EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH WINNERS

The UMSL Riverstars Employee of the Month winner for May was Paul Wilmarth. Paul was chosen for Innovation & Creativity. Paul is a Department Assistant in the Faculty Resource Center. Comments made about Paul included; "Anytime I have called Paul with a question, I wind up coming away from our conversation with new ideas". "Every time I talk to Paul I come away with something new to use". "Paul has always been ready, willing and able to help whenever asked".

The UMSL Riverstars Employee of the Month winner for June was Julie Gram. Julie is an Administrative Associate II in the College of Optometry. Julie was chosen for Superb Communicator. Comments made about Julie included, "When I have asked for feedback on an issue, Julie will be one of first to respond in an honest and straightforward way". "Her feedback gets to the core of the issue and she gives it to you in a humble yet professional way".

Paul and Julie received $100 gift certificates, commemorative plaques and automatic nominations for the Chancellor's Award for Staff Excellence.

2006 EXCELLENCE AWARDS

The Chancellor's Award for Excellence is given to employees who best demonstrate exceptional competence, commitment and customer service. VOLUNTEER SERVICES

Could you use an extra hand?

Volunteer Services has over 275 volunteers available to assist campus departments!

Our carefully selected volunteers complement the work that is being done by UM-St. Louis employees. Volunteers can help departments catch up on things that are backlogged and/or help extend some of the services that specific department provides.

Join the other forty-four departments on campus that are already utilizing the talents and skills of our growing volunteer base.

For more information regarding the Volunteer Services program or to list a volunteer vacancy online, visit our website at <http://www.umsl.edu/services/volunteer/> or call 314.516.4106
