It all sounds like ethics of a flashy story is just simply not what the journalist or editor is taking in the long run.

Flash doesn’t require the kind of effort that goes into a story or an in-depth look but money is not something for looking something that finally to attract the attention of the public.

The real issue here is that truth journalism can be measured by the number of T.V. ratings. In the T.V. marketplace, there is no room for competition.

The sad thing is this is the news a precedent for the future. A member of the press with a crew of his own and more money in his eye, the failure of this could be atrocious.

They keep looking for more and more secrets and not even think about the fact of keeping them secret.

The Current is starting the search for a new editor. The editor will be elected and take office at the end of this semester.

Intermediate students should submit a resume, three letters of recommendation and cover letter to The Current (attn: Matt Forsythe 1940) has been to keep you happy at the editor of The Current? Did you ever want to kick him out of office? Well here is your chance.

The position calls for a person who is ready to manage all aspects of a weekly newspaper’s production. Previous experience in copy editing, features/newswriting and basic business administration is a plus, but is not required.

1995. Faculty now have the ability to evaluate and help students’ work in a more specific degree. Students can now be evaluated as B minus or B plus students. On the surface, incremental grading appears to have some valid points. It could prevent grade inflation. More specific grading might better evaluate student’s work.

On the other hand, giving instructions the ability to grade students with a grade or minus in a certain term. There is not much difference between B minus or B plus students. Most of the time there probably is not, but instead of trying to make a mark, one can observe the other, in the long run, the process is more difficult in looking at society.

Is your student input is integral to the success of this newspaper. We understand not everyone is interested in joining the staff, but if you think that editing provide a way to express your viewpoint to the campus community.

Pitt is a hit in ‘Legends of the Fall’

by Scott Lamar

Features editor

Brad Pitt is a lot of things in ‘Legends of the Fall’—a human, a war va- room, a cowboy, an explorer, and a ladies man. He’s all of a pi- sion than a legend. His character’s life is filled with tumult. His loved one dies and he’s too happy always is short lived. Pitt’s unprecedentedly star- performance promises this movie to be a major draw at the box office.

Pitt shines as Tristan Ludlow, the son of a Montana rancher (Anthony Hopkins). Tristan is wild, exalted, and as home in the wilderness and in the hills of his father’s ranch. As a boy he learns a hunt and the terms of his prey from an Indian named One Eye. Newman House would have

Pitt says in ‘Legends of the Fall’...
Rivermen break even over holidays

‘Sweet pickel’ Bickel improves on boards, lights up like in Rivermen debut

by Ken Dunkin
associate sports editor

The UM-St. Louis men’s basketball team rode a roller coaster of winning and losing over the semester break. First, they dropped close one-step battle to Quincy. They showed good effort, but they were only slightly netting. They were dropped into Division III Washington University. 74-84. Their record fell to 0-4.

“We feel like instead of losing 6-4, we should have 8-2,” said Head Coach Rick Mecklenburg. “We had double figures lead in the first and second half against Quincy, but we let the game away, Washington University played great, but we didn’t bring our A game.”

In their four losses the Rivermen have shown good effort, the final result just hasn’t been there. Each time we’ve felt that it was a tale a great game with a bad week winning tournament.

“If you look at the four teams we have lost to, three of them Quincy, Grand Canyon and Kentucky Wesleyan, were in National College Athletic Association tournament last season,” said Mecklenburg. “If the Missouri University a level division three teams, we play every season and occasionally their going to win.”

We’re expected to see our team on that 0-3 division. D-III Washburn was on the schedule, we were dropped of with ease. Jim Robinson had a season high 24 points as center. Bickel grabbed rebounds. The Rivermen were improved since Rivermen fall 200-136. The 1-0 was the second highest test in school history since 1973 when they scored 142.

Rivermen center Eric Bickel charges the basket in practice last week as Rodney Hawthorne takes the layup. Bickel won their first NCAA game on the road, something they didn’t accomplish last season until their final game.

With Informal straw polls were conducted by Ken Dunkin, Jordan Burton, and Rob Goedeker. Twenty-six percent of the league is a conference and 70% is a league. Plus, like New York and Los Angeles, the A$ team America. Plus, like Chicago and Detroit, hockey fans...
Six points, all of the Riverwomen were in double figures in the loss. They were led by forward Erin Lynch, who had 21 points, 11 rebounds, a steal and shot 10 of 16 from the floor.

"Eric is a good player, and he was doing a very good job in the first half," Meckfessel said. "But his shooting was off in the second half and he didn't make any shots."

Lytle missed three practices due to illness and was sick enough to miss a section of the game in the second half.

"And I think we're going to be a good team, it is a long season and we have some improving to do," said Riverwomen coach Rich Meckfessel.

"Anyone you have a freshman make the first team, you know you have a good player," said Redmond. "He made the other scorers step up, and he did a very good job while doing so."

"I don't like you to type any information on your phone," said Meckfessel.

"We're going to get the job done," said Meckfessel. "The other team is not going to average 31 points per game with us."

"We're going to get the job done," said Walters. "I don't know what's going on in some guys' heads, but it's going to be a great season."

Note: Defective items may be returned anytime. Defects must be those not associated with wear and tear, or misuse.
A Register Receipt is always required.
If students utilizing the new charge system need to return books or merchandise, cash will not be given-the amount will be deducted from the student's account.
