Student file complaint against Hutchinson by Deana Austy and Rob Goedeker

On Tuesday, March 7th, officials in the University Intercollegiate Athletics Department announced that they had received a complaint from a female athlete against Tonya Hutchinson, who was the University’s Intercollegiate Athletics Director.

The complaint was filed by a former student athlete who had been a member of Sigma Kappa Alpha, a sorority on campus. The complaint alleged that Ms. Hutchinson had subjected the complainant to harassment and retaliation for speaking out against her.

The complainant, who did not wish to be identified by name, said that Ms. Hutchinson had been rude and unprofessional during their interactions. The complainant also alleged that Ms. Hutchinson had failed to investigate or address her concerns.

The complainant further alleged that Ms. Hutchinson had made false statements about the complainant to other members of the Intercollegiate Athletics Department.

A copy of the complaint was filed with the University’s Office of Student Affairs, and the Intercollegiate Athletics Department is currently investigating the matter.

Editorial

Are you looking for the perfect SGU presidential candidate? Jeremy Korthauer has the answer.

Features

Tori cards are not just for psychics anymore; they can be enjoyed by all.

Sports

Ull Stockdale is leading the UM-St. Louis softball team to a spectacular 95 season.
4309_
Time management: Stop hour no more solution
by Matthew J. Forsythe editor-in-chief

There is a big problem with the proposed idea of a stop hour. The problem is so big that neither the proponents, nor the opponents recognize its implications. I think that we can do better. I can go farther than that; society as a whole does not recognize the limitations of this problem.

Stop hour is the idea of closing one hour of classes during the week mid-week, Monday through Thursday, in order to give students extra time to work and take part in extracurricular activities.

I have talked to hundreds of students, and none of them think the stop hour is a bad idea. Some do not believe in it at all, and some think it is not working, but I think that their reasoning about our university is flawed. They think the university is not using its time, but I think that their reasoning about our university would make people more apt to think that people could enjoy more.

This in turn would make people more apt to think things on my to-do list for today and tomorrow. Very little, I think.

The problem

The problem is the stop hour that will not work for the students. A college education has also been affected by the student. Students find the learning of so much, much more in less time. Then the student is supposed to find the learning in this world, where I have a lot of busy work.

The stop hour is a common saying. The central theme in all of this information is that it must be accomplished quickly, so that we can enjoy it in our youth. So we can find time to do the last checking of tasks as they are due, while our little hours in a blue are in. I kind of think they are great for some reason.

Time is the most precious commodity in all of society.

The stop hour is a common saying. The central theme in all of this information is that it must be accomplished quickly, so that we can enjoy it in our youth. So we can find time to do the last checking of tasks as they are due, while our little hours in a blue are in. I kind of think they are great for some reason.

The problem. The only problem with the stop hour is that students will use this time to do the busy work at their third job, or try to get ahead by taking another class at another college. Stop hour is a bad idea for a much bigger problem.

To tell the truth, I don't think, nor do I think we can afford to do anything for students. The only problem with the stop hour is that it is a common saying. But the central theme in all of this information is that it must be accomplished quickly, so that we can enjoy it in our youth. So we can find time to do the last checking of tasks as they are due, while our little hours in a blue are in. I kind of think they are great for some reason.

The problem

The problem is the stop hour that will not work for the students. A college education has also been affected by the student. Students find the learning of so much, much more in less time. Then the student is supposed to find the learning in this world, where I have a lot of busy work.

A college education has also been affected by the student. Students find the learning of so much, much more in less time. Then the student is supposed to find the learning in this world, where I have a lot of busy work.

There is a big problem with the proposed idea of a stop hour. The problem is so big that neither the proponents, nor the opponents recognize its implications. I think that we can do better. I can go farther than that; society as a whole does not recognize the limitations of this problem.

Stop hour is the idea of closing one hour of classes during the week mid-week, Monday through Thursday, in order to give students extra time to work and take part in extracurricular activities.

I have talked to hundreds of students, and none of them think the stop hour is a bad idea. Some do not believe in it at all, and some think it is not working, but I think that their reasoning about our university is flawed. They think the university is not using its time, but I think that their reasoning about our university would make people more apt to think that people could enjoy more.

This in turn would make people more apt to think things on my to-do list for today and tomorrow. Very little, I think.

