

International Relations Resources

•TITLE:	TYPE OF MATERIAL:	COPYRIGHT:	GENERAL DESCRIPTION:	AREA:	CODE:
A Children's Chorus: Celebrating the 30th Anniversary of the Universal Declaration of the Rights of the Children	Children's book	1989	Presents the fundamental principles of the United Nations Declaration of the Rights of the Child, accompanied by drawings by Helme Heine. Tony Ross, Paul O. Zelinsky, and other artists. Grades two to six.	IR-F	4
Conflict Resolution In The Middle School	Teacher resource book, curriculum guide, grades 6-7	1994	The guide presents over 150 classroom-tested activities to help students effectively handle conflict between peers, teachers, parents and the world.	IR-F	14
Conflict Resolution Resources	Teacher resource book, K-12.		Annotated listings of national and local programs, St. Louis practitioners and "BEST" resources selected by members of the St. Louis Conflict Resolution Educational Consortium.	IR-F	13
Creative Conflict Resolution	Teacher resource book, activity book	1984	'Creative Conflict Resolution' will help you respond creatively and	IR-F	3 constructively to the conflicts that occur in every K-6 classroom. This resource book offers over 20 conflict resolution techniques with examples, 14 reproducible worksheets, and over 200 class-tested activities and cooperative games.

Elementary Perspectives 1: Teaching Concepts of Peace and Conflicts	Activity book, curriculum unit	1990	This flexible curriculum guide offers over eighty activities designed to complement the standard curriculum. It will help students explore the many facets of peace and conflict, including the value of conflict and its resolution, social justice issues and the benefits of appreciating diversity.	IR-F	11
ESR Journal	Teacher resource book, research journal	1990		IR-F	17
Helping Families Care	Activity book, teacher resource book, intergenerational program	1989	This book focuses on the family that crosses the generations and on how it can work toward the goals of caring and compassion. With	IR-F	6

			McGinnis's usual practicality, he includes ideas for games, exercises, activities and stories to help us make these goals become realities. The book will be of interest to all families, but especially to those who lead intergenerational groups in churches or community centers.
Helping Kids Care	Activity book, teacher resource book	1988	All combine to spark giggles, blast stereotypes, and close the chasm between "us and them". Here are dozens of ideas to help children venture forth to meet the different (enemies, other races, the disabled, the old) and return with friends.	IR-F	5
Keeping The Peace: Practicing Cooperation Conflict Resolution With Preschoolers	Teacher resource book	1989	Offers concrete, practical and innovative encouragement, insights and suggestions into creating a philosophical, physical and emotional environment that fosters creative	IR-F	10 conflict resolution, and into the actual process of guiding children to resolution.

Learning The Skills Of Peacemaking: An Activity Guide For Elementary-Age Children on Communicating, Cooperating, Resolving Conflict	Activity book, teacher resource book	1987	The book is filled with: I. Concrete activities that allow children to learn self-awareness, sensitivity to others, mediation, compromise and cooperative problem-solving. II. Naomi Drew's classroom-tested methods for teaching children five key ideas: Peace begins with each individual Peace can be spread through cooperation once we have an understanding of ourselves and others We are all interconnected-all part of a human family Conflicts can be resolved through nonviolent means. Each of us is responsible for finding and using peaceful options	IR-F	7
Making Choices About Conflict, Security And	Curriculum unit	1994	This curriculum unit provides secondary teachers	IR-F	8

Peacemaking. Part 1. Personal Perspectives			and students with an interdisciplinary, systematic approach to exploring conflict, security and peacemaking issues from an interpersonal perspective.
Making History: A Social Curriculum in the Participation Series	Teacher resource book, curriculum guide	1987		IR-F	15
Media Corner: Resolving Conflict: A Review of Selected Videotapes	Teacher resource book	1990	Review of selected videotapes	IR-F	12
Peace Begins With You, by Katherine Scholes, illustrtaed by Robert Ingpen	Children's literature	1989	"Based on the premise that conflict results because 'people's wants and needs don't always fit together,' Scholes advocates the courage, strength and responsibility needed to choose peace. Her argument concludes with the ideaof inner peace ('Some people can feel this peace even when they are in great pain, fear or danger'), while the book ends with a listing of both concrete	IR-F	9 and abstract ways to become a peacemaker. Ages five to ten."

Taking Part: An Elementary Curriculum In The Participation Series	Teacher resource book, curriculum guide	1984		IR-F	16
The Anatomy Of Conflict	Curriculum unit, 7-12	1988	This four-day unit is designed for use in social studies and/or literature classes at secondary and community college levels as a general introduction to conflict on personal, group, and world levels.	IR-F	1
The Big Book For Peace	Children's Literature, anthology of 16 authors. Grades 2-6	1990	Stories, poems and artwork by thirty-four "authors and illustrators of children's books look at the issues of peace, conflict, war, and resolution from a variety of points of view." (Horn Book) .	IR-F	2
Thinking In Time: The Uses of History for Decision-Makers, by Richard E. Neustadt and Ernest R. May.	Teacher resource book	1986	"A Harvard political scientist and a Harvard historian offer rules that decision makers can follow to use history more widely and effectively."	IR-F	18

