By Kevin Kleine

Editorial

Identification of the area as part of a lecture series lives. The proposed originator in the Martin Luther King Jr. Committee for the University of Missouri has discussed with Dr. Linda Fisher and other participants the need to recognize Dr. King and the other prominent civil rights leaders. The committee has chosen to recognize Dr. King and the other leaders for their contributions to the civil rights movement.

The recognition is in line with the university's commitment to diversity and inclusion. The university has a history of recognizing the contributions of civil rights leaders, and this year's recognition of Dr. King and the other leaders is an extension of that commitment.

The recognition also serves to reminds us of the continued relevance of the civil rights movement and the need to continue to work towards a more just and equitable society.

The recognition of Dr. King and the other leaders is an important opportunity for the university to recognize the contributions of civil rights leaders and to continue to work towards a more just and equitable society.

By Darrell Cates

Sports

AIDS

The second highest percentage of AIDS victims come from Europe, according to Fisher. Fisher said that people in the medical profession have been misled about the disease.

"The second highest percentage of AIDS victims come from Europe," Fisher said. Fisher also quoted a statistic that 50 percent of the AIDS patients who have died in the United States have had a history of alcohol abuse.

In the United States, the disease is estimated to be responsible for 150,000 deaths. Fisher said that the disease has been responsible for 80 percent of the deaths in the United States.

By Kevin Kleine

Features

Phares Named Vice-Chancellor

By Barb Brown

The SGA (Student Government Association) is the representative body of the students at the university. The SGA has the ability to make decisions and pass laws that affect the students.

The SGA is composed of two parts: the Undergraduate Senate and the Graduate Student Senate. The Undergraduate Senate represents the undergraduate students, while the Graduate Student Senate represents the graduate students.

The SGA can pass resolutions, propose budget changes, and initiate legislation. The SGA also has the ability to appoint members to various university committees.

The SGA is an important component of the university's governance structure. It provides a forum for students to express their views and have a say in the direction of the university.

By Kevin Kleine

Classifieds

The SGA is a student-run organization that is responsible for representing the students' interests and concerns at the university. The SGA is an important part of the university's governance structure and provides a forum for students to express their views and have a say in the direction of the university.

The SGA is composed of two parts: the Undergraduate Senate and the Graduate Student Senate. The Undergraduate Senate represents the undergraduate students, while the Graduate Student Senate represents the graduate students.

The SGA can pass resolutions, propose budget changes, and initiate legislation. The SGA also has the ability to appoint members to various university committees.

The SGA is an important component of the university's governance structure. It provides a forum for students to express their views and have a say in the direction of the university.

By Kevin Kleine

The Current

By Darrell Cates

By Kevin Kleine

The SGA is a student-run organization that is responsible for representing the students' interests and concerns at the university. The SGA is an important part of the university's governance structure and provides a forum for students to express their views and have a say in the direction of the university.

The SGA is composed of two parts: the Undergraduate Senate and the Graduate Student Senate. The Undergraduate Senate represents the undergraduate students, while the Graduate Student Senate represents the graduate students.

The SGA can pass resolutions, propose budget changes, and initiate legislation. The SGA also has the ability to appoint members to various university committees.

The SGA is an important component of the university's governance structure. It provides a forum for students to express their views and have a say in the direction of the university.

By Kevin Kleine

The Current
Government Cracks Down On Campus Discount Computers

AIDS from page 1

Although it's not unique in failing, state and local officials probably vary considerably among their opinions on the pros and cons of campus computer sales. A state university's computing center, for example, might be selling out to on-campus retailers and manufacturers who are willing to sell hard­ware and software to on-campus stores for much less than they sell them to off­campus businesses.

Govenmen Cracks Down On Campus Discount Computers

The law becomes law, the school would have to pay taxes. When DeCarli opened her business eight years ago, sales to students and IRS staff accounted for about 75 percent of the revenue. Now, she said, they are probably 5 percent.

