

Russia Resources

TITLE:	TYPE OF MATERIAL:	COPYRIGHT :	GENERAL DESCRIPTION:	AREA :	CODE :
1917: revolution in russia	video, 28min with teacher's guide	1988		sue	52
a map history of russia	student text	1976		sue	15
A New Ireland: Politics, Peace, and Reconciliation	literature		Amazon.com Nobel Peace Prize laureate of 1998 John Hume is a founding member of Northern Ireland's Social Democratic and Labour Party and has been a leading figure in the decades-long struggle to bring peace to that region. As he discusses in A New Ireland, his approach has been greatly influenced by the nonviolent direct actions of civil rights leaders like Martin Luther King Jr. He calls upon both Protestant and Catholic Irish to follow another example from American democracy, that of "unity in	sue	131

			diversity." The conflict in Northern Ireland, he writes, is that between two groups of men and women, the Nationalists and the Unionists, "who have been trapped by a tragic error of history which saw their hopes and fears as mutually exclusive and irreconcilable within an Irish state, but which obliged them to live and compete side-by-side in one small corner of Ireland. These two communities ... have both behaved like threatened minorities and only by removing the fears which they both feel can a just and durable solution be found." activities for teaching russian and soviet studies in the high school	teacher resource guide	1990		sue	42
after the cold	curriculum unit	1993		sue	100 war: the u. s. role in europe's transition ( choice for the 21st century) all the jazz	video, 58 min	1985		sue	5

American's Defense Monitor	video, 28 min	2000	A sobering look at the causes of the bitter, complex civil war in Bosnia, the breakup of the former Yugoslavia and the role of outside force in the tinder box of Europe.	sue	115
Ancient Greece	picture book	1997	"Discover when did the ancient Olympic games begin, what popular games used the ankle joints of goats or sheep, why did people cross the river styx, what could a dinner guest expect to eat at a banquet in ancient greece,etc. " photographs and lively text engage and encourages young readers to discover the history, culture of the ancient greece.	sue	124
Armalite and Ballot Box: An Irish-American	literature	1985	Cited from Cuchullain Publications	sue	132

Republican Primer			"This book addresses, in a narrative and question-answer format, the issues, which related to the currently divided Ireland. The book is introductory in nature although the reader who is more familiar with the Irish situation may appreciate its concise responses to often-heard questions. The perspective is most certainly Republican and Nationalist as the author presents a logical and reasoned case for a United Ireland."
armed struggle: the history of the IRA	teacher's reference and background reading	2003 Reed Business Information, Inc.	"With fine detail and a flair for narrative, Richard English chronicles the rise of the IRA from the ashes of the Easter Rising to the promise of peace today. Balanced and thoughtful, Armed Struggle offers new insight into	sue	134

			Ireland's republican movement. And it reminds us, in the author's words, "The voices of the victims still deafen." -Terry Galway, author of the Irish in America
Armenia	Resource Material		It includes a lot of information on ancient and current Armenia. Compiled by a UMSL student named Ashot Gabrielyan who comes from Armenia.	sue	16
At the crossroads : human rights and the Northern Ireland peace process	literature	1996	From the book: "This report addresses a series of long-term human rights problems in Northern Ireland, principally the continuation of a series of emergency powers by the UK authorities, as well as limitations on the normal functioning of both the judiciary and the legal profession. In publishing this report, we	sue	127 are aware that many people will argue that respect for human rights will only come about after larger political issues have been solved. We disagree!!"

berlin, be happy and video quiz				sue	71
British Brutality in Ireland	literature	1989	Excellent and Accurate account of Irish History, January 24, 2001 Reviewer: John Collins from New York, USA I was very impressed by Jack O'Briens book British Brutality in Ireland. The facts have been well researched and well presented. The book draws on eye witness accounts, historical documents, ancient archives, personal testimonies and thorough historical research by both catholic and protestant historians. He	sue	130

			describes the British involvement in Ireland from 1169 to the present day. It gives eye witness accounts of the terrible cruelties and injustices inflicted on the Irish people over many centuries. He describes how all of this was covered up and hidden by British propaganda. The book also shows up the serious flaws in the British criminal justice system which are a disgrace to Britain which prides itself as a modern so called "democratic nation". I learnt quite a lot about Ireland and my Irish ancestors. If you have any Irish ancestry you will learn the terrible truth about what happened to your Irish ancestors in this book. The book is a historical masterpiece. If you want to understand present circumstances in Ireland and Irish history, Jack O'Brien's historical masterpiece has to be read.
--	--	--	---	--