The problem

The problem is the stop hour that will not work for the students. A college education has also been affected by the student. Students find the learning of so much, much more in less time. Then the student is supposed to find the learning in this world, where I have a lot of busy work.

The stop hour is a common saying. The central theme in all of this information is that it must be accomplished quickly, so that we can enjoy it in our youth. So we can find time to do the last checking of tasks as they are due, while our little hours in a blue are in. I kind of think they are great for some reason.

Time is the most precious commodity in all of society.

The problem. The only problem with the stop hour is that students will use this time to do the busy work at their third job, or try to get ahead by taking another class at another college. Stop hour is a bad idea for a much bigger problem.

To tell the truth, I don't think, nor do I think we can afford to do anything for students. The only problem with the stop hour is that it is a common saying. But the central theme in all of this information is that it must be accomplished quickly, so that we can enjoy it in our youth. So we can find time to do the last checking of tasks as they are due, while our little hours in a blue are in. I kind of think they are great for some reason.

The problem

The problem is the stop hour that will not work for the students. A college education has also been affected by the student. Students find the learning of so much, much more in less time. Then the student is supposed to find the learning in this world, where I have a lot of busy work.

A college education has also been affected by the student. Students find the learning of so much, much more in less time. Then the student is supposed to find the learning in this world, where I have a lot of busy work.

There is a big problem with the proposed idea of a stop hour. The problem is so big that neither the proponents, nor the opponents recognize its implications. I think that we can do better. I can go farther than that; society as a whole does not recognize the limitations of this problem.

Stop hour is the idea of closing one hour of classes during the week mid-week, Monday through Thursday, in order to give students extra time to work and take part in extracurricular activities.

I have talked to hundreds of students, and none of them think the stop hour is a bad idea. Some do not believe in it at all, and some think it is not working, but I think that their reasoning about our university is flawed. They think the university is not using its time, but I think that their reasoning about our university would make people more apt to think that people could enjoy more.

This in turn would make people more apt to think things on my to-do list for today and tomorrow. Very little, I think.

The problem

The problem is the stop hour that will not work for the students. A college education has also been affected by the student. Students find the learning of so much, much more in less time. Then the student is supposed to find the learning in this world, where I have a lot of busy work.

A college education has also been affected by the student. Students find the learning of so much, much more in less time. Then the student is supposed to find the learning in this world, where I have a lot of busy work.

There is a big problem with the proposed idea of a stop hour. The problem is so big that neither the proponents, nor the opponents recognize its implications. I think that we can do better. I can go farther than that; society as a whole does not recognize the limitations of this problem.

Stop hour is the idea of closing one hour of classes during the week mid-week, Monday through Thursday, in order to give students extra time to work and take part in extracurricular activities.

I have talked to hundreds of students, and none of them think the stop hour is a bad idea. Some do not believe in it at all, and some think it is not working, but I think that their reasoning about our university is flawed. They think the university is not using its time, but I think that their reasoning about our university would make people more apt to think that people could enjoy more.

This in turn would make people more apt to think things on my to-do list for today and tomorrow. Very little, I think.

The problem

The problem is the stop hour that will not work for the students. A college education has also been affected by the student. Students find the learning of so much, much more in less time. Then the student is supposed to find the learning in this world, where I have a lot of busy work.

A college education has also been affected by the student. Students find the learning of so much, much more in less time. Then the student is supposed to find the learning in this world, where I have a lot of busy work.
The Student Government committee has announced that there will be a kickoff on April 4 to begin the campaign to get students to vote for the new University Center.

The kickoff will be held in the lobby of the J.C. Penney building. There will be three sessions at 10:30 a.m., 1:30 p.m., and 5 p.m.

Each session will include a speech from UM-St. Louis Chancellor Blanche Touhill and a slide presentation from Blanche and Associates, the facilities planning firm who helped design the new University Center. Both Touhill, on chart for the committee, will also speak.

Clare Zweifel, co-chair for the student referendum committee, said, "The kickoff day was designed to answer questions for students who are unsure," Zweifel said.

The Student Lobby is open, as well as other local media, will attend the event.

The kickoff will be held in the lobby of the J.C. Penney building. There will be three sessions at 10:30 a.m., 1:30 p.m., and 5 p.m.

Each session will include a speech from UM-St. Louis Chancellor Blanche Touhill and a slide presentation from Blanche and Associates, the facilities planning firm who helped design the new University Center. Both Touhill, on chart for the committee, will also speak.

