

Middle East Resources

TITLE:	TYPE OF MATERIAL:	COPYRIGHT:	GENERAL DESCRIPTION:	AREA :	CODE :
A Kid's Catalog Of Israel	supplementary student reading		Award-winning author Chaya Burstein takes young reader on a hike up, down and all around the land of Israel. Students will learn about the food, games, hobbies, holiday customs, worries and favorite TV shows of Israeli children. Gives a sense of how people live in this small and complex country. Book includes with a mini-encyclopedia of information from A (Abraham) to Z (Zionism).	mei	2
Afghanistan	resource material		It gives a detail introduction to the Afghanistan, its education system, population and other important characters.	me	90
afghanistan: land in crisis afghanistan and pakistan	map	2001		me	62
Al- Mubtaah Saudi arabia: A Proud Past And A Bright Future, July 1989	Periodical		This special issue of Al-Mubtaah, the magazine of the Saudi student in the U. S. , is meant mainly for the American reader who wishes to know a little bit more	mea	14 about the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, especially those aspects concerning its culture and heritage, which are the focus of this issue.

amen- nestawy-nakht	slide kit	1990	This kit was made possible by the generous donation of the mummy to the children of St. Louis by Mr. and Mrs. Barney A. Ebsworth. It has 20 slides about the mummy Amen Nestawy Nakht in St. Louis Art Museum. Teaching suggestions included.	me	29
American-Arab Affairs Council Notebook	teacher reference		A collection of resource material from the American-Arab affairs council.	me	33
American-Arab Affairs Winter 1986-87 Number 19	Periodical		It is published quarterly by the American-Arab Affairs Council to provide a forum for viewpoints on recent developments that affect U. S. -Arab relations. The American-Arab Affairs Council is a nonprofit, tax-exempt organization whose purpose is to contribute to an understanding of current issues in U. S. -Arab affairs.	mea	13
Amina And	children's	1982		me	21

Muhammad's Special Visitor	book
An Arab Family, "Families The World Over" Series	supplementary activity book	1985	Shows family life in Arab lands by telling the story of a farm family in a village in Oman. Shows occupations, family life, customs and how life has changed since the discovery of oil. Good reference book with many lovely and interesting photos.	mea	4
Ancient egypt	slide kit	1988	The kit was prepared from information sheets available in the Resource Center, from lecture notes, curatorial files and the museum library. It was prepared as a resource for area teachers and students. It has 20 slides dated from 3rd-1st B. C. with detail explanation. It also has nine classroom projects and some teaching suggestions.	me	21
Animal Life in Saudi Arabia	reference book	1982	This book contains beautiful photos and well-researched illustrations about the wild life in Saudi Arabia. "A necessary handbook to life in the desert and the exploration of saudi Arabia."	me	77
Anti-American Terrorism and the	Resource Material	2002	"Over many decades, radical forces in the	me	93

Middle East			middle east have changed and evolved, yet their basic outlook and anti-western views have remained remarkably consistent. Barry Rubin and Judith Colp Rubin have assembled nearly one hundred key document charting the evolution of radical middle east movements, their anti-Americanism, and western policy response. The book also shows and analyzed the often conflicting and deeply conflicted responses to September 11 by journalists, clerics, and activists in the Arab World." --Anti-American Terrorism and the Middle East
Arab And Jew: Wounded Spirits In A Promised Land	teacher reference	1986	A former New York Times bureau chief in Jerusalem, David Shipler use opinion pools, scholarly studies, popular literature, and social mores to explore how Arabs and Jews living in Israel and the occupied territories view each other. Focuses on how war, nationalism,	mei	1 terrorism and religious fanaticism reinforce enmity on both sides. Excellent material on perceptions and stereotypes. A beautifully written, sensitive, painful yet empathic account of those on both sides of the struggle.

Arab World 1991, The	calendar, poster	1991	A calendar for 1991.	me	61
Arab World Almanac	Periodical	1989	The first issue of Arab World Almanac, entitled "Who are the Arabs?", contains lesson objectives: classroom activities, an article, essay and poem defining the term "Arab"; an outline map of the Arab World; data sheets on physical features and demographic information; vocabulary enrichment list; and suggested background resources.	mea	9
Arab World Almanac, 1993	curriculum unit	1993	Designed to assist high school teachers in introducing Arab world to their classrooms. Three lessons available in this edition: 1. Women and the family in the Arab world	mea	16

			2. Central Asia, past and present 3. Government and Democracy in the Arab world Include lesson objectives, classroom exercise and activities, suggested background references, maps, statistics, and evaluation forms.
Arab World Almanac, Spring 1990 World Monitor Broadcast, March 7, 1990	video			mea	12
Arab World Mosaic: curriculum supplement for Elementary Teachers	curriculum supplement for Elementary Teachers	2000	By writer Sally Howell and two university anthropology professors with classroom teacher consultants. An excellent book of creative lessons that is designed to enrich topics in the elementary curriculum, including self, family, home, neighborhood, community and natural world. See especially the chapter on holidays and celebrations. Using these lesson plans, teachers can weave content about Arab and Islamic	mea	22 culture into activities teaching reading, math and writing skills. More than 20 original stories, most of them about real people.

