

Africa American Resources

TITLE:	TYPE OF MATERIAL:	COPYRIGHT:	GENERAL DESCRIPTION:	AREA:	CODE:
Africans in America (America's Journey through Slavery)	Video series: 4 tapes	1998	A series comprising of 4 videos	afam	11
Amazing Grace, by Mary Hoffman	Children's literature	1991	A book of the month selection. Illustrated by Caroline Binch	afam	6
America Beyond the Color Line	DVD, 220 minutes.	2003	Henry L. Gates travels through the US to explore what African-Americans feel about mainstream American life.	afam	14
" Bring Human Rights Home": Human rights education for the 21st century	Periodical	1998	Article in National Council for Social Studies, Social Education	afam	12
Children of Promise: African-American literature and art for young children	Supplementary student reading	1991	A colorful anthology with vivid examples of African-American literature and art. It traces the African-American experience from slavery, colonial times, and the American Revolution, through the 19th and 20th centuries	afam	1
Faces of Slavery, by Robert M. Levine	Video			afam	4
Grocery Store	Role play simulation	1993	Simulates the conflicts between	afam	7

			Koreans and African Americans in some urban communities. Produced by the YMCA.
Kwanzaa Celebration Box	Kit	1993	For primary grades.	afam	3
Night of Neighborhood Street, by Eloise Greenfield	Children's poems	1991	Illustrated by Jan Spivey Gilchrist, this book is a celebration of family, friends and neighbors.	afam	5
Re-exploring early American History: Africans in America	Periodical, NCSS	1998	Published by the National Council for Social Studies, Social Education . Classroom ideas	afam	13
St. Louis Multicultural Guide	guide	1995		afam	10
Struggle & Success- The African American Experience in Japan	Video 60 min, with teacher resource guide	1993	This program looks at the inner workings of Japan's system of state-guided capitalism. With profiles of a powerful economic bureaucrat, a leader in the business world, a fast-rising political, and a socialist legislator, "Inside Japan, Inc." looks at the political economy of Japan from the inside out. The program deals with role of the United States in the postwar rise of Japan, as well as the growing tensions between	afam	8

			Japan, the US and the countries of Southeast Asia.
Teacher Resource Material	resource material		Articles, catalogues, miscellaneous brochures.	afam	2
The African American Holiday of Kwanzaa, by Maulana Karenga	Teacher reference	1988	A comprehensive book on the African origins of Kwanzaa, its values and symbols. It concludes with suggested activities.	afam	9