Business:
An UMSL CompSci Perspective

Tim Hebel, founder and owner of Beanstalk Web Solutions, will be giving a short talk followed by a Q&A session. Tim created Beanstalk Web Solutions while enrolled in UMSL’s computer science program and grew the business while at the university. Tim will be graduating in May, but during a span of three years, the business grew to 10 employees and hundreds of clients, as well as an office in downtown Webster Groves. Come find out how you can achieve similar goals. All questions are welcome.