Arab-Israeli Conflict: Teacher Resource Notebook	Resource Material		A Collection of teacher resource material including background reading, update newsletters, resource information, etc. It gives a comprehensive outlook why the conflicts exist from both Arab and Israel views.	mei	11
Aramco World Magazine	periodical		Aramco World is distributed without charge to a limited number of readers with an interest in Aramco, the oil industry, or the history, culture, geography and economy of the Middle East. Expertly illustrated with fine photography, the articles cover many facets of Middle East life in an apolitical way. Focuses on Arab and Islamic Middle East.	me	49
Atlas Of The Middle East	atlas	1993	Border and territorial issues of colonial origin have combined with historical, religious,	me	73 and ethnic tensions to contribute to the region's heated problems and costly wars. This Atlas incorporated a variety of physical and cultural geographic information to profile the region of the Middle East and its constituent's states. The research presented within is intended to assist the user in better understanding the problems and prospects besting the region.

Baltistan: The 20th Century Comes To Shangri-La (National Geographic Society Oct. 1987)	Periodical	Oct. 1987	Brought by warfare that still sputters, the modern ages its fast transforming this remote Karakoram mountain realm, as Galen and Barbara Cushman Rowell discover.	me	37
Caesarea Maritima (National Geographic Society Feb. 1987)	Periodical	Feb.1987	The harbor Herod, built lies in shallows off the Israeli coast. Some 2000 years ago, Caesarea Maritima welcomed ships to its harbor, called Sebastos. Featuring innovative design and hydraulic concrete, this building feat by a king given to grand gestures set a standard for harbors	me	35 to come.

Central Agency For Jewish Education Fee Policy Of Teacher's Center	teacher resource guide		A variety of materials/consumables are available for purchase. List and purchase prices are available from Teachers' Center.	me	44
Compassionate Peace: A Future For The Middle East, A	Teacher reference	1982	Compassionate Peace makes its claims as a document based on an attempt at rational and humane argument. It is succinct, serious, and comprehensive analysis of the multiple problems of the Middle East leading to sensible suggestions, which blend humane concerns and long term realism. It conveys a great deal of information and it reads extremely well.	me	56
Conflict Catalog: Middle East Vol. 2. No. 1 Spring 1988	Student and teacher reference	1988	Provides a one page, front and back analysis of the most significant conflicts occurring in the region. Background introduction to each conflict gives key information about each country geography, people, economy and government. Analysis of the conflict itself gives a statement about the cause of the conflict followed by a	me	19 historical overview of significant events. A discussion of recent attempts to resolve the conflict is followed by a brief statement concerning US interest.

Crisis IN The Gulf: A Study Circle on America's Choice	Discussion guide with readings	1990	It will help teachers lead students in a discussion of US policy options in the Persian Gulf Crisis. Outlines four policy options, their goals, underlying beliefs and criticisms. Includes short readings for and against war from Newsweek. A second, March 1991 booklet, focuses on postwar US policy options.	me	23
Crisis: The World vs. Sadam Hussein	scholastic update, vol 123, no. 3 oct 5 1990	1990	This issue provides students an overview of the Persian Gulf Crisis supplemented with articles on Saddam Hussein, Islam, the roots of anti-westernism, oil, history of US involvement and the reactions of Arab-American teens. Includes useful wall map, "Oil and Power".	me	22a,b
Current History: A Journal Of Contemporary World Affairs	periodical, teacher reference		This issue presents 8 articles that provide important context for understanding the Gulf Crisis. Varied	me	48 issues available.

dawn over oman	reference book	1979	"This boo, originally published by Khayat Book and Publishing Co. of Beirut was written by a journalist who was there throughout these vital years in the development of the country. It is easy to read and often humorous but at the same time serious enough to fill in the gaps in Oman's history so often neglected. "--dawn over oman	mea	19
Day The World Ended At Kourion: Reconstruction An Ancient Earthquake, The (National Geographic Society July, 1988)	Periodical	July 1988	Times were hard in Kourion. Death came with little warning. Most witnesses of the event were almost certainly killed, and the city faded from historical record. Though a new urban center was begun 18 years later, ancient Kourion became in effect a lost city.	me	40
Egypt	poster 36" x 28"		38' X 26' poster of Egypt, which pictures a sphinx and pyramid, with an Egyptian woman in front of them.	me	65
Egypt	poster 26 1/2 " x 18 1/2"		26 1/2" X 18 1/2" poster depicting Egyptian characters and hieroglyphics.	me	66
Egypt: Two	Periodical	March,1977	I. "Legacy of	me	42

Perspectives (National Geographic Society, March, 1977)			Dazzling Past" The everyday lives of king and commoner alike survive in the magnificent art gleaned from Ancient Egypt's tombs and temples. II "Omens for a Better Tomorrow" Thomas J. Abercrombie finds promising signs- burgeoning technology, profitable oil strikes, and realistic leadership- in the "changeless" world beside the Nile.
Egyptian Cinderella, The	Children's Literature	1989	An Egyptian version of the Cinderella story.	me	76
Egyptian Peaks	video 35 min & Guide	1988	This video program and 60-page teacher's guide were produced by teachers who participated in a Fulbright Group Seminar Abroad in Egypt. The cassette contains three programs that provide a good, brief overview of the country's geography of Egypt. "From the Pharaohs to the Presidents: An overview of the History of Egypt" introduces the country's 5000 year history through a brief look at major	mea	10 developments and invasions. "From Inventions to Islam: An Overview of the Culture of Egypt" introduce major cultural contributions, ancient and modern.