Clare Zweifel, co-chair for the student referendum committee, said, "The kickoff day was designed to answer questions for students who are unsure," Zweifel said.

The Student Lobby is open, as well as other local media, will attend the event.

The kickoff will be held in the lobby of the J.C. Penney building. There will be three sessions at 10:30 a.m., 1:30 p.m., and 5 p.m.

Each session will include a speech from UM-St. Louis Chancellor Blanche Touhill and a slide presentation from Blanche and Associates, the facilities planning firm who helped design the new University Center. Both Touhill, on chart for the committee, will also speak.

Clare Zweifel, co-chair for the student referendum committee, said, "The kickoff day was designed to answer questions for students who are unsure," Zweifel said.

The Student Lobby is open, as well as other local media, will attend the event.
The Pacific and Delta Zeta are Greek Week champions following a week-long series of events which took place last week. The three factions, Sigma Pi, Delta Zeta and Pi Kappa Alpha competed against each other in games of skill, endurance and intelligence for trophies as well as bragging rights.

Some of the events included: golf, softball, dart, archery, racquetball, volleyball and a keg toss. The games concluded Saturday and as awards banquet was held that night. No one was expected to be out of town, but several were. The awards banquet was "a very nice evening," said the Greek Week editor.

The Delta Zeta sorority was set up as the winners. They "set the pace for three hours," said the Greek Week editor. "I think everyone had a good time." When all was said and done, the team came away with more than $100, which they will keep.

The Delta Zeta sorority was set up as the winners. They "set the pace for three hours." Dave Letterman, is a very funny guy. But his Late Night jokes, like a lot of his other jokes, are geared toward achieving the Goals and lighter audiences, doesn't jive with every year to acknowledge the Film without something we've never seen.

The Forensics and Debate Team are the winners. The team beat out all other schools in the field and placed fourth out of 16 schools at the Pi Kappa Delta National Debate Tournament in Shreveport, Louisiana. The Tournament was held from March 11th to March 13th at Louisiana State University. The team showed off their mettle by winning three major awards, an invitation letter to the International Debate Tournament, for the Forensics Team and for the Individual Events Team.

"We are very, very proud of our team," said coach Scott Shreve. The team was also awarded the Scott Shreve Award, which is given to the student who demonstrate "out of the ordinary" excellence in debate. The award was given to senior Jason Brown.

The team will return to action at the National Debate Tournament in March in San Antonio. The team is currently ranked second in the nation.

The team will return to action at the National Debate Tournament in March in San Antonio. The team is currently ranked second in the nation.

The team will return to action at the National Debate Tournament in March in San Antonio. The team is currently ranked second in the nation.

The team will return to action at the National Debate Tournament in March in San Antonio. The team is currently ranked second in the nation.

The team will return to action at the National Debate Tournament in March in San Antonio. The team is currently ranked second in the nation.

The team will return to action at the National Debate Tournament in March in San Antonio. The team is currently ranked second in the nation.
Rd., is dedicated to helping its customers of all faiths find the deck with Maplewood and Pathways in reading more according to higher Wands, page 6

These cards’ symbolism is separated or mysteries (115 minor Arcana cards) and things such as The High Tarot, Devil, and The Moon.

When ordering, make sure to ease the occasional problems, including children’s albums, Fink and Marxer titled it, “A Companion”.

As a result of the attack. Four X-rays were taken of Kapayo’s skull as a precautionary measure, and he is risking anti-inflammatory medicine.

Everyone is capable of psychic power, according to Devondry and Bourbon. They just need to know how to do it, according to Bourbon.

Together with other peoples misfortunes, to answer their questions.

The store prides itself on the fact that it serves people of all denominations except Satanism.

She has their own path to take on, according to Riehl. She father and grandfather, Bourbon, who has been reading Tarot cards since she was very young. Her and her staff provide customers with expert advice and information about the cards and all other the esoteric products in the store.

Those are at least 12 other people, “Forrest said. “It is an ongoing event with the Plane.” Thakur contends that it wasn’t the basketball sign that was taken, but instead it was a sign directing people to the side of his belt.

He said the fight ended after this.

Thakur said that he had a conflict with Kapayo for several months. It’s a racial issue, according to Thakur.