"We hope to sell a few more of the machines, and we will be anything to get it," she said.

"I called an executive committee meeting to discuss this," Small said. "Only two people showed up. We have to move on things when people are not interested." A quorum must be required to pass motions in the assembly or executive committee. A quorum consists of 10 percent of the voting body plus one. The president and the executive committee members does not constitute quorum.

"I received an appeal," Small said. "I decided to resubmit the application." If the assembly member Steve Meinhold did it.

"We work with local merchants and actually sell to customers," he said.

"If the policy wasn't there," Small said, "we don't want to lose business from local residents," he said.

"We have to put computers in the hands of students who need them," he said.

"I don't want to lose business from local residents," he said.

"We have to put computers in the hands of students who need them," he said.

"We work with local merchants and actually sell to customers," he said.

"We don't want to lose business from local residents," he said.

"If the policy wasn't there," Small said, "we don't want to lose business from local residents," he said.

"We have to put computers in the hands of students who need them," he said.

"We work with local merchants and actually sell to customers," he said.
Small Oversights

Terrence Small may go down in history as the first man to make Dan Quayle look intelligent. His latest (mis)adventure in campus government is one for the funny papers.

Now here is a man who is the President of an organization responsible for the well being of over twelve thousand students. He is a former member of the Student Activities Budget Committee and the former Secretary of the University Senate and he hasn’t the foggiest idea of the process to appoint members to SACB, the committee charged with spending thousands of dollars in student activity fees.

The official process for appointing members to the SACB begins with the recommendation of three— the President of Student Government Association (SGA) and two other members appointed by the Executive Committee of SACB. That sub-committee is supposed to be formed based on applications are accepted from the student body. The sub-committee makes recommendations to the executive committee who presents a list to the Assembly.

The Assembly may choose students other than those nominated by the committee. After a final list is compiled, it is sent to the administration for final approval. Small, in an obvious departure from reality, screened the applicants himself and put his list of nominees to the Assembly leading them to believe that they were supposed to quickly approve his choices.

Then, when members of SACB began to question the legality of the appointments, Small failed to act. His latest (mis)adventure in campus government is one for the funny papers.

Dan Quayle look intelligent. His latest (mis)adventure in campus government is one for the funny papers.
Furor Over Play Heats Up

The following courses are offered next semester:

Health Assessment (HUNS 220)
Topics in History: Science & Culture in the Western Tradition (HIST 100)
Entrepreneurship: Small Business Management (HUM 392)
Basic Education: Teaching the Adult (EDUC 308)
Media in Education (EDUC 340)
Significant Figures in Asian History: From Secretaries to Statesmen (PHIL 310)
Microcomputers: Classroom Applications for Teachers (EDUC 308)
Teaching Science in the Elementary School (ELEM ED 341)

...plant yourself in front of the television set and watch your career take off.

Greedy is Good, Greed Works.

Get your piece of the action.

Call Greg At 553-5175
December 7, 1989
FEATURES

and then split them up in foster homes. Children like Michael and Nadeau, a ballerina with the State Ballet by Many little girls dream of becoming a ballerina. Kate had told them many times that one day she would have to work very hard

The tree was the most beautiful thing he had ever seen. If

The Nutcracker was their favorite. Michael thought that was sad and he normally got down in St. Louis and training under the American Ballet, the official school for the ballet. Petipa's Scipione

The Nutcracker is the much loved American version.

The Magic of Christmas Star

As the ambulance pulled away, Michael told Colleen, "I knew he was just hurt."

The ambulance pulled up on the side of the hospital. The paramedics rushed Colleen into the emergency room. For the next two hours Michael didn't know what was going on. He was quite frightened and didn't know what he should do. His mother had died in the hospital and now Colleen was very sick and it seemed to notice the small boy sitting in the corner.

Eventually the hospital chaplain saw Michael sitting alone. He approached the boy.

"Hello, my name is Father Mark. What's your name?"

"Michael."

"Now, then, your story killjoy! You're so lovely."

