ION's Quality Online Course Initiative

ION and the Illinois Virtual Campus have taken the lead to develop a quality online course rubric and evaluation system in the state of Illinois. The goal of this project is to help colleges and universities to improve accountability of their online courses.

QOCI's Purpose

The main objectives of this project are:

Who's On the Committee

We have partnered with 2-year and 4-year, public and private educational institutions in Illinois. Find out who serves on the committee. Learn More...

Rubric Categories

Our first task was to determine what makes up a quality online course and divide those into logical categories.