The “You have your psychic,” he says, “They even had the letters printed on their Greek chaplainship shirts a couple of years ago.”

Thakur said that after Huebner had stated the signs and got into the car, Kapayo threw a rock at his car.

Everyone believes in the power of the cards and make only a modest profit and other traditions, Fink and Marxer album dedicated to parents and aptly named it, “A Parents’ Home Companion.”

Reviews from page 5

CATY FINK & MARCY MARCEW "A Parents’ Home Companion”

After years of turning out entertainment albums, Caty Fink and Marcy Marxer have produced an album dedicated to parents and aptly titled it, “A Parents’ Home Companion.”

Borrowing from jazz, folk, blues and other traditions, Fink and Marxer have put together a delightful album sure to ease the occasional pulls of parenthood.

On the first song, “The Instruction Manual,” the guitar, snare drum and vocal harmonies sound just like Dan Hick’s Hot Licks. Like at least one other on the album, this song featured a jazz/swing sound that works great.

Using song titles like, “The Therapy Fund,” “Daughters of Fenisbury,” “Everybody’s Doin’ It” and “A Chat With Your Mother (The F-Word Song),” the girls put a lighthearted spin on childhood experiences in which we can all relate.

My favorite, “A Chat With Your Mother (The F-Word Song),” features the following lyrics:

As the pizzaro with their feudal galleries, dazed in their shoes
With half-buried noses/Diggers on a Hundred or two Nellies
There’s a light in your eye and only normal? on their minds!
It’s from them I would expect to hear the F word, not from you
Mother and Fink assist the help of several musicians on this recording, including Paul Bell, guitar; Steve Ashbrom, guitar; Clyde Connor, drums; Tony Nakan, piano; Dan Robinson, bass; Robb McGruder, lead vocals.

Striking and surprisingly unique album someone for parents who could use a laugh every now and then.

—Michael J. Urness

Student Planning the FUTURE of UM-St. Louis

Several awards, like editing and documentary features, through some lesser awards, including

Features

AM ICURY

FIND OUT FOR SURE.

CRISIS

PREGNANCY

CENTER

375-3150

Freight
547-6477

900 Frenci Pl.

2522 HWY 94

(St. Louis)

24-Hour Phone Service

477-2251

383-6723

314 N. HWY 67

511 Riner Rd.

(Platteau)

(Edwardsville)

—Michael J. Urness

KICK OFF THE NEXT ERA

Paul Brailsford Facility Planning Consultant

Al Oberlander RDG Brussard Dikis Architectural Consultant

Will be on campus to update you on the New University Center plans and to answer your questions.

ART FEATURES

April 3, 1995

$2.99 Special

Grilled Sourdough Burger,

Reg. Fries* and Reg. Soft Drink

*Seasoned Curly Fries extra. Served Lafayette 10:30 a.m. and Mill April 15, 1995 at The Natural Bridge location only.

Please present coupon when ordering. One per table per person. One per table per coupon. One per table in combination with any other offer.

sacrifice that he had a conflict with Kapayo for several months. It’s a racial issue, according to Thakur.

Everyone has their own path to take on, according to Riehl. She father and grandfather, Bourbon, who has been reading Tarot cards since she was very young. Her and her staff provide customers with expert advice and information about the cards and all other the esoteric products in the store.

Those are at least 12 other people, “Forrest said. “It is an ongoing event with the Plane.” Thakur contends that it wasn’t the basketball sign that was taken, but instead it was a sign directing people to the side of his belt.

He said the fight ended after this.

Thakur said that he had a conflict with Kapayo for several months. It’s a racial issue, according to Thakur.

The “You have your psychic,” he says, “They even had the letters printed on their Greek chaplainship shirts a couple of years ago.”

Thakur said that after Huebner had stated the signs and got into the car, Kapayo threw a rock at his car.

Everyone believes in the power of the cards and make only a modest profit and other traditions, Fink and Marxer album dedicated to parents and aptly named it, “A Parents’ Home Companion.”

Borrowing from jazz, folk, blues and other traditions, Fink and Marxer have put together a delightful album sure to ease the occasional pulls of parenthood.

On the first song, “The Instruction Manual,” the guitar, snare drum and vocal harmonies sound just like Dan Hick’s Hot Licks. Like at least one other on the album, this song featured a jazz/swing sound that works great.

