

Bachelor of Science in Nursing

Communication	Information Mgt/ Quantitative Skills	Valuing/Ethics/ Integrity	Critical Thinking	Content Knowledge	Application/ Internship
Utilize interpersonal communication, and educational strategies that enhance the quality of personal and professional relationships.	Apply research from nursing and related disciplines to enhance care and guide professional practice.	Assume responsibility and accountability for decisions and actions based on intrapersonal values, ethical and legal obligations, standards of practice, and economics.	Integrate critical thinking and problem solving in professional practice.	Integrate into practice theories and concepts from nursing, the arts, sciences and humanities to provide comprehensive nursing care in a variety of settings.	Administer competent, compassionate, holistic care to a diverse population of individuals, families, groups and communities
		Participate in professional and community organizations to effect societal change.		Integrate principles of management and leadership in organizing, coordinating, and directing outcome-based professional practice.	Exhibit motivation and self-direction in activities that contribute to personal, professional, and intellectual development.