Enchanting Oman	reference book	1988	Photos that depict beautifully the children, the costumes, homes, life style and above all, the people of this nation that is part of the Arabian peninsula.	mea	20
Enrichment Activity for "Lands, Peoples and Communities of the Middle East"	curriculum unit	1991	This is an introductory work-study text for students in intermediate grades. Include: -Text : Lands, People and Communities of the Middle East - Enrichment activities duplicating masters booklet - Wall map: countries in the Middle East today - Map relay-game kit - Teacher's resource guide for the unit	me	82
Excerpts From: Analysis Of The Factual Information On The Middle East In World History/Cultures Textbooks	Selected bibliography	1986	A selected bibliography from Analysis of the Factual Information on the Middle East in World Cultures/ History Texts and Analysis of the	me	43

			Factual Information of the Middle East in World Cultures/ History texts Pertinent 20th Century Documents.
Favorite Tales of Sholom Aleichen	literature	1983	Stories and sketches from the old country by the greatest Yiddish writer of modern times. Depicts the lives of Jews in Eastern Europe and Russia at the turn of the century. Includes the stories of Teryce which became the basis for the Broadway musical "Fiddle on the Roof".	mei	4
Favorite Stories From Persia	myths, stories and folktales	1982	This booklet gives teacher a rich resource of bilingual myths, folktales and legends from Persia. Could be used in storytelling or individual students reading to learn about the values and customs of other cultures and universal human values or with ESL students.	me	71
Frontline: Gunning for Saddam	video for 60 minutes	1999	"As Americans are confronted by acts of bioterrorism, powerful forces in the nation's capitol believe Iraqi President Saddam Hussein is to blame,	me	84 for this and many other terrorist acts during the last decade. Many are lobbying to mobilize a military operation to oust Hussein when the next phase of the war on terrorism kicks in."--PBS

Frontline: Hunting Bin Laden	video (60 minutes), transcript	2001	"Investigating Osama Bin Laden, his network, and his role in terrorist attacks on America."	me	87
Frontline: Looking for Answers	video for 60 minutes	2001	"In this video, Frontline and the New York Times investigate the roots of the terror network. The documentary examines how the seeds of hatred were sown, not in Afghanistan, but in the lands of the two great U.S. allies in the Islamic world: Egypt and Saudi Arabia. Correspondent Lowell Bergman interviews bin Laden sympathizers, members of fringe militant Islamic groups, and Egyptian and Saudi ambassadors and dissidents, who explain their objections to everything from American troops on Saudi soil to the U.S.	me	91

			government's support for Israel and for repressive regimes in the oil-rich Middle East."-- PBS
Frontline: Muslims	Video ,120min	2002	"Misconceptions and lack of understanding dominate America's perception of Islam, the world's second largest and fastest growing religion. MUSLIMS takes an in-depth look at what is means to be a Muslim in the 21st century. Filmed in Egypt, Malaysia, Iran, Turkey, Nigeria and the United States, MUSLIMS explores the influence of culture and politics on religion, and provides a deeper understanding of the political forces at work among Muslims around the world. The film emphasizes Islam's kinship with Christianity and Judaism, and looks at diverse interpretations of Islam among Muslim people."--Mystic Fire Video	ME	101
Global Studies: Middle East	Student reference	1994	A new series that provides students with concise	me	9

			background information and current world press articles on regions of the world. Gives short essay, statistical information and map for each country. Two longer essays on Islam in ferment and conflicts in the Middle East. Handy, up-to-date reference book.
Heart of the Middle East	Map	2002	Offer information on religions, oil, water, population, GDP per capita, troops and crude oil reserves.	me	103
Human Relations Materials For The School Church And Community From The Anti-Defamation League Of B'nai B'rith	teacher resource guide		This catalog describes over 170 books, films and videos on the geography and history of the Middle East, the history of Israel, Jerusalem, Jewish history and early Zionism, US-Israeli relations and books are for high school and adult readers, there is a special section on books for children. All materials maybe purchased or rented from ADL.	me	45
Insights: Middle East	Student text	1980	According to Middle East experts, this is one of the very best texts. Excellent pictures, charts and a concise introduction	me	28 to the complexity of the region. Strong on geography and culture. Each chapter opens with two questions and uses primary source readings and case studies to answer those questions. Last chapter focuses on challenges facing the Middle East today and how they affect people's lives.

Introduction To The Arab World	video 45 min & Guidebook	1989	Divided into three, information-packed but quite manageable 15 minute segments. "Overview" breaks the Arab world down into regions and for each gives an excellent combination of historical overview and geographic analysis. "Islam" gives a good overview of the impressive historical achievements of Islamic culture and how Islam is practiced today. "Arab Society Today" focuses on the tremendous social and economic change-taking place today as a result of western influence, urbanization and the discovery of oil. Outstanding 141-page guidebook	mea	2 a, b explains instructional goals and gives discussion questions for each segment. Also includes resource list, classroom exercises and informational handouts such as glossary and comparative timeline.

Iraq	resource material		It gives a detail introduction to Iraq, its education, population, geography, culture and other important characters.	me	102
Islam		1984	The seven chapters explores these subjects: 1. who the Muslims are and what their basic beliefs are 2. the five pillars or basic tenets, of Islam 3. the prophet hood of Muhammad and the major Muslim celebrations 4-6 the social, economic and political ideals and institutions of Islam 7. the effect of Islamic beliefs on aesthetic production and an overview of Islamic history.	me	53
Islam	video 60 min	1988	This program exposes what it means to be Muslim, highlighting the achievements of	me	55

			Islam. Challenges includes a global discussion of how many Muslims look to this religion to succeed when both capitalism and socialism have failed to bring about successful development in the modern world.
Islam: A Pictorial Essay in Four Parts	video for 90 minutes		"This exceptional 90-minute, four-part video program on Islam. The combination of these elements has resulted in probably the best audio-visual program on Islam currently available, from which a real understanding may be gained of the beliefs, culture and history of the Islamic world." "The programme is used with much success in secondary schools, universities, teacher training courses times and is an excellent basis for group discussion, making it particularly useful for teachers. It is a must for anyone interested in gaining an understanding of the Muslim world, including diplomats, travelers and businessmen."	me	99

