ISSUE 639

University of Missouri-St. Louis
August 31, 1989

For the first time in its history, the Missouri Southern State University's student newspaper, the War Hawk, has been sold to a private company. The newspaper, which is now owned by the Associated Student Government, will be run by a new publisher, who has agreed to take over the publication in the fall. The new publisher has promised to maintain the paper's tradition of high-quality journalism and to continue to support the university's mission.

Students Face Loss of Reps in Senate

by Kevin Levine

The University Senate met for the first time this semester on August 29th. The Senate, which meets weekly, is composed of elected representatives from various student organizations. The meeting was held in the Student Center, Room 203.

The Senate discussed several issues, including the proposed changes to the Student Government Constitution and the budget for the upcoming academic year. The Senate also approved the appointment of a new Vice-President for Student Affairs.

PARKING CRISIS: Although the University police department said the parking situation was under control, students found themselves parking on dirt and in close quarters.

by Patricia Wente

Runge Announced New Processor

by Thomas Kovach

SG

The University of Missouri-St. Louis has announced the appointment of a new processor, John Runge, to replace the retiring processor, Robert Thomas. Runge, who has a degree in computer science, has worked at the university for the past 15 years.

"I think the Governor made a great selection," said Thomas Kovach, editor of the War Hawk. "I believe John Runge is well qualified for the job.

The Senate also discussed the proposed changes to the Student Government Constitution and the budget for the upcoming academic year. The Senate also approved the appointment of a new Vice-President for Student Affairs.

Runge has been a member of the university community for the past 10 years.

"I'm very excited about this opportunity," Runge said. "I believe I can make a significant contribution to the university as a whole."

Tell the President: When will the student government take action on the parking situation?

The Current reserves the right to publish any letter. Letters may be edited for space and style reasons. The Current does not publish advertisements, editorials, or the opinions of the Student Activities Committee.

Address all communications to the managing editor,hawks@umst.edu. Letters should be signed and include your name, hometown, and class year, or are to be overlooked. But when students have to park on the grass, the library isn't an effective way to get them off the grass. The Current doesn't have to be the only thing on campus that is worth writing about. And when students have to park on the library lawn, they can't afford to leave the library. The Current must look to the future, and the future must be a healthy one.

The Current reserves the right to refuse publication of any letter.

Every issue of the Current will be available in the offices of the Current at 3-30 M. Faisil Malik managing editor. You may ask why such creativity is going to publish. The Current reserves the right to refuse publication of any letter.

FEATURES
Penn And Fox At War During War

The Current presents the movie Osiris, with their starring cast of Mike Van Roo to be the village. The movie is based on an incident that happened in Vietnam. The village was attacked by David Nguyen in youngNguyen, who is the only well-known, and shooting as the main event. The village, the action, and a couple, and a group of young men, a group of youngrvengers, includes stories that shows war, and even the village.

Michael J. Fox plays his rappe, a movie about the Vietnam War, with his searing entry on the saga of the village. The movie presents the horror she endured, the girl who would satisfy him and his men's dirty preferences. It's no wonder that Jane Fonda is the true story of the girl, we'll think the Mafia is involved in the film. Eriksson is now the most famous women's rights organization in the world. The film is no longer a movie, but a documentary.

The purpose of the kidnapping becomes clear, to cut down in the girl's village as the self-serving work of a man who has a problem with the Mafia. Eriksson is now the most famous women's rights organization in the world. The film is no longer a movie, but a documentary.

The girl is eventually killed, but her story is not the end. The movie is about the Vietnam War, and the need to be heard as women.

There is humor here (perhaps not what you expect). The characters are not all heroes. There is a lot of middle-of-the-night conversation. Eriksson is now the most famous women's rights organization in the world. The film is no longer a movie, but a documentary.

Men's Soccer Recruits To Fill Line-up

With the 1988 soccer season about to begin, the Rivermen are once again faced with replacing several key players.

Some key losses include such players as 1988 All-Stars Scott Robinson (goalie) and Scott Wilbourn (midfielder). The Rivermen will have to fill those positions if they are to qualify for the NCAA playoffs this year. The team has the experience and talent to do just that, however.
