Cry Freedom	Video, 157 min	1987	Richard Attenborough directed this dramatic story, based on actual events, about the friendship between two men struggling against apartheid in South Africa in the 1970s. Donald Woods (Kevin Kline) is a white liberal journalist in South Africa who begins to follow the activities of	afr	137

			Stephen Biko (Denzel Washington), a courageous and outspoken black anti-apartheid activist. Woods and his wife Wendy (Penelope Wilton) get to know Biko, and they become friends, until Biko is brutally murdered at the hands of government troops in 1977 for his activities against the country's repression of the black majority population. Donald is shocked and appalled by Biko's murder and determined that the truth about Biko will become known to the world; eventually, Donald and Wendy Woods and their children must leave South Africa (and nearly everything they have) as they spread the word about Biko's life and death to ensure that he did not die in vain. Washington received an

Dakan	Video 87 min	1997	The first feature film on homosexuality from sub-Saharan Africa, this film is a "contemporary African version of the age-old Romeo and Juliet conflict between love and social convention. " "When Sori and Manga tell their parents they are in love, they respond that, it's impossible; since time began, it's never happened. Boys don't do that'. They try to cure their sons by separating them; Manga is even subjected to a traditional purification ceremony in his ancestral village." The two sons do their best to live heterosexual lives, but "their destiny is both to	afr	105 love and to be lost." In French and Mandikan with English subtitles.

Educating Lucia: Life Series	Video 24 min	2000	12 year old Lucia wants to graduate to secondary school, and go on to train as a pilot. Her older sister Barita wants to study computers. Portia, the youngest, wants to be a dressmaker. Tragically for the sisters, they are more likely to receive no formal education, working as seasonal laborers on one of Zimbabwe's large-size commercial tobacco farms. They are AIDS orphans being raised by their grandmother. She can only afford school fees for one girl, Lucia, to attend primary school. Across Africa, the odds are dramatically against girls getting an education.	afr	135