			Cited from the official description of this video.
islam: a primer	teacher reference & advanced students	2001	"Presenting a basic overview of Islamic history, beliefs, and practices, Islam: A Primer is an excellent introduction for the nonspecialist. Appropriate for (college student) and for teacher reference. First published in 1983, this classic is now in its sixth printing."- AMIDEAST catalog.	me	4
Islam And Islamic Women Of The Middle East	cassette	1989	"Islam And Islamic Women Of The Middle East" is 28 minutes taped radio interview with 2 women, an educator and an Islamic scholar. Discussions include women right in marriage and divorce and Western stereotypes of Islamic women. The interview on Islamic covers " What is Islam, Islamic Perception of the West, guide for Islamic values in the modern world, and growth of Islam in America. Each includes a useful teachers guide.	me	47
Islam: Empire Of Faith	video (2) 180 minutes	2000	"The three-hour program tells the	me	88

			story of the great weep of Islamic power and faith during its first 1000 years - from the birth of the prophet Muhammed to the peak of the Ottman Empire under the reign of Suleiman the Magnificent. Historical re-enactments and a remarkable exposition of Islamic art, artifacts and architecture are combined with interviews of scholars from around the world to recount the rise and importance of early Islamic civilization. "
Islam: The Straight Path	teacher reference	1988	The goal of this volume is to enable readers to understand and appreciate what Muslims believe and practice. The author has tried to select, describe, and analyze those beliefs, practices, issues, developments, and movements that provide some appreciation of that faith which has inspired and informed the lives of a major portion of the world community.	me	52

Israel And The Arabs	student reading	1990	A concise 48 page history of the Middle East since 1900 up to 1985. AN excellent reference tool for students and teachers studying the Arab-Israeli conflict. Include good maps, and charts, thumbnail shelters of important figures, primarily documents and related discussion questions.	mei	3
Israel: Teacher resource notebook	resource material		It gives a detail introduction to the State of Israel, its history, its flora and fauna.	mei	10
Issues In Global Education	curriculum unit, teacher reference book		The material is taken from "Spotlight on the Muslim Middle East: Issues of Identity", a two volume curriculum guide consisting of a student reader and a teacher's guide. It examined the issues of religion, community, ethnicity, nationalism, and gender which combine to form the identity of the Muslim Middle Easterner.	mei	7
Jeddah: Old and New	reference book	1982	Discover Jeddah, an ancient Arabian city, the commercial center of Saudi Arabia, the assembly point for the Hajj	me	79 pilgrimage, and how it grows into a modern city at unprecedented rate.

Jordan Cultural Artificial Kit	cultural artifact kit		The kit introduces students to Jordanian culture and geography. With slight modification it is applicable to the Arab world in general. Clothing suggests discussion of Islamic customs, as does the prayer rug. Kit includes cassette tape of popular music, pamphlets on Jordan and a master map kit of the Middle East.	mea	11
Journey To Jerusalem		1988	A journalist's account of Christian, Jewish, and Muslim families in the strife-torn holy land.	me	54
Kingdom of Saudi, The Arabai/Information Portfolio	Student projects and teacher background reading		A very rich and attractive collection of pamphlets, magazines and newsletters on Saudi Arabia.	me	20
Kuwait exhibition	slide kit		20 slide kits from St. Louis Art Museum's collection of a special exhibition (2003) from Kuwait.	me	18
Living Islam: Paradise lies at the feet of the mother	video for 60 minutes	1993	"Of all the accusations leveled at Islam, that it treats women badly is one of the most commonly heard. This program	me	92 explores women, the Muslim family, the pressure to change and the forces which hold change back."-- Ambrose Video

Map & Facts: Middle East	map	1993	Maps of middle east countries, with time line.	me	86
Map of Middle East Oil And Gas	map		.	me	89
Middle East	map, no. 02296 plastic	1984		me	5
Middle East	teacher resource Guide			me	14
Middle East And North Africa Map, The	map (full color, 57' x 37') #19101		Easily seen from the back of any classroom or lecture hall, this colorful map highlights the Middle East and North Africa from Morocco to Afghanistan. Major cities, water bodies, mountain ranges, and deserts are labeled. Surrounding areas in Africa, Asia, and Europe are lightly shaded to provide geographical context. 8 1/2 by 11 inch desk copy included.	me	59
Middle East - Community Resources	teacher resource guide		Community resources for Middle East.	me	85
Middle East Content Priority Teaching Guide For Teachers, The	Syllabus & teacher resource guide	1979	The Content Priority Teaching Guide is a detailed syllabus that describes essential topics for teaching 3, 6, 9 and 13-week	me	32 units on the Middle East. Topics include geography, history, politics, economics, religion, and aspects of contemporary life. Suggests teaching materials for each topic. If you need help in developing a unit on the Middle East, this syllabus is a good place to start. After you decide which topics to teach, the Resource Guide for Teachers will help you select resources. The Guide is a collection of synopsis and evaluations of teaching resources including filmstrips, films, textbooks, and teacher handbooks. Extensive and thoughtful annotation.

Middle East Crisis	Map	1991	A map of the Middle East that gives a chronological background of the area.	me	34
Middle East: State In Turmoil, The	Map	1991	Detailed map 20" X 25" political map of the Middle East on one side and on the other a topographical and thematic map of the regions, "States in Turmoil," which traces the roots of the Gulf War to 19th century European	me	75 interventionism. Gives population, GNP and military statistics for each state. Includes a short narrative of the history of conflict in the region since 1869 and several inset historical maps.