changes in the former soviet union: debating u. s. aid ( choice for the 21st century)	curriculum unit	1993		sue	99
CHANGING COMMUNIST WORLD, THE POLITICAL SCIENCE 359				SUE	91 changing face of russia and the new commonwealth	map	1992		sue	102 charting russia's future in the post- soviet era ( choices for the 21st century)	curriculum unit	1994		sue	98 civil military relations in the new russia	teacher reference	1993		sue	95 close up special focus: u. s. - soviet relation	curriculum unit, video			sue	10 close- up special focus: u. s. - soviet relations		1983,1986		sue	67 collapse of a multinational state: the collapse of	curriculum unit, 10 slides	1994		sue	105

yugoslavia
current history: a world affairs journal	teacher background, periodical			sue	25
Dead Ground: Infiltrating the IRA	literature	1998	Breathtaking!!!, October 7, 2000 Reviewer: Skyline GTR (see more about me) from Sydney, NSW, Australia Dead ground: Infiltrating the IRA by Raymond Gilmore is written based on his own experiences. As the title of the book implies, it is about Gilmore himself infiltrating the IRA. This book shows just how ruthless and inconsiderate the IRA is to both its members and to its communities. This book is a must for those who would want to learn more about what life is like in the IRA and what peace means to IRA members.	sue	77 decision making and the european community	social studies unit	1992		sue	80 differences: u s a / u s s r	curriculum unit			sue	29

Discovery of the true causes why Ireland was never entirely subdued	literature	1988	Cited from the book: "This is perhaps one of the most cogent and influential documents to evolve out of the extensive body of Elizabethan and Jacobean discourses on Ireland. It stands as a model of bureaucratic hypocrisy and is as true a public expression has survived of the official propaganda, which England's writers had refined over the pervious 50 years."	sue	128 eastern europe: a resource guide for teachers	teacher resource guide	1990		sue	41
EASTERN EUROPE: A RESOURCE GUIDE TO TEACHERS	BIBLIOGRAPHY AND AUDIO-VISUAL LIST			SUE	92
eastern europe (opposing viewpoints series)	anthology of article	1990		sue	44 eastern europe series captive lands, dissidence censored, the	curriculum unit	1992		sue	76

unfinished revolution educational package on the soviet union and u s - soviet relations for junior and middle school students	curriculum unit	1984		sue	33
epics of everyday life encounters i an changing russia	anthology of stories of russian people	1990		sue	55
europa today	reproducible pages	1985		sue	109
flag of greece	flag			sue	114
focus on russia and the republics- a teaching and resource guide to the former soviet union	teacher reference, curriculum unit	1992		sue	73
Free Ireland: Towards a Lasting Peace	literature	1986	From Publishers Weekly Sinn Fein president Gerry Adams follows his recent controversial visit to the U.S. with a timely appraisal of the history, tenets and significance of contemporary Irish republicanism. Using a personal, unassuming style rather than heated political rhetoric, Adams	sue	129

			presents a concise, lucid and partisan analysis of the development of Irish nationalism and republicanism and of the strategic and political responses of the British government. Moving from a recollection of his personal development within the civil rights movement in 1960s Belfast to a broader account of Northern Ireland's tragic political history, Adams reviews the origins and evolution of his own and Sinn Fein's republicanism as a response to "an apartheid state in which a very substantial minority of the citizens were disenfranchised and denied social, economic, political and civil equality." Adams also provides an
--	--	--	---	--	--

			insightful discussion of political conditions in Britain and the Republic of Ireland, and he examines Sinn Fein's role in the search for a peaceful settlement to a quarter century of discord. Originally published in Ireland in 1986 as The Politics of Irish Freedom, this take on Ireland's tangled politics is updated to include Adams's assessment of the current peace processes, his solutions for the resolution of the violence and, in a bid for U.S. support, a discussion of the "enormous symbolic and political importance" of his recent visit to this country. free to choose: a teacher's guide to revolution and reform in eastern europe	teacher reference	1991		sue	35 from russia to	student text	1985		sue	23

