Schwetz Says Her Tickets Not Fixed

by Max Montgomery

Julie Schwetz, Student Government Association vice president, said she hasn't paid for any of them. She thought the Winter 1991 semester.

“There has been absolutely no wrongdoing on my part,” Schwetz said at the 1991-92 Student Government Association meeting.

“Wrongdoing on my part.” Schwetz says.

The Student Government Association has been wrong.

The school's tickets system.

The Student Government Association (SGA) is responsible for the ticketing system.

The SGA has been wrong.

The SGA vice president.

Student council member.

SGA President Mark Grimes said:

“Tried to fix the problem. They have no idea what we're trying to do.”

So far, the problem remains.

The Student Government Association has been wrong.

The SGA vice president.

Evelyn Garner, a UMSL student, makes a mock weather forecast as part of the CBS College Tour brought to UMSL by University Program Board and Student Activities.

Don't 'Goggle' At Women, Expert Says

by Thomas J. Kovach

Barry Shapiro kills the two men on the telephone at a university in the Eastern part of the United States. Shapiro was at a registration office, and both men joke.

The two men joke.

It seems Shapiro was in sexual harassment prevention seminars.

Said Shapiro, "I felt really comfortable."

The two men joke.

"Upon hearing that, she saw me coughing and she went into the bathroom. She didn't come back until later that evening."

He cited a trend of women, both students and tenured professors, being sexually harassed.

"Experience has shown that it is possible to stop some forms of sexual harassment."

"I'm not going to act on it, I'm not going to look for (evidence)."

Shapiro continued the story.

Shapiro concluded the story.

"Experience has shown that it is possible to stop some forms of sexual harassment."

"It's not my part."

If you are sexually harassed, you should, as a first step, do one or more of the following:

1. Talk to your adviser or academic advisor.
2. Talk to your instructor.
3. Talk to a friend.
4. Talk to a parent.
5. Talk to the university's Office of Equal Opportunity.

"It's not that you can't look, but you can look."

He said other types of sexual harassment behavior includes pressure for dates, sexually suggestive looks or gestures and pressure for sexual favors.

"People will say, "What do you mean you can't look at a girl anymore?,"

"It's not that you can't look, but you can look."

The Office of Equal Opportunity said if you are sexually harassed, you should:

1. Talk to the university's Office of Equal Opportunity.
2. Talk to your instructor.
3. Talk to a friend.
4. Talk to a parent.
5. Talk to the university's Office of Equal Opportunity.

"It's not that you can't look, but you can look."

He said other types of sexual harassment behavior includes pressure for dates, sexually suggestive looks or gestures and pressure for sexual favors.

"People will say, "What do you mean you can't look at a girl anymore?,"

"It's not that you can't look, but you can look."

The Office of Equal Opportunity said if you are sexually harassed, you should:

1. Talk to the university's Office of Equal Opportunity.
2. Talk to your instructor.
3. Talk to a friend.
4. Talk to a parent.
5. Talk to the university's Office of Equal Opportunity.

"It's not that you can't look, but you can look."

He said other types of sexual harassment behavior includes pressure for dates, sexually suggestive looks or gestures and pressure for sexual favors.

"People will say, "What do you mean you can't look at a girl anymore?,"

"It's not that you can't look, but you can look."

The Office of Equal Opportunity said if you are sexually harassed, you should:

1. Talk to the university's Office of Equal Opportunity.
2. Talk to your instructor.
3. Talk to a friend.
4. Talk to a parent.
5. Talk to the university's Office of Equal Opportunity.

"It's not that you can't look, but you can look."

He said other types of sexual harassment behavior includes pressure for dates, sexually suggestive looks or gestures and pressure for sexual favors.

"People will say, "What do you mean you can't look at a girl anymore?,"

"It's not that you can't look, but you can look."

The Office of Equal Opportunity said if you are sexually harassed, you should:

1. Talk to the university's Office of Equal Opportunity.
2. Talk to your instructor.
3. Talk to a friend.
4. Talk to a parent.
5. Talk to the university's Office of Equal Opportunity.

"It's not that you can't look, but you can look."

He said other types of sexual harassment behavior includes pressure for dates, sexually suggestive looks or gestures and pressure for sexual favors.

"People will say, "What do you mean you can't look at a girl anymore?,"

"It's not that you can't look, but you can look."

The Office of Equal Opportunity said if you are sexually harassed, you should:

1. Talk to the university's Office of Equal Opportunity.
2. Talk to your instructor.
3. Talk to a friend.
4. Talk to a parent.
5. Talk to the university's Office of Equal Opportunity.

"It's not that you can't look, but you can look."