Middle East Student Desk Map, The	Map 23" x 47"	1984	It includes the Middle East on one side and the eastern Mediterranean and Persian/Arabian Gulf on the other side. Indicates location of capitals and major cities but allows students to write in names of cities and countries.	me	64
Middle East: The Image And The Reality, The	teacher resource Guide	1981	A comprehensive book for teachers that covers both philosophy and resources for teaching about the Middle East. Includes suggested curriculum for elementary and junior high, approaches for high school teaching, reviews of filmstrips, and "The Middle East Content Priority Teaching Guide."	me	15
Middle East: The "Opposing Viewpoints" series	Supplementary student reading	1982	Uses speeches, and newspaper articles to present the views of Arabs, Israelis, Palestinians and US organizations and	me	30

			government officials on the Arab-Israeli conflict and role of the superpowers. Activities encourage students to identify stereotypes differentiate fact from opinion and distinguish between primary and secondary sources. Good material for teaching critical thinking skills and encouraging student debate.
Middle East: The Third World Series	Supplementary student reading	1984	This book aims to help students understand the problems of Middle Eastern Third World nations by explaining the regions five most important minority groups-Copts, Shias, Jews, Armenians and Palestinians. Includes a chapter on the Arab- Israeli conflict. Each chapter includes appropriate maps, charts, black and white photos and good discussion questions.	me	74
Middle Eastern Costumes	slide unit	1985	Slide unit and general information about slides.	me	68
Middle Eastern Materials For Teachers, Students And	Teacher resource guide	1988	Compiled by Middle Eastern studies specialists, this is the most extensive	me	3

Non-specialists			teacher's guide to print material. Topics include reference works, geography, literature, religion, cultures, history, high school textbook reviews, and resource organizations. Special feature is page-long reviews of recent books. For evaluations of audiovisuals, see the publication A Resource Guide for Middle Eastern Studies.
Mistaken Identity: Arab Stereotypes In Popular Writing	Teaching background reading	1985	Exposes stereotypes of Arabs commonly found in biographies, histories, mysteries and novels.	mea	6
Muslim calligraphy	slide kit	1991	"A very disciplined and controlled art form, calligraphy is Islam's ideal form of visual expression. Islam chose the written word rather than figurative art to express its faith throughout history and as a result, the written word carried not only religious significance but aesthetic qualities as well. Muslims believe the word to be a gift from God and in the Quran."- the St. Louis Art Museum Resource	me	105

			Center It offers 13 slide lists with detail explanation for their time and background. In the end, it also gives the Muslim Calligraphy teaching suggestions.
Muslim Cooking (Quick and Simple Recipes)	backgrounding resource information		" The simple and straightforward recipes in 'Jhat-Patt' are not only quick to cook but also a breeze to prepare. Even a novice could confidently tackle dishes that sound formidable. The book has an excellent selection of both foreign and local recipes."-- MAG	me	104
National Geographic: Struggle Of The Kurds	periodical	1992, August	"Saddam Hussein's atrocities in northern Iraq have focused world attention on an ancient people seeking autonomy in their long-divided homeland."	me	83
New Frontiers: The Middle East Following World War I: The Middle East Series	video 25 min	1984	An excellent tool for understanding one of the major historical sources of Middle East tension: the redrawing of the region's map by the European powers following World War I. Also explains how ideas of nationalism imported from the West	me	26

			supplanted the traditional multi-ethnic diversity of pre-war Middle Eastern empires. Highly recommended for teaching history, geography or current events in the Middle East.
Nine Parts of Desire: The Hidden World of Islamic Women		1995	"Geraldine Brooks spent two years as a Middle East news correspondent, covering the death of Khomeini and the like. She also learned a lot about what it's like for Islamic women today. Brooks' book is exceedingly well-done--she knows her Islamic lore and traces the origins of today's practices back to Mohammed's time. Personable and very readable, Brooks takes us through the women's back door entrance of the Middle East for an unusual and provocative view. "-- Amazon editorial reviews	me	97
Oil Progress	periodical, supplementary student & teacher reference		Oil Progress is distributed without charge to a limited number of readers with an interest in the oil industry, or	me	50

			the history, culture, geography and economy of the Middle East. Expertly illustrated with fine photography, the articles cover many facets of Middle East life in an apolitical way. Focuses on Arab and Islamic Middle East.
Oman 98/99	reference book/ information handbook		The Oman Information Handbook has been published annually since 1979. In addition to the Arabic and English editions, it is translated into French, German, Spanish, Italian and Japanese and distributed through the Ministry's information offices and representatives in Egypt, France, Belgium, Holland, etc. This book gives a comprehensive outlook on Oman's history, geography, foreign affairs, defense, oil, youth, education, health, house, justice, civil service, etc. Above all, it is a very good handbook to know detail information about Oman.	mea	18
Our Global	Curriculum	1993	This resource hopes	me	70