Kate, the woman in the same(strange) black coat, was the wife of the news editor. She thought her husband's newspaper was windows, the walls were their 2x4. The light from 6x10. Their newspaper was the only thing that illuminated the sad, cold December night.

The children saw her prick and joy. Colleen was almost about to cry, but Michael would be here next Christmas. The boy had drawn a picture of the Nutcracker and asked the woman if she could give him a kiss. She was the q... of waving the

I hear it in grocery store. It's

Of waving the flag, The Nutcracker. I hear it in grocery store. It's

But things were very hard on Kate. She was sick and had to go to the hospital. She was in the

The siren inside the ambulance was deafening. Michael was frightened. His mother had died in the hospital and now Colleen was sick and it seemed to notice the small boy sitting in the corner.

Eventually the hospital chaplain saw Michael sitting alone. He approached the boy.

"Hello, my name is Father Mark. What's your name?"

"Michael."

"Now, then, your story killjoy! You're so lovely."

Kate, the woman in the same(strange) black coat, was the wife of the news editor. She thought her husband's newspaper was windows, the walls were their 2x4. The light from 6x10. Their newspaper was the only thing that illuminated the sad, cold December night.

The children saw her prick and joy. Colleen was almost about to cry, but Michael would be here next Christmas. The boy had drawn a picture of the Nutcracker and asked the woman if she could give him a kiss. She was the q... of waving the flag, The Nutcracker. I hear it in grocery store. It's

But things were very hard on Kate. She was sick and had to go to the hospital. She was in the

The siren inside the ambulance was deafening. Michael was frightened. His mother had died in the hospital and now Colleen was sick and it seemed to notice the small boy sitting in the corner.

Eventually the hospital chaplain saw Michael sitting alone. He approached the boy.

"Hello, my name is Father Mark. What's your name?"

"Michael."

"Now, then, your story killjoy! You're so lovely."

Kate, the woman in the same(strange) black coat, was the wife of the news editor. She thought her husband's newspaper was windows, the walls were their 2x4. The light from 6x10. Their newspaper was the only thing that illuminated the sad, cold December night.

The children saw her prick and joy. Colleen was almost about to cry, but Michael would be here next Christmas. The boy had drawn a picture of the Nutcracker and asked the woman if she could give him a kiss. She was the q... of waving the flag, The Nutcracker. I hear it in grocery store. It's

But things were very hard on Kate. She was sick and had to go to the hospital. She was in the

The siren inside the ambulance was deafening. Michael was frightened. His mother had died in the hospital and now Colleen was sick and it seemed to notice the small boy sitting in the corner.

Eventually the hospital chaplain saw Michael sitting alone. He approached the boy.

"Hello, my name is Father Mark. What's your name?"

"Michael."

"Now, then, your story killjoy! You're so lovely."

Kate, the woman in the same(strange) black coat, was the wife of the news editor. She thought her husband's newspaper was windows, the walls were their 2x4. The light from 6x10. Their newspaper was the only thing that illuminated the sad, cold December night.

The children saw her prick and joy. Colleen was almost about to cry, but Michael would be here next Christmas. The boy had drawn a picture of the Nutcracker and asked the woman if she could give him a kiss. She was the q... of waving the flag, The Nutcracker. I hear it in grocery store. It's

But things were very hard on Kate. She was sick and had to go to the hospital. She was in the
"Moshito Haven"  "Party Pond"  "University Of Missouri Lake"  "Night Shade Farm"

Jeff Lamonte, junior, business administration,
Jan Flynn, senior, general studies
Melissa Lewis, junior, accounting

\[ \text{"Name it after our chancellor because she is a female and she has raised a lot of money for this university."} \]
Lucy Turner, junior, business administration/information systems

\[ \text{"I really don't have any preference what it's called. It really doesn't make any difference to me. I have classes on the other side of campus and never get to see it."} \]
David Schneider, senior, mass communications

\[ \text{"Leave it as it is. Keep the name Bug Lake."} \]
Rita Russell, freshman, undecided

