Jihad vs. Mcworld - How Globalism and Tribalism are Reshaping the World	literature	1996	This is a groundbreaking work, an elegant and illuminating analysis of the central conflicts of our times: consumerist capitalism versus religious and tribal fundamentalism. These diametrically opposed but	ge	139

			strangely intertwined forces are tearing apart - and bringing together - the world as we know it, undermining democracy and the nation-state on which it depends. On dissolving the social and economic barriers between nations, transforming the world's diverse populations into a blandly uniform market. On the other hand, ethnic, religious, and racial hatreds are fragmenting the political landscape into smaller and smaller tribal units. Jihad Vs. McWorld is the term that distinguished writer and political scientist Benjamin r. barber has coined to describe the powerful and paradoxical interdependence of these forces.

			(October 15 in 2004). It includes a one-period introduction to world hunger with action-oriented follow up activities in every subject, which could be extended for as long as the teacher wants to continue the unit. It provides for the integration of all subjects through one world issue-food and hunger. The activities will keep the students actively involved and hopefully, help them to feel that they can make a difference. The teacher's role is to give background information, to facilitate the activities, to foster a feeling of empathy, and to support and encourage the children's desire to respond to the needs of the world's hungry.