Using song titles like, “The Therapy Fund,” “Daughters of Fenisbury,” “Everybody’s Doin’ It” and “A Chat With Your Mother (The F-Word Song),” the girls put a lighthearted spin on childhood experiences in which we can all relate.

My favorite, “A Chat With Your Mother (The F-Word Song),” features the following lyrics:

As the pizzaro with their feudal galleries, dazed in their shoes
With half-buried noses/Diggers on a Hundred or two Nellies
There’s a light in your eye and only normal? on their minds!
It’s from them I would expect to hear the F word, not from you
Mother and Fink assist the help of several musicians on this recording, including Paul Bell, guitar; Steve Ashbrom, guitar; Clyde Connor, drums; Tony Nakan, piano; Dan Robinson, bass; Robb McGruder, lead vocals.

Striking and surprisingly unique album someone for parents who could use a laugh every now and then.

—Michael J. Urness

Student Planning the FUTURE of UM-St. Louis

Attend one of these important open meetings:

J.C. Penney Auditorium, Tuesday, April 4 10:30 a.m.

12:30 p.m.

5:30 p.m.

It’s your University Center. Take responsibility for it.
"Delores" depresses but fulfilling
by Scott Lamar

"Delores Claiborne" is a movie sure to make you leave the theater feeling, at best, glum.
Kathy Bates, the "number one fear" in "Money," stars in the title role. The movie is about a woman accused of murder of her rich employer. The swashbuckling of the isolated Maine community sees Delores almost as a witch and assumes she is guilty because of the unusual circumstances of the crime and the fact that she was suspected of murdering her husband 20 years earlier. The only person on her side is her daughter.

Selena (Jennifer Jason Leigh) Selena is a New York journalist who gravely comes back only to make sure that her mother has a decent legal representation. However, her journey back home involves re-discovering the vivid horrors of her childhood.

Dennis Taylor Hackford played out this dramatic, psychological thriller which is based on Stephen King's book. Hackford added the part of Selena for a more emotional and sometimes disturbing effect.

Delores's life, and most of the movie can be summed up in one word—depressing. Delores is completely subsumed into her relationship with her husband, Joe (David Strathairn), and to her snippy, articulate employer, Vera Donovan (Judy Parfitt). Her daughter's welfare is the driving force in Delores's life.

It is after an ugly police investigation of the death of her husband Selena develops a bad attitude toward her mother. The investigation into the death of Joe, conducted by Detective John Mackey (Christopher Plummer), is undertaken and dirty. Mackey has an agenda to close the case and put Delores away for good. His failure to do so makes him even more determined and obsessed. However, his personal prejudices towards Delores prevent him from getting to the truth.

The role of Delores was played brilliantly by the Oscar award-winning Bates. Her ability to make the transition from a young, butted woman, to a woman who has endured psychological wear and tear for 20 years is astounding. Bates makes this show, somewhat questionable storyline into a satisfying film.

The extreme gloominess of Selena's character makes her hard to appreciate. She is always whining. The chain-smoking, liquor guzzling Selena, compounded with Jennifer Jason Leigh's poxy face, seriously dehumanizes her character.

Stephen King (The Stand/It) did a good job in the role of Joe. However, his character was so evil and twisted that it was painful to watch. Joe is an idiot that deserves nothing, especially the son (Big Tom, the owner of Callahan Auto Parts, which employs the son of Big Tom, the owner of Callahan Auto Parts, which employs him) who gets whatever he wants.

"Delores Claiborne" is one movie that I would love to forget. The story is predictable, and it is full of cliches. The movie can be summed up in one word—boring.

Despite this, the outstanding performances by Kathy Bates make "Delores Claiborne" something to consider.

Selena (Jennifer Jason Leigh)

Selena is a New York journalist who gravely comes back only to make sure that her mother has a decent legal representation. However, her journey back home involves re-discovering the vivid horrors of her childhood.

Dennis Taylor Hackford played out this dramatic, psychological thriller which is based on Stephen King's book. Hackford added the part of Selena for a more emotional and sometimes disturbing effect.

Delores's life, and most of the movie can be summed up in one word—depressing. Delores is completely subsumed into her relationship with her husband, Joe (David Strathairn), and to her snippy, articulate employer, Vera Donovan (Judy Parfitt). Her daughter's welfare is the driving force in Delores's life.