---

Classifieds

HELP WANTED

We will pay any tip for receipt of wanted, businesses or personal information.
(44) Campus Post position.
524-1368

\[ \text{ATTENTION: DIRECTORS:} \]

ATTENTION: DIRECTORS: The Daily coulter is seeking well-organized and aggressive student editors. We are looking for students seeking an exciting opportunity to develop leadership skills by working as the student editor. We need applicants to fill the following positions:

1. Senior Editor
   - 1st-year student
   - $12/hr
   - 35 hours per week
   - Responsibilities: Manage and coordinate the work of other editors, including the copy desk, art, and photography departments.

2. Copy Editor
   - 2nd-year student
   - $7/hr
   - 10 hours per week
   - Responsibilities: Ensure the quality and accuracy of the newspaper’s content, including editing and proofreading.

3. Art Director
   - 3rd-year student
   - $8/hr
   - 10 hours per week
   - Responsibilities: Design and create the layout of the newspaper’s pages, working with photographers and writers to create visually appealing content.

4. Photo Editor
   - 4th-year student
   - $9/hr
   - 10 hours per week
   - Responsibilities: Oversee the photography department, including hiring and managing photographers, and ensuring the quality and accuracy of the newspaper’s photography.

ATTENTION: DIRECTORS: Please send your resumes and cover letters to the following address:

2100 University Ave.
St. Louis, MO 63130

---

PREGNANT?

- ATTENTION:
  - ATTENTION: MALE STUDENTS:
  - ATTENTION: st. Louis, MO 63130
  - ATTENTION: DIRECTORS: The Daily coulter is seeking well-organized and aggressive student editors. We are looking for students seeking an exciting opportunity to develop leadership skills by working as the student editor. We need applicants to fill the following positions:
  - 1. Senior Editor
    - 1st-year student
    - $12/hr
    - 35 hours per week
    - Responsibilities: Manage and coordinate the work of other editors, including the copy desk, art, and photography departments.
  - 2. Copy Editor
    - 2nd-year student
    - $7/hr
    - 10 hours per week
    - Responsibilities: Ensure the quality and accuracy of the newspaper’s content, including editing and proofreading.
  - 3. Art Director
    - 3rd-year student
    - $8/hr
    - 10 hours per week
    - Responsibilities: Design and create the layout of the newspaper’s pages, working with photographers and writers to create visually appealing content.
  - 4. Photo Editor
    - 4th-year student
    - $9/hr
    - 10 hours per week
    - Responsibilities: Oversee the photography department, including hiring and managing photographers, and ensuring the quality and accuracy of the newspaper’s photography.

ATTENTION: DIRECTORS: Please send your resumes and cover letters to the following address:

2100 University Ave.
St. Louis, MO 63130

---

WE'RE CHEAP AND WE'RE CLOSE BY!!

WHAT MORE DO YOU WANT IN AN APARTMENT?

HOW ABOUT THESE FEATURES:

- FREE HEAT
- PRIVACY GATE WITH GATE ATTENDANT
- BI-SATE BUS STOP ON SITE
- POOL AND TWO LIGHTED TENNIS COURTS
- A THOUSAND TREES IN A PARK-LIKE SETTING
- FLEXIBLE LEASES
- 1 AND 2 BEDROOM APARTMENTS
- OAKWOOD FLOORS AND CARPETING
- SPECIAL UMSL RATES FOR STUDENTS, FACULTY, STAFF. LUXE BRING IN THIS AD! TRY THE VILLAGE WE'RE JUST MINUTES AWAY!!

---

CRUISE-BAHAMAS

$199.00

5 Days/4 Nights Hotel incl. Great Gift
Spring Break
Or Anytime Till Dec 1990

Hurry! call
537-5440

---

MAJOR IN CAREER SUCCESS THROUGH AIR FORCE ROTC.

