

College of Business Outcomes

Program	Communication	Information Mgt/Quantitative Skills	Valuing/Ethics/Integrity	Critical Thinking	Content Knowledge	Application/ Intern
Accounting BS
	Develop the ability to write and deliver a professional presentation.	Be able to independently research a topic in business.	Understand ethical considerations in all dimensions of business.	Have the ability to critically evaluate information.	Understand basic finance principles and practices and how they affect the success of the organization.
	Develop the ability to form teams and work in teams.	Develop skill in using technology to solve business problems.	Be aware of international issues in business.	Develop skill to think strategically about the business.	Understand basic accounting principles and practices and how they affect the success of an organization.
Interdisciplinary: Business Administration BSBA
	Develop the ability to write and deliver a professional presentation.	Be able to independently research a topic in business.	Understand ethical considerations in all dimensions of business.	Have the ability to critically evaluate information.	Understand basic management principles and practices and how they affect the success of an organization.

	Develop the ability to form teams and work in teams.	Develop skill in using technology to solve business problems.	Be aware of international issues in business.	Develop skill to think strategically about the business.	Understand basic operations and logistic management principles and how they affect the success of an organization.
					Understand basic marketing principles and practices and how they affect the success of an organization.
Information Systems: Management Information Systems BS
	Develop the ability to write and deliver a professional presentation.	Be able to independently research a topic in business.	Understand ethical considerations in all dimensions of business.	Develop skill to think strategically about the business.	Understand basic information systems principles and practices and how they affect the success of an organization.
		Develop skill in using technology to solve business problems.	Be aware of international issues in business.			