He said other types of sexual harassment behavior includes pressure for dates, sexually suggestive looks or gestures and pressure for sexual favors.

"People will say, "What do you mean you can't look at a girl anymore?,"

"It's not that you can't look, but you can look."

The Office of Equal Opportunity said if you are sexually harassed, you should:

1. Talk to the university's Office of Equal Opportunity.
2. Talk to your instructor.
3. Talk to a friend.
4. Talk to a parent.
5. Talk to the university's Office of Equal Opportunity.
Helen wanted immediately! No experience necessary. Process F8A mortgage referrals. Work at home. Call 1-800-313-5666.

Free travel, cash, and excellent business opportunities! Openings available for individuals or student organizations to promote the country's most successful spring break tours. Call Inter-Campus Programs 1-800-327-6015.

Thirty (30) paid female students with doubling ability for personal female attendants on Monday, Wednesday, Friday between 11:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. 500 pt. per hour. Call Mary at 723-4675.

Students want immediately! No experience necessary. Process F8A mortgage referrals. Work at home. Call 1-800-313-5666.

Free travel, cash, and excellent business opportunities! Openings available for individuals or student organizations to promote the country's most successful spring break tours. Call Inter-Campus Programs 1-800-327-6015.

For sale-79 280zx, radiator, fuel putter, 2200 miles, $3800 or best offer, 723-6463.

Therapy services wanted! Help wanted immediately! No experience necessary. Process F8A mortgage referrals. Work at home. Call 1-800-313-5666.

Free travel, cash, and excellent business opportunities! Openings available for individuals or student organizations to promote the country's most successful spring break tours. Call Inter-Campus Programs 1-800-327-6015.
Answers, Not Questions
Words have been hurtful and voices have cried out for justice. Students demanded last week what will happen, if anything, in Paul Matteucci's case.

Assembly members, however, came out of last week's SGA meeting wondering if standing up for a cause is really worth it.

Sandy McLean, vice-chancellor for student affairs, was drilled by assembly members about the Current's disclosure of Matteucci, the student representative to the Board of Curers, for falsifying a travel expense voucher. Matteucci reimbursed UM-St. Louis about $1000, the cost of the trip, three weeks after the Current began a complete investigation of his travel expenses. The $1000 came out of Student Government, Association's account, which is funded by student activity money.

Students who were upset at Matteucci should now feel the same anger towards MacLean. He said there was no public is not going to be told if Matteucci received any disciplinary action, he said, is because disciplinary actions are a private matter.

Private matter? With taxpayers money? Matteucci willfully knew what he was doing, what the real itinerary plan was and what his $$ went to. The top of a popular downtown club at 2:00 AM and getting beaten up for walking down the street. As a result, people almost had their activity fee money taken away, and students need to worry about those scenarios because they may never be answered.

students need to worry about those scenarios because they may never be answered.

Taking A Step Forward
While the wheels are still turning with UM-St. Louis' sexual harassment policy, Carolyn West is spinning her way to the top.

The UM-St. Louis graduate student filed a sexual discrimination suit against UM-St. Louis. She said a former colleague sexually harassed her for four years. While experts say few students step forward with claims of sexual harassment, rape or assault, going against the odds, like West, can make a sizeable difference in policies. UM-St. Louis' policy is good, but it can be improved even if it is nothing more than an example business for all of America's standards? Yes? Again, I need some help there.

I do not pay money to wait in line, so I pay to park. I pay for UMSL's quality service, not anything less than hiring you as my broker.

They are asking for his resignation. But George Russell, interim UM President and Web Gilmore, UM-UM President and Web Gilmore, UM said the matter goes back to UM-St. Louis.

Even if MacLean does not take any action against Matteucci, why won't students, who almost had their activity fee money taken away, know the result?

In hand for authors why MacLean, who is usually upfront and honest, will not reveal the outcome. There is a good possibility that a "higher" in the UM system put a spin on the matter. To avoid the public knowing who Matteucci did, they may have sent it back to the UM-St. Louis campus and told MacLean to be quiet.

There are so many scenarios that could have happened. And students need to worry about those scenarios because they may never be answered.

by Max Montgomery
news editor

So I guess I was. Friday the 13th.

My complaints have been heard, but nothing has been done.

I made my attitude now is that I pay to park, even though that is not a right. I do not pay money to wait in line, so I pay to park. I pay for UMSL's quality service, not anything less than hiring you as my broker.

I had never really seen crime in action like that, but it was realistic. Herman was right. The real world is not picture perfect. As someone young enough to be your lucky charm, I don't have to deal with that type of crime every day, like Herman does.

