

Missouri | Campus Compact

Missouri Campus Compact

is pleased to present the Fourth Annual Statewide Conference on Civic Engagement and Service-Learning

Educating Citizens. Building Communities.

Service-Learning • Community Service • Civic Action

Friday, October 17—Saturday, October 18, 2008

Washington University in St. Louis

St. Louis, Missouri

Please join up for two days of information and networking opportunities with colleagues across the state. The goal of this year's conference is to share best practices and research in service-learning, community service, and civic action while providing an atmosphere for statewide networking.

Keynote Speakers

Congressman Richard A. Gephardt

Founder of the Gephardt Institute for Public Service

Jeffrey Howard, University of Michigan

Founder & Editor, Michigan Journal of Community Service Learning

Concurrent Presentation Highlights

- Research: Models of successful community-based research, undergraduate research, and service-learning research
- Service-Learning: Models of course development, peer vs. instructor-led courses, project facilitation across community and cultural boundaries, and more
- Civic Action: Students and the democratic process, Constitution Day, Missouri Restoration Act, and more
- Community Service: Models for success community partner relationships and more

25 Concurrent Presentations by Faculty, Staff, Students, and Community Partners from across Missouri!

Registration

<https://www.ws.missouristate.edu/missouricompact/state/>

Early Bird Registration Deadline: September 26, 2008 • Regular Registration Deadline: October 13, 2008

For more information contact Missouri Campus Compact at 417-836-3103 or visit us online at:
www.missouricompact.missouristate.edu