

2009 Fall Faculty Colloquium and Programs

CTL programs are designed to be interactive, collegial, and support professional success. They are open to faculty, staff, and teaching assistants. Refreshments and resources are provided. Find programs, orientations, and online registration at <http://www.umsl.edu/ctl>.

Friday, August 28
10:00 – 11:30 AM program
11:45 AM: lunch for new faculty
126 JCP Conference Center

Friday, September 11
9:30 am – 11:30 AM
222 JCP Conference Center

Tuesday, September 15
12 noon – 2:00 PM
MSC 3rd Floor Rotunda

Thursday, September 17
12:30 - 2:00 pm
Register to attend with your classes
MSC Century Rooms

Friday, October 9
10:00 – 11:30 AM
65 University Center

October 15-16 SAVE THE DATE

Friday, October 23
Friday, November 13
12:30- 2:00 PM
MSC- Century A

Tuesday, December 15
126 JCP Conference Center
Choose the AM or PM appropriate for position

Winning Internal Research Awards

Recent award recipients and faculty who have served on the UM Research Board (proposals are due October 5) and the UMSL Senate Research Panels answer questions and offer insights into these application processes. Co-sponsor: Office of Research Administration.

How can University Advancement help new faculty? Vice Chancellor Martin Leifeld hosts lunch today to inform new faculty about the Division's supports. Please register separately for lunch.

Research Compliance: IRB and IACUC Essentials

Exempt or expedited? Research or class assignment? Observing children, students, volunteers, animals? This interactive session offers updates on UMSL's review procedures, including which projects require approvals and Q & A with members of the IRB and IACUC. Faculty, staff, and graduate students are welcome. Co-sponsor: Office of Research Administration

Volunteer Resource Fair

Meet representatives from 40+ local nonprofit agencies who are interested in partnering with UMSL faculty, staff, and students. Stop by the Service-Learning Table to explore creating an applied learning experience for your students.

Conceal & Carry on Campus: Balancing 2nd Amendment Rights with Campus Safety

UMSL's Constitution Day observance includes disciplinary perspectives from Curators' Professors Dave Robertson (political science) and Rick Rosenfeld (criminology and criminal justice), a point-counterpoint debate between Missouri legislators Jim Lembke and Jamilah Nasheed, and a presentation by UMSL's InterAct Theatre Troupe. Register in advance when your plans include attending with your classes. Watch for the 2009 Constitution Day flyer.

Deterring and Detecting Plagiarism

Promoting academic honesty entails learning to prevent and detect plagiarism. Safe Assign is a new tool in MyGateway that students are using to self-check their work before submitting it and faculty are using to check on originality. This seminar will offer strategies for preventing academic dishonesty and demonstrate how to use Safe Assign.

Focus on Teaching and Technology Conference. See CTL web page for details.

Lunch and Learns about Academic Service-Learning

Attend one or both programs to learn the nuts and bolts of integrating service-learning into a course.

October 23: Faculty presenters describe how they partner with a community non-profit to meet an organizational need while creating an applied learning experience for their students.

November 13: Return to begin drafting a service-learning component for a future course.

Preparing for Promotion

10:00 – 11:30 am Preparing for Promotion and Tenure Review for Tenure Track Faculty

Colleagues serving on tenure and promotion committees and those recently reviewed offer advice about documenting one's accomplishments and preparing for review.

Co-sponsor: Senate Committee on Appointments, Promotion, and Tenure.

2:00 – 3:30 pm Preparing for Promotion for Non-Tenure Track Faculty Members

Colleagues share strategies for documenting effective teaching. Learn what constitutes evidence and how to collect and present it in a Teaching Portfolio.

The Center for Teaching and Learning
A Division of Academic Affairs - <http://www.umsl.edu/ctl>