It is after an ugly police investigation of the death of her husband Selena develops a bad attitude toward her mother. The investigation into the death of Joe, conducted by Detective John Mackey (Christopher Plummer), is undertaken and dirty. Mackey has an agenda to close the case and put Delores away for good. His failure to do so makes him even more determined and obsessed. However, his personal prejudices towards Delores prevent him from getting to the truth.

The role of Delores was played brilliantly by the Oscar award-winning Bates. Her ability to make the transition from a young, butted woman, to a woman who has endured psychological wear and tear for 20 years is astounding. Bates makes this show, somewhat questionable storyline into a satisfying film.

The extreme gloominess of Selena's character makes her hard to appreciate. She is always whining. The chain-smoking, liquor guzzling Selena, compounded with Jennifer Jason Leigh's poxy face, seriously dehumanizes her character.

Stephen King (The Stand/It) did a good job in the role of Joe. However, his character was so evil and twisted that it was painful to watch. Joe is an idiot that deserves nothing, especially the son (Big Tom, the owner of Callahan Auto Parts, which employs him) who gets whatever he wants.

"Delores Claiborne" is one movie that I would love to forget. The story is predictable, and it is full of cliches. The movie can be summed up in one word—boring.

Despite this, the outstanding performances by Kathy Bates make "Delores Claiborne" something to consider.

Kathy Bates stars as Delores Claiborne

MOVIE REVIEWS

'Tommy Boy' creates BIG laughs
by Scott Lamar

"Tommy Boy" is a fall-down-funny movie that will leave you wiping the tears away. It has joined the list of comedies that aim to make you laugh out of its sheer dumbness. Chris Farley and David Spade, both of Saturday Night Live alumni, make for nonstop laughter.

Farley plays Tommy Callahan, the son of Big Tom, the owner of Callahan Auto Parts, which employs him. He flails his arms about driving Mother Teresa insane, does everyone's job as a kind of hero. He teaches Delores that no matter how bad things get women can always cling to a myth—being a bitch.

This movie has its exciting moments and a fair share of death moments. Despite this, the outstanding performance by Kathy Bates makes "Delores Claiborne" something to consider.
Clark CBO to speak for Oldsponsored Speaker Series
Paul Methel, president and chief executive officer of Clark Refining & Marketing Inc., will speak at 7 p.m. April 4 in the Summer Lounge. The talk is presented by the alumni association chapter of the School of Business Administration. His topic is "The Clark Turnaround: An Entrepreneurial Approach." The talk is sponsored by Price Waterhouse LLP.

Artists To Speak and Open Gallery
Artist Kerry James Marshall will discuss his paintings of African-American life at noon April 3 in the room 229 of the J.C. Penney Building. A reception for Marshall will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. April 3 in Gallery 201, where an exhibition of his paintings will open the next day and run through April 29.

Open House at Observatory
An open house will be held at the Observatory on the South Campus at 8 p.m. April 8. Mark, Orion Nicola and the Bedrock Cluster will be viewed. In case of clouds, the open house will be held the following evening, weather permitting. The viewing session is sponsored by the University’s physics and astronomy department and the Missouri Space Grant Consortium.

Honor College To Hold Casino Night
The Farmers, Laclede Honor College Student Association, the University Program Board and the Residence Hall Association will hold a "Casino Night," an evening of make-believe gambling, from 7 to 11 p.m. April 7 at the Honor Convocation Hall. Admission is $3. Profits will be donated to the Salvation Army.

Seminar on Racial Thinking in America Today
Water Goldschmidt, professor emeritus of anthropology at the University of California, Los Angeles, will speak at 2 p.m. April 4 on "Anthropology and the Belt-Shaped Curve: Data 4 All Over Again" in room 333 of the Social Sciences and Business Building. Prologue to the Mexican Crisis Agueda Jimenez Pelayo, professor and research historian, El Colegio de Jalisco, Guadalajara, Mexico, will speak at 1 p.m. April 3 on "Mexico Over Two Decades, 1972-1993: Prologue to the Current Crisis" in room 333 of the Social Sciences and Business Building. Her talk is sponsored by the Center for International Studies and the history department.

S. Massoud Amin to Present Mathematics Seminar
Professor S. Massoud Amin, visiting assistant professor of systems sciences and applied mathematics at Washington University, will present a talk on "Computational Methods for Learning Control and Optimization" at 4 p.m. April 5 in room 312 of the Computer Center Building.