Village: A Cultural Resource Guide	unit		to create a multicultural community in your classroom celebrations.
Peace In The Middle East: Is It For Real?	Periodical, vol. 127, no. 2, Sept 1994	Sept. 16 1994		me	72
Persian Gulf: Living In Harms Way, The (National Geographic Society, May,1988)	Periodical	May 1988	US and other nations deployed naval escorts and minesweepers to protect shipping-but by 1987 air raids and gunboats were hitting an average of a ship a day in the Persian Gulf. This article examines the problems of the Persian Gulf.	me	41
Price of Honor: Muslim Women Lift The Veil Of Silence On the Islamic World		1994	"Goodwin set out to investigate the status of women in 10 Islamic countries after being shocked and appalled at the brutal treatment of a nine-year-old girl she befriended while living in Peshawar, a frontier town on the border of Pakistan and Afghanistan. Her findings are profoundly disturbing and center on the enormous influence of radical Islamic fundamentalists, who have created a system of "gender apartheid" that has turned women into	me	98

			virtual prisoners. After providing deft descriptions of the current atmosphere in each country, she relates shocking stories of restriction, cruelty, abuse, and violence. Most Islamic women now live severely circumscribed lives. They are forbidden to go out without male chaperons and face harsh jail terms, or even death, for such "crimes" as failing to be fully concealed in a chador or other heavy, dark garments. Worse, of course, are the frequent beatings and rapes, many committed by the police. Men can divorce their wives secretly and are free to have several wives, while women are kept cloistered at home, suffering from depression and a host of ailments associated with lack of sunshine and exercise. This tragic state of affairs is all the more maddening given the fact that none of the more flagrant abuses have any basis in the Koran, which
--	--	--	---	--

			teaches respect for women as equal and invaluable partners in Muslim society. Goodwin takes pains to present balanced and well-documented information, making her revelations all the more alarming."- -Amazon editorial review
Progress 2003 (celebrating the 33rd anniversary of his majesty's [sultan taboos bin said] accession [to the throne of oman])	background reading	2003	This book of photo essays about Oman is published annually by the government of Oman in celebration of the accession to the throne of Oman's ruler, Sultan Qaboos bin Said. His rule is essentially the story of the modernization of Oman. Written both in English and Arabic, the beautiful photos can give students an interesting view of one Arab nation's attempt to modernize while maintaining its cultural and religious traditions. Also important are the oil-rich country's strategies for diversifying its economy and for promoting environmentally-friendly ("eco") tourism. Younger students will enjoy the pictures, which	mea	23 help dispel stereotypes about the Arab World.

Qur'an, The			The holy book of Islam.	me	16
Resource Guide For Middle Eastern Studies, A	teacher resource Notebook	1984	This large, loose-leaf binder notebook includes embassies and consultants and descriptions of outreach programs serving teachers. Special feature is a 75-page annotated list of films and vides available from the outreach centers.	me	13
Scared Rage: The Wrath Of Militant Islam	teacher reference		Cogent and balanced examination of the origins of Islamic fundamentalism and its impact on the contemporary Middle East. Wright brings extensive, first hand reporting to her book along with interviews with many Islamic leaders.	me	12
Scholastic Update: Peace in the Middle East, is it for Real?	periodical	1994, sept 16	A beautifully illustrated book containing a wealth of information about Saudi Arabia.	me	81
Science: The Islamic Legacy (A special issue Aramco)	Periodical		No one could possibly cover the full history of Islamic science, we have chosen to present highlights from history and samplings of present developments.	me	58

Sects And Violence: Fragmentation Within Religions: The Middle East Series	video 25 min	1984	Provides a very clear explanation of how the three major religions of the Middle East-Islam, Judaism and Christianity-are fragmented into smaller sects that compete for influence. Also shows how religious activism often leads to political activism and confrontation. Provides students an important key to understanding conflicts in the Middle East today.	me	27
Split Vision:The Portrayal Of Arabs In The American Media	Teaching background reading	1983	Interview with prominent journalists and essays by media specialists explore the role of the media in shaping American perception of Arab. Includes discussion of reporter on Arab-Israeli dispute and a chapter on high school textbooks.	mea	7
Story Of Mary And Jesus From The Qur'an, The		1989	Maryam, the Arabic for May, mother of Jesus, is the name of 19th chapter of the Qur'an. The reverence and respect of Muslims for Jesus and his mother will immediately be apparent from a reading of this chapter, as the lives	me	46

			of the Virgin and her child, and of John (the Baptist) before them, are unmistakably presents in terms of holiness, grace, love, and miracle.
Suleyman The Magnificent (National Geographic Society Nov. 1987)	Periodical	Nov. 1987	Merle Severy Chronicles the great Turkish sultan who raised the Ottoman Empire to its zenith in the 16th century, pitting East and West in a holy war of terrorism, hostages, and intrigue that echoes in today's headlines.	me	38
Survey Of World Cultures Asia And The Middle East, A	text book	1990	This text "takes the low road" to learning: at a comfortable for low-track students and the limited learner. In terms of interest level, however, it is the "high road" that stretches ahead. Geography and Climate; History; Major Inventions; Family and Life Patterns; Economics; Expression Through the Arts and Entertainment: and Current World Issues.	me	51
Tale Of Ringy: An Original Persian Folk Story, The	Children's Literature	1983	Beautifully illustrated book in which the bird Ringy finds a piece of cotton and has it	me	7 transformed into a wonderful robe. The story is a long poem, with much repetition and is written in Persian and English. Eye opening and especially good for primary children.

Teacher Resource Material: Islam	Teacher resource guide		A compilation of information on and materials about Islam to be used by the classroom teacher. Includes information on audiovisuals, and also resource lists and background readings.	me	69
Teacher Resource Material: Middle East	teacher resource guide		A collection of teacher resource material including Arab-Israeli conflict, background readings, children's literature, contemporary viewpoints, culture, Egypt tourist authority, ethnic groups and, geography. Also includes lists of recommended audiovisuals, catalogues, resource lists, and resource organizations, teacher's guide, and teacher newsletters.	me	1
Teacher Resource Material Notebook - Israel	teacher reference, teacher resource guide		A collection of teacher resource material including background	mei	6 readings, newsletters, resource information and organizations.