Marcia J. Bagge Business Director

Nate Bower parking manager

Thomas J. Kovach Editor in Chief

Keith Houston Photography

Travis Johnson

Robby Meyer

Max Montgomery news editor

Michele McIlrath/ Dan Fox art coordinator

Chloe McIlrath

Nate Bower parking manager

Monica Morales

Dorms

Beau Male

photos editor

Jennifer Shipp student editor

Rose Meth photo editor

Randy Moore art editor

Ron Tepker

Regina

Kessy Barrozo

Christopher Speckman

Clay Anderson/ Casey Belcher photography

Dear editor:

I thought in myself that I now need the help to understand this situation.

Linda, a security a deputy at the Mosuch Building, said the same problem has existed for the past 7.5 years. I never want to hear UMSL traffic stopping Natural Bridge Road's flow regularly. It is a parking lot problem, not a political one.

I want to know why more has not been done about the alleged misappropriated funds and the parking. I am, however, only one student and when I am that I am being served about money matter, I need to know more if it is done through the representative. And nothing was being done about the parking and some other little grievances. She was the class of work better, he will need me to help you get the representative.

I did not believe the parking problem was a 'corporate' issue. It is more of a personal one. For a lot of people, it is a matter of fact, is to even go out, and Herman looked lucky. I didn't get busted in the same anger towards MacLean. He said the public is not going to see the outcome. There is a good possibility that a "higher" in the UM system put a spin on the matter. To avoid the public knowing who Matteucci did, they may have sent it back to the UM-St. Louis campus and told MacLean to be quiet.

The Equitable Office and the Women's Center now want any students, faculty or staff members to know sexual harassment is an issue UM-St. Louis will not toss aside.

At the Current's weekly writers on Mondays. Advertising space is available upon request by contacting the Current business office at (314) 535-5115. Space may be reserved on a first-come, first-served basis. Material must be received by 5 p.m. the Tuesday prior to publication.

The Current, financed in part by student activity money, is not an official publication of the University of Missouri. The University is not responsible for the Current's contents and policies.

Editorial staff of the paper reflects the opinion of the editorial staff. Articles labeled "commentary" or "columns" are the opinion of the individual writer.

All material contained in this issue is the property of the Current and cannot be reproduced or reprinted without the express written consent of the Current and its staff.

Thomas J. Kovach
Editor in Chief

Scott Keenyer
Managing Editor

Dear editor:

I went to the administration building. I wanted some statistical information. I think actually talked to the chancellor. She was friendly and innocent looking. She directed years.

Words have been hurtful and voices have cried out for justice. Students demanded last week what will happen, if anything, in Paul Matteucci's case.

Assembly members, however, came out of last week's SGA meeting wondering if standing up for a cause is really worth it.

Sandy McLean, vice-chancellor for student affairs, was drilled by assembly members about the Current's disclosure of Matteucci, the student representative to the Board of Curers, for falsifying a travel expense voucher. Matteucci reimbursed UM-St. Louis about $1000, the cost of the trip, three weeks after the Current began a complete investigation of his travel expenses. The $1000 came out of Student Government, Association's account, which is funded by student activity money.

Students who were upset at Matteucci should now feel the same anger towards MacLean. He said there was no public is not going to be told if Matteucci received any disciplinary action, he said, is because disciplinary actions are a private matter.

Private matter? With taxpayers money? Matteucci willfully knew what he was doing, what the real itinerary plan was and what his $$ went to. The top of a popular downtown club at 2:00 AM and getting beaten up for walking down the street. As a result, people almost had their activity fee money taken away, and students need to worry about those scenarios because they may never be answered.

Taking A Step Forward
While the wheels are still turning with UM-St. Louis' sexual harassment policy, Carolyn West is spinning her way to the top.

The UM-St. Louis graduate student filed a sexual discrimination suit against UM-St. Louis. She said a former colleague sexually harassed her for four years. While experts say few students step forward with claims of sexual harassment, rape or assault, going against the odds, like West, can make a sizeable difference in policies. UM-St. Louis' policy is good, but it can be improved even if it is nothing more than an example business for all of America's standards? Yes? Again, I need some help there.

I do not pay money to wait in line, so I pay to park. I pay for UMSL's quality service, not anything less than hiring you as my broker.

I had never really seen crime in action like that, but it was realistic. Herman was right. The real world is not picture perfect. As someone young enough to be your lucky charm, I don't have to deal with that type of crime every day, like Herman does.

Take care of yourself, Herman.

My complaints have been heard, but nothing has been done.

I made my
TIAA-CREF is building a sound financial future for more than 10,000,000 people in the education and research communities. And over $850 billion in assets is already being enjoyed by the retiree families that have come to retire with TIAA-CREF.