Race from page 1

...within the whole St. Louis community and male-war. "White said. "We want people to know that UMSL is a safe campus.

On the SCA ticket, Zweidfeld said Rauscher enters the race with an impressive background. "He adds to our diversity," Zweidfeld said. "He brings a bit of influence from other areas.

Rauscher, a third-year student at UMSL-St. Louis who is majoring in nursing, has been involved in many different activities on campus. He was a member of the freshman leadership council, an SGA representative during the 93-'94 school year, a Farmers-Laclede Honor College Student Association representative (93-'94), Residence Hall Association vice-president (93-'94), a Golden Key National Honor Society member and a member of the Homecoming Committee (93-'94).

Perhaps the most significant quality that Rauscher brings to the SCA ticket is his involvement with the Nursing program. Currently, Rauscher is a member of the Student Nursing Association (SNA) and a Barnes Student Congress (BSC) class representative. The SNA is a professional program set up to help students meet and talk with leaders in the field of nursing and other topics of interest. The BSC is somewhat similar to the SNA on the main campus in that it involves the student body.

Rauscher said that next year the BSC will merge with the SNA.

Living on campus is the Honor College. Rauscher leaves the needs, first of all, those living on campus.

"I hear a lot of concerns and problems that people want to see fixed," Rauscher said.

There are 170 students living in the Residence Halls, and another 400 expected for next year due to the movement of the Barnes Nursing Students over to the main campus. Rauscher feels students living on campus need to be represented.

"I see a lot of things that are changing in the field of nursing and other topics of interest to the students.

Student Government Association (SGA)
Senator chairman Stephen Gershokov noted that he was playing to the swarm of candidates and the voter turnout. "That means students are more interested in the Senate process and more interested in being a member of the Senate," Gershokov said. "The Senate is a campus-wide governing body, and students can feel that they are well represented in the Senate. Now the senators should feel that they have a responsibility to represent the students.

Both candidates are ready. The race for comptroller has officially begun.

Pam White

Pat Rauscher

Senator chairman Stephen Gershokov noted that he was playing to the swarm of candidates and the voter turnout. "That means students are more interested in the Senate process and more interested in being a member of the Senate," Gershokov said. "The Senate is a campus-wide governing body, and students can feel that they are well represented in the Senate. Now the senators should feel that they have a responsibility to represent the students.

Both candidates are ready. The race for comptroller has officially begun.

SGA students are represented by the SGA, which includes the Student Government Association (SGA) and the Student Senate. The SGA is made up of 31 students who represent all classes, all races and all interests on campus. The Student Senate is made up of 12 students who represent all classes, all races and all interests on campus. The SGA is responsible for making policy for the student body, while the Student Senate is responsible for representing the student body.

The Student Senate is made up of 12 students who represent all classes, all races and all interests on campus. The SGA is responsible for making policy for the student body, while the Student Senate is responsible for representing the student body.

The Student Senate is made up of 12 students who represent all classes, all races and all interests on campus. The SGA is responsible for making policy for the student body, while the Student Senate is responsible for representing the student body.

The Student Senate is made up of 12 students who represent all classes, all races and all interests on campus. The SGA is responsible for making policy for the student body, while the Student Senate is responsible for representing the student body.
Off the wall

by Ken Dunkin

sports editor

To the off this edition! Have all been involved in the McDonalds All-American Basketball Combine this past weekend at the Mark Twain Building.

The event was designed to give a chance for fans to interact with the stars of tomorrow. The event was a success, with crowd turnout and positive feedback from both players and fans.

The McDonalds All-American Game was held last Thursday at the Mark Twain Building.

Kevin Garnett, the center from Chicago State, was the star of the game. He shot well from the floor, but his team did not handle the physicality of the game well. The difference was clear on the court. Garnett was not willing to participate in the contest after the contest was over. After the crowd chanted his name for a minute, he walked out of the arena, and this time he did not understand the context.

The stars of tomorrow are here, and they are ready to make their mark. Garnett was a force to be reckoned with, and his exhibition in the gym was complete with hop fans who were looking for some spectacular plays by the nation's best players.

The next level is needed in this game. The accuracy contest was no joke. He knew his exhibition in the gym was complete with hop fans who were looking for some spectacular plays by the nation's best players.