ussr: a narrative and documentary history general map of the soviet union			General map of Soviet Union ( Asia and USSR)	sue	74 germany: the reunification of a nation ( Hotspots series)	supplementary student reading	1991		sue	50 getting acquainted: thinking about the soviet union	curriculum unit	1986		sue	27 global insights: soviet union	student text	1980		sue	57 going to war? bosnia and beyond: a study circle discussion	reference	1993		sue	106 goodbye communism	article	1991		sue	40 guide to films about the soviet union	teacher resource guide	1987		sue	30 harvard soviet & east european language and area center newsletter	teacher newsletter			sue	43
In the Name of the Father	literature	1990	Incredible read., November 26, 2002 Reviewer: Sandi (see more about me) from Ontario Canada This book was incredible. It's difficult to believe the such injustices	sue	126

			happen. Basically, this book is about a troubled 'youth' who just happened to be in the wrong place at the wrong time and was sentenced to jail along with other members of his family. When the book is over, you feel a sense of relief, yet you can't help but feel anger towards the criminal justice system. international trade: u. s / u. s. s. r	curriculum unit	1983		sue	38
Inventing Paradise: The Greek Journey 1937-1947	literature	1999	"Edmund Keeley, the American voice of modern Greek poetry, now gives voice to a stirring reflection-part cultural history, part literary criticism, part personal memoir - that captures modern Greece before, during and after the second World War. Here are the lives and work of the enduring	sue	118

			Seferis, Katsimbalis the "Colossus of Maroussi" with his Homeric laughter, the archly gifted Lawrence Durrell, and the heavy-breathing Henry Miller-as their invented land unravels from peace to civil war, from their celebration of a benign world to a harsher world of fact. Here is a comic Odyssey that turns to a tragic Iliad, and a very moving story..." -Robert Fagles
Ireland, land of troubles : a history from the twelfth century to the present day	literature	1980	From the book: "The author combines his account of Ireland's history with a penetrating insight into the rise of the Anglo- Irish Establishment and the cultural and religious divides which form an integral part of his story."	sue	78
Kharkov & Its Residents	picture book	1989	Pictures of kharkov with	sue	116

			explanations in Russian, ukrainian in English.
klass: how russian really live	reporter's stories	1985		sue	61 library of favorite stories from central asia	myths, stories and folk tales			sue	107 living through history: the cold war	supplementary reading	1990		sue	65 living with glasnost and perestroika: understanding the ussr today	video, 4 parts, 15 min	1989		sue	21
major concepts/ events in united states- soviet union relations: from the origins to recognition	curriculum unit	1988		sue	49
map of europe	map			sue	112
map of europe, political	map			sue	113 mapping europe	curriculum unit	1992		sue	75 memo 3: in search of answers in the post- soviet era	teacher reference	1992		sue	72
my first translations into english ( russian songs and poems)	songs and poems	1996	" In 1995 it was the 50th Anniversary of the Victory in WWII. I participated in that war, and I decided to translate two Russian songs of the wartime into	sue	138

			English. I translated the lyrics and poems of Ruvim Kantorvich and the lyrics of a song dedicated to my lovely wife. I appreciate Katherine Cochrane for her help editing this booklet" -- Colonel Abram Yavlinsky nationalism and identity in a european context: a curriculum unit for grades 9-adult	curriculum unit	1993		sue	104
new ussr ( time magazine)	article	1989		sue	36 one nation becomes many ( the access guide to the former soviet union)	research, reference for students and teachers			sue	69
our global village- germany	curriculum unit	1992		sue	108 people goes to russia	student reading	1987		sue	37 perestroika in perspective, the designs and dilemmas of soviet reform	teacher background reading	1989		sue	58
poland	video, 25min with teacher's guide	1990		sue	53
POLITICAL MAP OF	MAP			sue	81

EUROPE
raising questions: thinking about the soviet union	curriculum unit	1986		sue	28
Teacher Resource Notebook: Russia, Newly Independent States	teacher resource notebook			sue	120 red wave: 4 underground bands from the u s s r	cassette tape, rock videos	1986		sue	17
reemerging russia: search for identity	background reading/ teacher's reference	1995	Reemerging russia: search for identity brings together humanities scholars and older Americans nationwide in a series of ten forums to explore this timely topic.	sue	135 resource guide to teaching aids in russians and eastern european studies	annotated bibliography, teacher reference	1990, 1992		sue	63
Resource Notebook: Central Asia				sue	97
Resource Notebook: Eastern Europe	teacher resource notebook			sue	119
Resource Notebook - European Union	teacher resource notebook			sue	117
Resource Notebook:				sue	84