Teacher Resource Material Notebook - The Arab World	Teacher reference, teacher resource guide		A collection of teacher resource material including information on audio visual, background readings, newsletters, resource information and organization.	mea	15
Teacher Resource Material: The Gulf War	teacher resource guide		A collection of teacher resource material including newspaper clipping, background reading, environment, geography, and magazine articles. Also includes lists of recommended audiovisual, catalogues, resource lists, and resource organizations, teacher's guides, and teacher newsletters	me	63
Teachers Supplement For Middle Eastern Studies	TEachers manual	1989	The Middle East Outreach Council is a collection of Middle East studies scholars with classroom teachers to improve teaching about the Middle East. This supplement provides teachers with background information, suggested teaching strategies and study materials on	me	31

			proverbs, folktales and folk songs and dance. Also includes a glossary, fact sheet on cultures of the region, recipes and information about languages.
Teaching About Perception: The Arabs	supplementary activity book	1978	Focusing on identification and examination of stereotypes, this book presents 17 activities on perception utilizing Arabs as the case study. The book is designed to be adaptable for the study of other cultural groups as well. Activities include "what do you think of the Arab?" "Ahab the Arab," "examining textbook data about the Arabs," and "do words speak louder than actions?"	mea	3
Teaching Materials Catalog For The Middle East	teacher resource guide	1989	An exhaustive and well- annotated list of over 500 items that constitute the Center's collection for precollegiate educator. Includes books, periodicals, slide sets, games, videos, maps and curriculum units. Topics cover history, religion, Arab-Israeli conflict, oil, fine arts, and cooking and	me	24 individual countries in the region.

Teaching with the News: Crisis with Iraq-Fall 2002	Resource Material	2002	"This lesson has been developed by the Choices for the 21st Century Education Program at Brown University's Watson Institute for International Studies. It is designed to help teachers to engage their students in consideration of this important international issue. This lesson includes: 1.Policy Options; 2.Lesson Plan; 3.Suggested Background Resources; 4.Responding to Terrorism: Challenges for Democracy; 5.Shifting Sands: Balancing U.S. Interests in the Middle East; 6.The International System in the 21st Century: Considering the U.S. Role."--Choices Education Program	me	100
Terrorism	Resource Material		A collection of teacher resource materials on terrorism. A lot of current reading related to terrorism from World Press Review, Current History, Courier, and	me	17

			Strategic Forum, etc will offer you a comprehensive outlook to this topic.
Text Evaluation Project	teacher reference	1992		me	25
The Arab World Notebook For The Secondary School Level	Curriculum Guide	1989	A 450-page curriculum guide in a loose-leaf binder. Covers 20 topics with duplicate masters of maps, reading, lesson plans and activities. Includes fully annotated film and video list and criteria for evaluating textbook.	mea	8
The Arabs 1984/85	reference book		A handy little booklet of maps and statistics on the land, the people and economics.	mea	5
The Art of Arabian Costume - A Saudi Arabian Profile	reference book	1985	See the brilliant color, variety of form and ingenuity of decoration to be found in costume of the Arabian Peninsula. Also explores the subject of beauty culture, jewelry and related arts and crafts.	me	78
The Haj (Aramco Magazine, Jul/Aug '92)	magazine article		Photos and text describe the Haj-the pilgrimage to Makkah (Mecca) that is one of the central religious duties of Muslims.	me	67
The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia	reference book	1983	A beautifully illustrated book	me	80 containing a wealth of information about Saudi Arabia.

The Making Of The Arabs "The Arabs: A Living History" Series	video 50 min	1986	By asking people from Morocco to Jordan what it means to be Arab, the narrator gives an overview of the history and culture of the Arab World. Emphasis on role of anti-colonialism and anti-imperialism in shaping Arab nationalism and identity. Suggest each student has a desk map for reference and perhaps do pre-viewing map activities.	mea	1
The Middle Eastern Family	slide unit	1984	Packaged in a loose-leaf binder are 40 colorful slides with commentary, background reading, discussion questions, map and drawing. Articles on the Kibbutz and Islamic child rearing practices. Using worksheets students' trace their family lines the American way and Middle Eastern way. (patrilineal descent).	me	2
The Politics Of Dispossession: The Struggle for Palestinian Self-Determination,		1994	"An eloquent and thoughtful advocate of Palestinian rights and self-determination, Said	me	96

1969-1994			offers a selection of essays gleaned from the large body of his work originally published over the past 25 years. Said presents an overview of Palestinian culture and provides a historical framework for the Palestinian struggle. Rather than operating as a spokesperson or an apologist for the PLO, the author subjectively chronicles both the achievements and the tragic failures of this organization. Viewed collectively, these articles represent a credible case for a more viable Palestinian presence and voice in the Middle East and offer hope for a nonviolent reconciliation between Israelis and Palestinians. A logical and reasonable contribution to the often inflammatory literature of Arab-Jewish relations."-- Amazon editorial reviews
The Story of Israel	literature		An easy to read account of the story of Israel. Drawn and written especially for young people ages 8	mei	5 to 14.

