

NEWS AT NOON

An American Democracy Project Program

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Contact The Center for Teaching and Learning at:

314.516.4031

News at Noon is a weekly forum for faculty and student discussions about current events. Each Wednesday discussion will be lead by a faculty expert. Living in a democracy carries the responsibility of being an informed citizen. Join friends and faculty members on Wednesdays to consider how current events are presented in the media.

SCHEDULE

FREE LUNCH

FOR THE FIRST 25 STUDENTS
courtesy of the
New York Times

Wednesday, October 14, 2009

12:30 PM - 2:00 PM | MSC 316

Jaycee Dugard's Captivity and Road to Recovery: Why Don't They Leave?

Discussion leader: Megan Schacht, Children's Advocacy Services

Wednesday, October 21, 2009

12:30 PM - 2:00 PM | MSC 316

Health Care Reform: Killing Peter to Save Paul?

Discussion leader: Susan Feigenbaum, Economics

Wednesday, October 28, 2009

12:30 PM - 2:00 PM | MSC - Century A

Designing the Human: Could Human Moral Sense Be the Result of Both Natural Selection and Divine Purpose?

Discussion leader: Irem Kurtsal Steen, Philosophy

Wednesday, November 4, 2009

12:30 PM - 2:00 PM | MSC 316

The Rise of DINO's (Democrats-In-Name Only): Conservative Democrats in Congress

Discussion leader: Brian Fogarty, Political Science