Former Soviet Union
Resource Notebook: Greece	teacher resource notebook			sue	121
Resource Notebook: Newly Independent States				sue	86
Resource Notebook: Russia				sue	85 revolution in eastern europe ( our changing world series)	supplementary reading	1991		sue	64 revolution in europe ( dissent magazine)	teacher background	1996		sue	45
riddle: in search	literature	1985		sue	31
Russia: a lost decade	background reading/ teacher's reference	1999 july-september	"The disorganized and uncoordinated nature of reforms in post-Soviet Russia has resulted in deep divisions within Russian society"--Felix N yurlov	sue	136 russia/ soviet union: a guide to print materials for teachers	teacher resource guide	1985		sue	19 russia, the eurasian republics and central/ eastern europe ( global studies series)	reference book	1994		sue	111 russia's	student text	1989		sue	54

revolution
russian bear: what next? ( the global pages)	curriculum unit, teacher newsletter	1994		sue	103 russian: broken idols, solemn dreams	non-fiction	1983, 1989		sue	7
russian journal	student reading	1984		sue	3 secondary school education materials on the soviet union and u. s. - soviet relations	kit			sue	22 scholastic update	student reading			sue	60 soviet- american debate: the opposing viewpoint sources series	supplementary student reading	1986,1988		sue	11 soviet life	student supplementary reading, periodical			sue	24 soviet tv: fact or fiction	video, 55 min	1986		sue	4 soviet union and eastern europe	student reference	1988, 1994		sue	32 soviet union: changing times	video, 22min	1990		sue	48 soviet union" global insights: people and culture" series	student text	1980		sue	13 soviet union, people and culture series	student text	1983		sue	14 status of geography and the social sciences in schools of the	article	1992		sue	93

ussr
Struggle for peace in bosnia: considering u. s. options ( choice for the 21st century)	curriculum unit	1993		sue	101
STUDIES IN COMPARATIVE POLITICS: THE CHANGING COMMUNIST WORLD POLITICAL SCIENCE 359		1990		sue	90 studying russian and soviet history	teacher background reading	1987		sue	12 teaching of soviet studies: history, language, culture, art	activity book, cassette, slides	1991		sue	94
Ten Men Dead: The Story of the 1981 Irish Hunger Strike	literature	1987	From Publishers Weekly "Taken inside infamous Long Kesh prison in Belfast, the reader of this searing journal experiences the emotional stranglehold that the legacy of troubled Ireland has on 10 men who in 1981 chose to perish in a hunger strike. Written by a reporter who covered the	sue	18

			story for The Guardian , the book is shaped around secret communications, scraps of cigarette paper which the prisoners wrote on and concealed in bodily orifices until the messages could be smuggled outside to the IRA leadership. These "comms" are intimate, meticulous records of the men who went first "on the blanket" in naked protest, then to their self-scheduled deaths. We see and hear the families, alike and yet different in their grief; the churchmen and political leaders in attempts to dissuade and negotiate; and "Iron Lady" Margaret Thatcher, resolute in the grim battle of wills. In the final compelling words of Beresford, "They died for a cause more ancient than the gray walls of Long Kesh prison."
--	--	--	---	--	--

The Black and Tans	literature	1959	From the book: "Although they were only a small proportion of British forces in Ireland, they were the toughest, the wildest, and the most feared. They knew nothing and they cared nothing about Ireland. They were sent there in March of 1920 by Lloyd George's Coalition Cabinet to make it "a hell for rebels to live in." They could arrest and imprison anyone at any time. They murdered civilians. They wore a strange mixture of dark green tunics, khaki trousers, black belts, and odd headgear, including civilian felt hats. The Irish named them after a famous pack of wild dogs in Co. Limerick-The	sue	62