Their Land And Ours: Middle East Master Map Kit	Map	1986	A must for teaching the geography of the region, this kit includes map of the US and 22 countries of the Middle East, all drawn to the same scale. Using transparencies provided, teachers can overlay maps of Middle Eastern countries with US states and augment the comparisons with statistics provided.	me	6
Through Middle Eastern Eyes "Cite World Culture" Series	student text & teacher's guide	1984,1993	This reader broadens students' perspectives by presenting Middle Eastern Views of the region and the world. Stories, articles, letters and book excerpts cover contemporary and historical topics including childhood, education, marriage, women, modernization, Islam, colonialism, the Arab-Israeli conflict and the oil economy.	me	10 a,b
Tkuma - Israel's First 50 Years	video (6) 53 minutes each	1991	"The six-part series is a retrospective on Israel's first fifty years of existence. It offers a timely perspective on events currently unfolding in the Middle East.	mei	8

			Penetrating insights are provided by major contemporary figures: ariel sharon, binyamin netanyahu, and others - as well as everyday people simply trying to live their lives. " <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. "Future Peace , Next War" 2. "From the orange to the chip" 3. "The conflict" 4. " The Ingathering" 5. "The People's Army" 6. "Whose State? Whose Religion?"
Tribute 1997-1998	reference book		Contents: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.Southern comfort 2. Miles to go... 3. Saving silver 4. Market Mania 5. Advantage, Shell 6. Shop Talk 7. The business of leisure 8. Profit by experience 9.Smooth sailing 10. Private matters 11. Man with the Midas touch 12. Center of action 13. Counting on progress 14. A bridge across the ocean 15. Sleeping beauties, etc 	mea	21
Twenty Centuries Of Jewish Life In The Holy Land: The Forgotten Generations		1976	This booklet gives a century by century highlight of Jewish life in the Holy Land.	me	57
Two Centuries OF Conflict In The Middle East	map	1982	A detailed in history map of the Middle East.	me	60

U.S.-Afghanistan Relations:Gaining Perspective	Resource material,Video for 44 minutes	2001	"The enemy of my enemy is my friend." In this program, ABC News correspondent Chris Bury shows how that Arab adage sums up American's relation to Afghanistan since the Cold War. Given the calamity, U.S. support to the mujahideen and the subsequent abandonment of Afghanistan upon the Soviet Union's defeat are discussed by Frank Anderson, head of the CIA's Afghan task force in the 1980s; Charles Wilson, former U.S. Congressman and proponent of Afghan support; Ben Rooney, a reporter with The Telegraph who covered the Afghan/Soviet war; Tom Carew, a former British SAS soldier who helped train the Afghan army, and two veterans from both sides of Afghan/Soviet war."(42 minutes, color) --Asian Education Media Service	me	94
Uncle Noruz: An Original Persian Folk Story	Children's Literature	1983	A brightly illustrated folktale about an old lady who waits in her garden for Uncle	me	8

			Noruz or Uncle New Year. Each page consists of a paragraph and faces a lively collage picture of fabric scraps, bold colors and line drawing. Story in Persian and English.
When The Moors Rules Spain (National Geographic Society July, 1988)	Periodical	July 1988	Leaving their mark in every land they conquered, Muslim Arabs surged out of the Middle East into North Africa in the 7th century A. D., crossing the Strait of Gibraltar into the Iberian Peninsula. Known as Moors, they ruled in Spain for almost 800 years until 1492, when they were ousted by their Catholic Majesties Ferdinand and Isabella. The Moors left behind a cultural legacy still evident in both Spain and Morocco.	me	39
Why the Hate? America, from a Muslim Point of View	Video for 44 minutes	2001	"In the aftermath of September 11th, George W. Bush made an ultimatum to the world: "Either you are with us or you are with the terrorists." But for many followers of Islam—a global community that includes more than a billion devotees—the	me	95

			choice is not that simple. This timely ABC News program explores the mixed emotions felt by many Muslims toward the U.S. Topics on the agenda include American culture, often perceived as offensive, and U.S. foreign policy, frequently viewed as threatening. By capturing individual opinions and attitudes, correspondent Chris Bury addresses common themes in an effort to answer the question of a stunned American populace: "Why do they hate us so much?" (44 minutes, color) --Films for the Humanities & Science
Without Rights	video, 24 min	2000	In 1948, during the are that accompanied the founding of Israeli state, thousands of Palestinian refugees fled to neighboring countries. In 1967, the Israelis fought what they regarded as a defensive war - and occupied the West Bank of Jordan and the Gaza Strip. As a result there are now 1.3 million	mei	9

			Palestinian refugees living under Israeli control, and denied many human rights guaranteed to all people under international laws. This video explores their plight against the backdrop of the stalled Camp David talks on peace in the Middle East.
Women In The Middle East	multimedia	1980	The filmstrip, Women in the Middle East has one major objective-to review and emphasize the effects of segregation, seclusion and veiling of women in the Middle East. The vast differences in women's lives depending on their geographical location religious and national ties, class or historic time periods can only be superficially treated.	me	11a,b,c
Women of Arabia (National Geographic Society, Oct. 1987)	Periodical	Oct 1987	Caught up in modernization, Saudi Arabia's culture still sequesters the lives of its women, according to an American who has lived there, Marianne Alireza.	me	36
Young Voices From the Arab World	video&teacher's guide	2000	Excellent introduction to the arab world as	mea	17

			developed especially for classroom use in grades five through eight, but its lively and personal presentation will appeal to a much broader audience. The video introduced everyday aspects of Arab culture and society through the lives of five young people from Jordan, Lebanon, Egypt, Kuwait and Morocco. They will take you into their homes, schools, places of worship, and favorite entertainment spots. Narration by noted radio personality Casey Kasem provides historical, geographical and other background information. Accompanied by a teacher's guide
--	--	--	---	--	--