

Authorization to Release Information

The Office of International Student and Scholar Services maintains a policy that information about applicants (and current students) cannot be released to individuals other than the student him or herself. This policy is based in part on federal regulations and university-wide policy. If, however, it is necessary to have information released to an individual other than the student, our office requires written authorization to do so.

I give permission to the International Student and Scholar Services Office at the University of Missouri – St. Louis to release information regarding the status of my application process (e.g., which materials have or have not been received) to the individual named below. Furthermore, I understand that neither the International Student and Scholar Services Office nor the University of Missouri – St. Louis is responsible for the accuracy of information received through an intermediary.