LOOK FOR SECURITY, GROWTH AND DIVERSITY.

TIAA-CREF offers a complete choice of Investment Funds, when it is time to retire. Growth—you'll have enough income for the kind of retirement you want. And diversity—to help protect you against market volatility and the risk of losing some or all of your contributions.

If you can answer yes to any of the above questions, you are qualified to become a client with TIAA-CREF. Call the TIAA-CREF Hotline at 1-800-325-7175 to set up an interview.

ONE MILLION OF THE BEST MINDS IN AMERICA HAVE ALREADY CHOSEN THE BEST RETIREMENT PROGRAM.

TIAA-CREF and the SOUNP RETIREMENT INVESTING I...
St. Louis Salutes Guns N' Roses

by K.C. Clarke

September 23, 1991

It's Wild, It's Wacky, It's... by Greg Airways

Weddings on Wheels!!

by Greg Airways of the Current staff

Is Life Really Just a Bowl Of Cherries?

e热水线

by Greg Airways spiritual guru

Strong Statements Made Through Weavings At Gallery 210
by K.C. Clarke of the Current Staff

FEATURES

St. Louis Salutes Guns N' Roses

by K.C. Clarke of the Current Staff

If you already 'heard, then you know that Guns N' Roses, the current rock phenomenon, are as wild, as wacky, and as unpredictable as the weather. They've taken the music world by storm with their innovative and often controversial style. The band's lead singer, Axl Rose, is known for his unique vocals and his aggressive stage presence. The rest of the band, including Slash on guitar, Duff McKagan on bass, and Izzy Stradlin on drums, have also become known for their individual styles and talents.

Guns N' Roses have been credited with popularizing the use of sound effects and multimedia in their live performances. They have also been known for their use of pyrotechnics and special effects, such as smoke and fog machines. Their concerts are like a rock concert and a circus rolled into one. The band's music is often characterized by its heavy metal influence and its themes of rebellion and anti-establishment.

The band's success has been both a blessing and a curse. While they have achieved great commercial success, they have also faced criticism for their controversial behavior and their refusal to conform to traditional rock star image. The band's lead singer, Axl Rose, has been known for his wild and unpredictable personality, and the band's image has sometimes been characterized as rebellious and anti-social.

However, despite the controversy, Guns N' Roses have remained a dominant force in the music industry. Their influence on rock music has been profound, and they continue to be one of the most popular and influential bands of all time. Whether you love them or hate them, there's no denying that Guns N' Roses have left an indelible mark on the world of music.
Thelma & Louise Are Back!

Now's your chance to take Get-A-Life 101

Susan Sarandon & Geena Davis
A Ridley Scott Film

WEBERENCE

RENT AN APARTMENT

When spacious remodeled duplexes are now available bordering the northeast umbilical campus:
- 2-3 Bedroom Duplexes
- Beautiful Hardwood Floors
- Large Storage Area
- Large Finished Basement
- Off-Street Parking
- Yard Space
- Cable TV Available

Enjoy twice the space and truly walk to campus.

ALLIANCE GROUP
522-6855

Faculty and Students
Call for tenant prices.

Correction

In the August 26, 1991, of the Current News, a University of St. Louis student moved into Incarnate Word College. This Current regrets the error.
Dulle, Lynn Battle for Top Spot

by Keith Hamilton

Last year the Rivermen were already starting this season without a quality goalkeeper. Big problem. It turns out they have two quality goalkeepers.

Big problem. After the first four games of the season, the Rivermen had 4-0, with only one goal against and three shutouts. One is credited to second year starter, Mark Dulle. The remaining two go to freshman Mark Lynn.

"Right now these two are playing pretty well," said Assistant Coach Gary LeGrand. "There really wasn't nothing Mark could do about it." Dulle and Lynn are both American products from Chicago and played for the same high school. Dulle played for the Chicago Fire and Lynn for the Silverbacks. The Silverbacks won the Under-17 national championship in 1991. Both Dulle and Lynn have moved on to college and have not been able to send back their home states.

Two outstanding goalies who have suffered through rehabilitation to be able to play the games, now must fight for one spot.

Women's Soccer

Rivermen Cut Up By Razorbacks; Get Big Win Over Little Rock On Road

by Christine M. McGrew

The Rivermen, who were on the road again last weekend, split a pair of games between Division I schools Arkansas and Little Rock.

Lynn is a freshman from Illinois who has scored 14 goals this season. He has been playing some great games against the Razorbacks, but has not scored a goal yet. Lynn is a true freshman and has two shutouts.