Whether you are majoring in a highly specialized field or seeking a broader liberal arts education, you can build a brighter future and career potential. Join Air Force ROTC. That can change drastically you show of dedication in your field. It shows you're serious about culturing greater leadership opportunities, it gives you the chance to develop leadership skills that will serve you throughout your life. Call

USAF ROTC OPPORTUNITIES
618-692-3100

---

SOMETIMES IT TAKES AN ARMY TO PAY BACK YOUR COLLEGE LOAN.

Paying back your college loan can be a long, uphill battle. But the Army's Loan Repayment Program makes it easy.

Each year you serve as a soldier, the Army will reduce your college debt by $500, whichever amount is greater. So after serving just 3 years, your college loan will be completely paid off.

You're eligible for this program with a National Direct Student Loan or a Guaranteed Student Loan or a Federally Insured Student Loan made after October 1, 1995. And the loan can't be in default.

Just because you've left college, don't think you'll stop learning in the Army. Our skill training offers a wealth of valuable high-tech, career-oriented skills. Call your local Army Recruiter to find out more.
Rivermen Drop Two Of Three
by Mike Van Roo

The UM-St. Louis Rivermen basketball team dropped two of the three games they played last week.

Last Friday the Rivermen traveled to Evansville, Ind., to battle Southern Indiana University. The Rivermen jumped to a 13-8 halftime lead which they held to the victory.

"We had pressure in the second half because we had the lead," Mike Van Roo said. "Our defense was tough." The Red Raiders walked off the court with a 52-37 lead at half time with a 52-37 lead.

The Rivermen had a chance to win the game.
Barry Louis didn't play his best game of the year for the Rivermen with 20 points including five dunks. Ryan Scales added 22 points and 30 rebounds. Chennai Scales had three points.

The Rivermen had the last shot of the game partially blocked under the basket. "We could have played better, but it came down to the shot underneath the basket," Morse said. "That game could have datailed the whole season." Morse datailed the whole season.

The team was not able to obtain a
place in the NCAA Division II
national tournament after finishing out among the season with a record of 12-12.

Head Coach Denise Silvester had hoped that an impressive record and good competitiveness would knock
her team into the Final Four.

Ten of the Rivermen's losses came
due to schools that were nationally ranked at some point
during the season. The Rivermen had major victories over Top 20 teams Texas and Florida
State.

They also defeated Division II
national champion Washington
University.

"I believe that as a team we had more baskets than last year, which we needed to get as far as we did.

The UM-St. Louis men's basketball team traveled to Louisiana Tech. Through the Thanksgiving break to face the Bulldogs of Texas Tech.

The Rivermen fell 76-71 in their first ever C-USA 1st round game.

"We didn't play well," head coach
Rich Nickle said. "They made 30 of 52
shots for a shooting percentage of 57.7.

These Texas Techers have made the first three straight 3-point shots from 30 feet out just the three times into the game.
Chris Pilz made a free throw for the Rivermen to cut the lid to 31. But two more baskets by Tech Tech upped the to 71. Kevin Hill made a layup and a short dunk shot to cut the lead to 75.
That was as close as UM-St. Louis would get the rest of the night.

Kevin Hill played a solid game for the Rivermen with 30 points including 3 of 3 free throws.
Kevin Hill played a solid game for the Rivermen with 30 points including 3 of 3 free throws.

Senior Vic Salas played a solid game for the Rivermen with 3 points and 3 rebounds.
Barry Goodwin had 12 points for the Rivermen with 9 total 3-point shots. Chris Pilz added 18 points.

On Saturday the Rivermen lost a tough one point loss to Abiloma 79-78. With less than five minutes remaining in the game Barry gave the Rivermen a narrow victory.

The Rivermen had to win the game. The Rivermen had to win the home game. The Red Raiders walked off the court with a 52-37 lead at half time with a 52-37 lead.

The team was not able to obtain a
place in the NCAA Division II
national tournament after finishing
out among the season with a record of 12-12.