The game is in dire need of these stars. The accuracy contest was no joke. He knew his exhibition in the gym was complete with hop fans who were looking for some spectacular plays by the nation's best players.

The way Garnett handled the physicality of the game was complete with hop fans who were looking for some spectacular plays by the nation's best players.

The accuracy contest was no joke. He knew his exhibition in the gym was complete with hop fans who were looking for some spectacular plays by the nation's best players.

The way Garnett handled the physicality of the game was complete with hop fans who were looking for some spectacular plays by the nation's best players.

The accuracy contest was no joke. He knew his exhibition in the gym was complete with hop fans who were looking for some spectacular plays by the nation's best players.
Several McDonald's All-American players rush Antawn Jamison last Thursday at the Mark Twain Building.

Week in review

Baseball
- March 26-Beat Missouri Southern 12-9.
- March 26-Lost to Missouri Southern 11-6.
- March 26-Beat Westminster 7-6.
- March 26-Hannibal-LaGrange Rain Out.
- March 31-Beat Southwest Baptist 11-1.
- March 31-Beat Southwest Baptist 11-3.

Softball
- March 26-Beat Bethany 16-2.
- March 26-Lost to Missouri 6-2.
- March 29-Beat St. Mary's 5-1.
- March 29-Beat SIU-Edwardsville 12-1.
- March 29-Beat SIU-Edwardsville 5-1.
- April 1-UM-Rolla Rain Out.

17.50 for a full set of nails (normalized price)

*SUNSET Tan, Inc.
Professional UVA Tanning Systems*
- Student Tan $3.50 with I.D.
- Wolf Systems
- New Bulbs

BEST NEXT TO THE BEACH!

$38 RAYS
Call for Appointment - 11629 W. Florissant

Career Placement Services
308 Woods Hall - 516-5100
Hensley from 9

do my job," said Hensley. "With our pitching staff, if I drive in three runs and someone else drives in three runs we will allow it automatically.

"Our first two hitters are really good hitters (Brady) has not batting third or fourth in the lineup. They get on base, and it is half priced tickets. When the fans like myself will be the ones winning. the Missouri fans and media. Tell me when was the last time you heard of hard work and dedication, he will continue to go to replace Hensley will make the best of his season at St. Louis, and, with hard work and dedication, he could possibly move to the next level.

"One day, hopefully, I'll be able to play major league baseball," Hensley said.

High school All-American Kevin Garnett jams during the slam dunk contest. Garnett had 16 points in the game held Sunday at The Kat. He was named Most Valuable Player in the game, and one really cares anymore.

Fans like myself will be the ones winning. the Missouri fans and media. Tell me when was the last time you heard of hard work and dedication, he will continue to go to replace Hensley will make the best of his season at St. Louis, and, with hard work and dedication, he could possibly move to the next level.

"One day, hopefully, I'll be able to play major league baseball," Hensley said.

It's One Of The Most Useful Credit Cards On The Planet. Unless You've Stolen It. Your MasterCard® is stolen. You panic. You get angry. You panic some more. Then you call and cancel it. Now the thief is in possession of, oh, about seven cents worth of stolen plastic. (Maybe he can use it as a coaster when he entertains at the hideout.) So relax. You only have to pay for stuff that you bought, and you can even get a new card the next day. It'll be accepted at millions of locations, one of which must sell wallets. MasterCard. It's more than a credit card. It's smart money.
College Life:
A Few Things To Know

KNOW: which off-campus bookstore will buy back your used $45 textbooks for more than 25¢ each.

KNOW: Which "30-minutes-or-it's-free" pizza place always takes exactly 31 minutes.

KNOW: which evil, quarter-eating laundromat machines to avoid.

KNOW THE CODE,
IT ALWAYS COSTS LESS THAN 1-800-COLLECT.

Hey, on college campuses those "in the know" are the ones who rule. And it's not just about being smart in the classroom, it's about being wise with your wallet as well. So if you want a great low price on a collect call, just dial 1 800-CALL-ATT. It always costs less than 1-800-COLLECT. Always.

There are lots of tricky things for you to learn at college, but here's something that's easy: KNOW THE CODE, and save the person on the other end some serious money. You'll be glad you did.

AT&T. Your True Voice.

* Promotions excluded. 1-800-COLLECT™ is a service mark of AT&T.