			Black and Tans."
THE COLD WAR: 1945-1989	VIDEO, 28 MIN	1991		sue	89
the collective legacy	teacher's guide	1992		sue	79
the education of rita	video, 58 min	1985		sue	6
the fall of communism	video, 80min	1990		sue	46
the geography of eastern europe	teacher newsletter	1990		sue	51
the glasnost reader	anthology/ reference	1990		sue	47
the magic ring: russian fold tales from alexander afana's EV's collection	children's literature	1985		sue	2
The Music, Songs & Instruments of Ireland	background reading	1998	"Music, Songs and Instruments of Ireland trace the history of traditional Irish music, from its roots in the mists of Celtic culture to the present day. Illustrated with over a hundred photographs and illustrations it documents the evolution of each instrument as well as accounting for many of the most famous players and enthusiasts who have shaped and	sue	133 preserved this uniquely emotive music, infused as it is with the soul, talent, and often tragic history of this beautiful island." - Music, Songs and Instruments of Ireland the new russian revolution	video, 47min	1991		sue	66

The other side: how soviets and american perceive	teacher background & supplementary student reading	1987		sue	8
The Outsiders	video, 24 min	2000	Marina, a young journalist from Kiev, Ukraine won a scholarship to study journalism in the US ten years ago - the first of her family ever to travel outside the former USSR. When she returned to the Ukraine, she found the normal family relationships overturned when her mother implored her to rescue her father from loan sharks threatening to burn down his business and their home. The	sue	125 video introduces us to some of the moral and economic dilemmas facing adolescents in the region today.

the russians	teacher background	1976,1990		sue	1
The Saints: The Life of St. Nicholas	video (30 minutes)		"Learning why st. Nicholas is known as the "real" Santa. How his relics ended up in Bari, Italy. Also, what did St. Nicholas do at the first Ecumenical Council that got him imprisoned. How Jesus and the Virgin Mary came to St. Nicholas's defense." - editor	sue	123
the soviet union ( opposing viewpoints)	anthology of articles/ essays	1988		sue	56
the soviet: what is the conflict about?	supplementary student reading			sue	59
THE USSR TODAY	STUDENT SUPPLEMENTAR Y READING			sue	88 thinking about the soviet union	curriculum book	1989		sue	34
u. s. - soviet relations: the breakup of the soviet union	teacher's guide, student text	1992		sue	68
update	teacher newsletter			sue	39
USSR COUNTRY	DATA, GRAPHS, MAPS	1989		sue	82

NOTES
" We Wrecked the Place": Contemplating an End to the Northern Irish Troubles	literature	1996	From Amazon.com "The Troubles--a collective term for the sectarian violence and near-ritual murder that has plagued Northern Ireland for the last quarter century-- can be laid at the door of a small group of terrorists, republican and loyalist, whose influence far exceeds its number. Jonathan Stevenson, an American journalist, interviews more than 30 of these militants, many of whom admit the folly of armed struggle and express a desire for a peace that admits all sides. Whether that peace will come through the on-again, off-again truce now in effect in Northern Ireland remains to be seen, but Stevenson's	sue	20 book provides an important, close-up view of events in that unhappy place."

western europe (global studies series)	reference book	1995		sue	110
what about the russian?	video, 28 min			sue	9
WHAT'S AHEAD FOR THE SOVIET PEOPLE	STUDENT MAGAZINE			sue	87
when iron crumbles: berlin and the wall	curriculum & video	1992		sue	70 will the post-soviet commonwealth survive?	teacher reference	1993		sue	96 women in the ussr: women in world series	student reading, filmstrip, cassette tape	1980		sue	26
WORLD OF CHANGE	POSTERS	1990		sue	83
world war Two in russia	background reading/ teacher's reference	1997	"President Kennedy said: " No nation in the history of battle ever suffered more than the Russians in the course of the Second World War...At least twenty million lost their lives. Countless millions of homes and farms were burned or sacked. A third	sue	137

			of Nation's (European) territory, including nearly two thirds of its industrial base, were turned into a waste-land." More than 50 million people were killed in this war, the Soviet Union lost 27 million people, more than any other nation. But many Americans, especially young people, know nothing about the invasion of the German Army into Soviet Union and the struggle of the Soviet people against the German fascists." -- Colonel Abram Yavlinsky The author gave lectures "World War II in Russia" to OASIS, and got great success. With the help of Katherine Cochrane in University of Missouri- St. Louis, he presented the lectures to the reader.
--	--	--	--	--	--

--	--	--	-------------------------	--	--