Head Coach Denise Silvester had hoped that an impressive record and good competitiveness would knock
her team into the Final Four.

Ten of the Rivermen's losses came
due to schools that were
nationally ranked at some point
during the season. The Rivermen had major victories over Top 20 teams Texas and Florida
State.

They also defeated Division II
national champion Washington
University.

"I believe that as a team we had more baskets than last year, which
we needed to get as far as we did.

The UM-St. Louis men's basketball

team traveled to Louisiana Tech. Through the Thanksgiving break to face the Bulldogs of Texas Tech.
The Rivermen fell 76-71 in their
first ever C-USA 1st round game.

"We didn't play well," head coach
Rich Nickle said. "They made 30 of 52
shots for a shooting percentage of 57.7.

These Texas Techers have made the first three straight 3-point shots from 30 feet out just the three times into the game.
Chris Pilz made a free throw for the Rivermen to cut the lid to 31. But two more baskets by Tech Tech upped the

Nutshell, from page 5

After the party, Clara creeps downstairs and falls asleep with her nutcracker securely in her arms. Clara awakens to find a great deal of magic at work. The Christmas tree grows to gigantic proportions and the toys come to life. As army of mice, led by the Mouse King, invades the parlour and attack the toy soldiers.

The Nutcracker is transformed into a magician at work. The Sugar Plum Fairy dances with her slipper and hits the Mouse King in the head, wounding him mortally. This awakens from her dream.

Clara wakes from her dream. Or was it?

The Nutcracker will be presented at the Fox Theatre at 8 p.m. on Thursday, December 21, and at 2 p.m. on Saturday, December 23.

It will be the first time the State Ballet of Mississippi and the Saint Louis Symphony Orchestra will perform together, the first time either organization has appeared at the Fox and the first time The Nutcracker has been performed at the Fox. Tickets range from $5 through $22 for children, students with ID and senior citizens. For more information, contact Dance St. Louis at 566-3775.

And you're still smoking?

Sugar Plum, from page 5

that the Sugar Plum Fairy smiled at them."

True to his, Nadz's engagement was right out of a storybook. While taping an interview for Federal Aid, he met her future husband. He sent her a letter and met her future husband. The two were married and grow into serious problems. Nadeau is unsure what her future will hold.

She wants to be a teacher. For the time being she concentrates on her dancing. Her sincerest wish for young dancers is that they want to do. It's hard work but if the dancer is dedicated and works hard, it can be a great feeling. It can be magical.

Before you can follow your dreams, you've got to follow the rules.

Men who don't register with Selective Service aren't eligible for federal student aid, job training, and most federal employment opportunities. To register at your local office, write in month of your 18th birthday. It usually takes five minutes to fill out a simple card.

Register With Selective Service. It's Quick. It's Easy. And It's The Law.

With Macintosh you can even do this:

File
New
Open...
Close
Save
Save As...
Print...
Quit

Macintosh computers have always been easy to use. But they've never been this easy to own.

Presenting The Macintosh Sale.

Through January 31, you can save hundreds of dollars on a variety of Apple Macintosh computers and peripherals.

So now there's no reason to settle for an ordinary PC. With The University of Missouri/St. Louis Social Sciences and Business Building Room 101

The Macintosh Sale.
Now through January 31

Forget about school for a while... Gee... Thanks.

Happy Holidays from the University program board

Look for coming programs next year!!

You're smart enough to know the difference between perestroika and glasnost.

Non-Apple Macintosh software is not supported.

General Consumer Products} Inc.
Model 128 ...

C:

At the University of Missouri/St. Louis, our vision is to provide a rich academic environment where students can achieve their personal goals and be prepared to lead the world of tomorrow. Our commitment to excellence in teaching, research, and service is reflected in the diversity and quality of our faculty, staff, and students. We value our partnerships with the community and strive to create a welcoming and inclusive environment for all. Whether you're a current student, faculty member, or alumni, we want to hear from you. Contact us today to learn more about the University of Missouri/St. Louis.