As we sit at the end of the academic year, remembering the events that transpired, the nation and our communities continue to challenge what was comfortable while continuing to transform the very conscience of this country. This year we found ourselves confronted with our biases, challenged our personal belief system(s), but also showed great compassion for each other and found ourselves committed to engaging in difficult but necessary conversations. We watched, listened, and experienced a myriad range of emotions. And as we hear the words “returning to normal,” we would be remiss if we forgot what this year has taught and shown us. There were lessons in each moment, and we are better now because of those moments.

It is of crucial importance, for those of us in higher education, to take a stand in solidarity with our students, faculty, staff, alums and the communities we serve. This year has been a testament to our resilience at the institution, our ingenuity that transformed “what was” to “what is possible.” Social engagement, action and dialogue will remain critical on college campuses, and we must continue to emphasize the need to engage our communities on issues of racial equity, of justice, of reflection and, most importantly, of action.

Is this an easy task? The answer is NO, and over the course of the year, that has been quite apparent. However, we must collectively remain committed to this goal.

As we reflect in this moment and remember where we were this time last year, remember this: “Compassion is the ability to look beyond your own pain, in order to see the pain experienced by others.” This is our why... We must continue to engage in this work, not because of the return we want from others, but do so because of the return we want in ourselves.

“Fight for the things that you care about but do it in a way that will lead others to join you.” - RBG

Sincerely,

Tanisha Stevens, PhD

Welcome/Congratulations

❖ ODEI welcomes our new Graduate Assistant, Clare Dudoit!

❖ Congratulations to our Hero Award Recipient, Ericka Webb! Click here to read more about the UMSL Hero Award!
Summer Programming - ODEI professional development offers opportunities to learn new things about yourself and others, meet new people, and engage in thoughtful, honest conversations. Click here to download the full schedule.

Diversity 101 Summer Intensive – Join a cohort of colleagues for this 8-week fully online (synchronous or asynchronous) deep dive into diversity and inclusion.

NEW! Join us this summer for a new series entitled “Let's Talk about Race” (July 8- August 12). Click here for information and registration.

ODEI Digital Badges - Since the digital badging initiative started in February 2020, nearly 300 faculty and staff have earned over 500 digital badges for their engagement in ODEI programs. People add their badges to their email signatures and social media profiles to show that the UMSL community is committed to enhancing diversity, equity, and inclusion. If you haven’t already, start earning yours this summer!

---

Title IX Statement

“No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.”

---

Letter from the Title IX Coordinator/Chief Equity Officer:

As the UMSL campus begins to return to its new normal, we wanted to take the opportunity to reintroduce the campus to the Title IX and Equity Team. The Title IX and Equity Team is housed under the Office of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion. The Title IX and Equity Office conducts any campus investigation related to Title IX and equity concerns. Furthermore, the team works to ensure campus students, staff, and faculty are trained on matters related to Title IX and equity (e.g. harassment, discrimination, unequal treatment based on sex, gender, disability, religious affiliation, veteran’s status, pregnancy, and health status).

While we are currently working a remote schedule, please know this does not make us any less available to students, staff, and faculty. Dana Beteet Daniels, UMSL’s Title IX Coordinator and Chief Equity Officer, can be reached at dana@umsl.edu, as well as 314-516-4538. Jessica Swederske, UMSL’s Title IX and Equity Investigator, can be reached at swederskej@umsl.edu and 314-516-5748. You can also access Title IX and equity information or make an online report by utilizing the following link: https://www.umsl.edu/title-ix/.

If you have suggestions for the Title IX and Equity Team, please do not hesitate to reach out to Dana or Jessica directly. We would love to learn what you would like to see from us!

*Dana Beteet Daniels
Title IX Coordinator & Chief Equity Officer
Jessica Swederske
Deputy Title IX Coordinator and Equity Officer*
In the Fall 2020 Semester, ODEI implemented the Diversity Alliance, a network of UMSL faculty and staff who champion diversity & inclusion initiatives within their departments/units. Over the academic year, alliance members have been working diligently in their respective areas to move the needle on diversity and inclusion. Below highlights some of the work of the alliance members. If you are interested in joining the Diversity Alliance, please send an email to odei@umsl.edu.

Diversity Alliance Members

Kelly Adams
HR—Recruiting, Selecting & Onboarding

Watch the interview with Kelly here.

---

Jonathan Lidgus
Director, SUCCEED Program

Watch Jonathan’s interview here.

---

Dr. Dana Klar
Assistant Teaching Professor

Click here to watch Dr. Klar’s interview.
ODEI Hosts the 26th Annual Women's Trailblazer Celebration

The Office of Diversity, Equity & Inclusion, in partnership with Gender Studies, had the pleasure of honoring 7 amazing women, "Trailblazers", in the closing ceremony for Women's History Month. Covid postponed last year’s event, but what a pleasure to be able to celebrate virtually. What an amazing ending to a great month of programming!

Click here to read about UMSL’s 2020/2021 Trailblazers. You can watch the full recording of the Trailblazer award ceremony here.

Celebrating Dr. Martin Luther King

Since the inaugural Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday Observance at UMSL on January 18, 1988, our campus community has celebrated the life, legacy and message of Dr. King with prolific speakers, inspiring music, song and dance, and the presentation of scholarships. This year’s theme, How can we Come Together for Social Equality? featured Michele Norris, former NPR host and special correspondent, our Mistress of Ceremonies, Marquetta Wise, a musical performance by Brian Owens, founder and executive director of L.I.F.E. Arts Inc. and the E. Desmond Lee Fine Arts Collaborative Community Music Artist in Residence as well as celebrated our MLK scholarship recipients.

Read more about this year’s event here.
We have been horrified to read and learn about racially motivated hate crimes involving physical violence and harassment of Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders, especially against the elderly. These are not isolated events; since the start of the COVID-19 pandemic, xenophobic rhetoric, harassment and violence against Asian American and Pacific Islander individuals, families and communities have increased 150%.

These acts damage our society and counter UMSL’s guiding principle on inclusion, which states “We believe celebrating and appreciating diversity is not enough. We strive to create a truly inclusive community, one where equity is reality. We recognize individual attributes and respect individual differences while firmly asserting that we are better together.”

— UMSL Joint Statement on Condemning and Combating Racism, Xenophobia and Intolerance Against Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders

The Office of Diversity, Equity & Inclusion reaffirms that "When HATE is loud, LOVE must not be silent." UMSL CommUNITY Conversations were designed to provide a forum for continued conversations and to allow individuals to come together in a facilitated manner in order to process, share and to, most importantly, listen.

Click here for more resources and to watch the recording of UMSL’s Town Hall: We Are Not A Virus - Tritons Against Asian Hate.

Office of Diversity, Equity & Inclusion
1 University Blvd. 152 JC Penney Bldg.
St. Louis, MO 63121-4400
Office Number: (314) 516-5695
E-mail: odei@umsl.edu
Website: https://www.umsl.edu/services/odei/index.html
ODEI Blog: https://blogs.umsl.edu/diversity/

Our Mission:
Guided by Inclusive Excellence