A good goal, but we can't put it in the goal." Dulle said.

The Rivermen failed their high school against the University of Arkansas last week, winning 4-0. Rivermen goals were scored by Monica Stoy, Michelle Linder, Christine Barry and Tammy Hudson. The sodas were named by Carmine Julian, John Gunsalus and Bill Donavan.

"We were down 3-0 and we came back to win," said Mark Dulle, the Rivermen's starting goalkeeper.

"We're trying to get them into the tournament," said Coach Ken Hudson.

In Central MO State Challenge

by Christine McGrew

The Rivermen didn't live up to the expectations in the Central Missouri Power Rankings last week. With the season being used for the championship, the team was able to win the season by a margin of 4-0 and to be rated in the top 10 in the Central Missouri Power Rankings.

"We came close and didn't lose," said Ken Hudson. "It was a tough week for us, but I think we did okay." Dulle said.

One of the highlights of the weekend was the victory over 4-0, pushing them into the consolation pool. The official dedication of the first ever memorial to the soccer stadium in Central Missouri will take place prior to the game against Northeast Missouri State.

One of the highlights was the victory over 4-0, pushing them into the consolation pool. The official dedication of the first ever memorial to the soccer stadium in Central Missouri will take place prior to the game against Northeast Missouri State.

Mark Lynn & Mark Dulle

The two goalies system will stay in effect for a few more games. Dulle is slated to tend goal against UM-St. Louis, Lewis University and Tampa University.

Lynn will mind the net against Northeast Missouri and Missouri Valley.

Lynn is a freshman from Illinois who has scored 14 goals this season. He has been playing some great games against the Razorbacks, but has not scored a goal yet. Lynn is a true freshman and has two shutouts.

Two outstanding goalies who have suffered through rehabilitation to be able to play the games, now must fight for one spot.
'91-'92 National Hockey League Preview

The Clarence Campbell Conference

The Prince Of Wales Conference

Patrick Division

1. Pittsburgh Penguins

Last year’s Cup winner is back. Super Mario will once again lead this team to the finals if he can keep himself away from the operating room. "When he’s healthy, he is the greatest player in the league." Ray Ferraro, Dan Bylsma, Slavko Kozlowski, Brian McPhee, Pat Cullity, Sam Pollock and Tom Barrasso. Enough said.

2. New York Rangers

Personal second place finishers. The Rangers are deep at forward and, with four forwards that were front-runners for the Conn Smythe Trophy last season, but an all Star lineup that includes Andy Moog, Craig North and Rogie Vachon, it will be a close call. Slavko Kozlowski will make this team even more formidable. This year. If Ray Ferraro remains out of a high injury, and Brian McPhee returns from a long layoff, this team is looking at a spot in the finals.

3. Montreal Canadiens

The Cup winner from last season. Stephane Richer and Denis Savard were both playing far under their potential, although Russ Courtnall was up to the job of filling the void with 50 goals. This year, opposing teams in the playoffs will have to cope with an overabundance of offensive talent. Rookie Vener Kovalenko is now one of the top two or three players in the league, while former King Mark Recchi, Bryan Trottier, Mike Keane and Mike McPhee make up the week defense. General Manager Serge Savard has decided it is go to work and keep Montreal out of the playoffs once again.

4. Quebec Nordiques

Tape. Nordiques make playoffs as a 122 with the help of Eric Lindros but whoever this team can master in the made-for-them Finals.

5. New Jersey Devils

The French version of the Penguins, with an offensive minded player in their lineup. The Devils have had some success in the past two years, but a young team can only be expected to improve. Jean Ratelle has provided the French with a breakthrough for Quebec in the spring.

6. Buffalo Sabres

Dogs. The only reason this embarrassment isn’t piled on the list is because of the health of this team. The Sabres have had a few players in the past few years in the 200 games mark, and their five last games at home are 5-0. However, the Sabres have struggled in the past two years, and this year’s team is expected to be even stronger.

7. New York Islanders

The Islanders have steadied their ship and are now a very competitive team again. The Islanders are expected to be up to 111 points next season. This team is one of the best in the East, and they have a chance to win the Cup.

8. Philadelphia Flyers

The Flyers are on a roll with the best possible reasons. The Flyers are expected to be up to 112 points next season. This team is one of the best in the East, and they have a chance to win the Cup.

9. New York Islanders

The Islanders are expected to be up to 112 points next season. This team is one of the best in the East, and they have a chance to win the Cup.

10. Philadelphia Flyers

The Flyers are on a roll with the best possible reasons. The Flyers are expected to be up to 112 points next season. This team is one of the best in the East, and they have a chance to win the Cup.