Department transfer to encourage better services for students, chancellor says

by Joshua Stegeman

In her State of the University Address Sept. 17, the chancellor said the Office of Multicultural Relations is moving to the Office of Student Affairs.

"This is a significant step in our efforts to enhance diversity on campus," she said. "By bringing together offices that provide services to students and staff, we can better focus on the needs of our diverse community."
Tuesday, Sept. 30
- 1.5 or 3 mile Campus Fun Run beginning at the Mark Twain Athletic Center at 12:30 p.m. Contact: Rec Sports, 5326.
- Punt, Pass and Kick Contest at the Rec Sports field from 1-5 p.m. Contact: Rec Sports, 5326.
- Biological Society Meeting in Benton 111. Interested attend one of the following: 4:30 p.m., Thu. or 1-3:30 p.m. Contact: The Biological Society, 4348.
- Wednesday, Oct. 1
  - Programs for Science Majors, information meeting for the study Abroad program in 207 SB at 9 p.m. Contact: Peggy Dobson, 6497.
  - Biological Society meeting in Benton 111. If interested attend one of the following: 4:30 p.m. or Sept. 30 at 4:30 p.m. or 7 p.m. Contact: The Biological Society, 6497.
  - GREE information meeting. The Princeton Review will give a talk on the GREE at 11:30 a.m. present by Ms. Chi.
  - Book of Revelations: Unfolding the Mystery series begins and will also take place Wednesday nights at the Herriman House from 7-9 p.m. through Nov. 16. Contact Newman House, 385-3455.

Thursday, Oct. 2
- Student Social Work Association meeting in this Lucas Hall Event College conference room (3rd floor) at 2 p.m. Contact: Beth Callahan, 5105 or a59777cum @umsl.edu.
- Martin and women's three-week Softball Mini-Leagues begin and will be played Thursday from 2-4 p.m. at the Mark Twain Rec Fields. Entry deadline is Sept. 30. Contact: Rec Sports, 5326.
- Tuesday, Oct. 7
  - Three-week Wiffleball Mini-League begins and will be played Tuesday afternoon from 2-4 p.m. in the Mark Twain gym. Entry deadline is Sept. 30. Contact: Rec Sports, 5326.
- Wednesday, Oct. 30

The Current Events Bulletin Board is a service provided free of charge to all student organizations or individuals. Deadline for submissions to The Current Events Bulletin Board is 5 p.m. every Thursday before publication. Space consideration is given to student organizations and is on a first-come, first-served basis. For best results, make all submissions in writing at least two weeks prior to the event. Send submissions to: Managing Editors, The Current, 7940 Natural Bridge Road, St. Louis, MO 63121.

Get Money from Your Uncles Instead.

by Manuel Clark Hall.

A service provided by the Campus Police. Published stories are selections from a larger list.

A student reported the theft of two checks from his or her wallet, which occurred at University Meadows Apartments. The wallet was located. Monday, Sept. 29
- Recorder and Baroque Flute Music from 18th Century England, France and Germany in the Convocation Hall of the Pierre Laclede Monroe College at 7 p.m. Contact: Karen Lucas, 5699.

Thurs., Sept. 11
A teller at Normandy Bank, located in the University Center, reported that a forgery had occurred at 7 a.m. The forgery was committed by a person working on campus.

A student reported the theft of two checks from his or her wallet, which occurred at University Meadows Apartments. The wallet was located.

Corrections
In issue 894 of The Current, UM President Manuel Olson's name was misspelled in the Microcosm创刊 article.
In issue 895 and 896, Sigma Xi Rho Trailblazer Joe Osborne was misquoted when described the fraternity's "Silly Legs" competition. The correct quote should have read: "This is not a typical 1960s fraternal party."

The Current apologizes for these errors and any confusion they may have caused.

Meet The Current on the Web

To advertise in the Current, contact the Editor at 935-5257.

DOUG HARRISON
editor in chief
BRIAN BOLTON
managing editor
PAMELA business manager
ROBIN Wall
advertising director
JULIE LAVINEL
public relations
DAVID BAGGGER
web editor
ROBERT FRICKER
editor in chief
KIM DAVIS
editor in chief
ETHAN COOK
photography director
VERONICA DELEBUECHER
editor
WENDY JEFFREYS
web editor
MATTHEW JOHNSON
associate editor
TIMUSIUS
proofreader
STEPHANIE
proofreader
CAROLYN
proofreader
THE CURRENTUITED COLLEGE COURSE YOU CAN TAKE
Spend 20 hours a week reading current events, doing homework, and studying, and you qualify. These merit-based scholarships can help you pay tuition and educational costs.

THE CURRENT
smarTEST COLLEGE COURSE YOU CAN TAKE
Spend 20 hours a week reading current events, doing homework, and studying, and you qualify. These merit-based scholarships can help you pay tuition and educational costs.

Why you want a fund that selects specific stocks, or one that covers the market, we're on the same page. Our CREF Growth and CREF Equity Index Accounts use two distinct strategies investing in the stock market, but both aim to provide what every smart investor looks for: long-term growth that outpaces inflation.

The CREF Growth Account seeks for individual companies that we believe are poised for superior growth. In contrast, the CREF Equity Index Account seeks for a well-diversified, with a portfolio that seeks to reflect the experience of the U.S. stock market as a whole. Like our CREF Stock Account, the largest totally managed equity fund in America and our Global Equity Account, which actively seeks opportunities worldwide, our accounts are managed by investment professionals. They're the same experts who have helped make TIAA-CREF the largest pension system in the world, with $288 billion in assets under management.

To find out more about building your portfolio—and your future—with TIAA-CREF, call us at 1-800-942-3776. And take your pick.

Visit us on the Internet at www.tiaa-cref.org

The Current is a public weekly on the Missouri University of Science and Technology campus. The Current is published on Mondays and is distributed free to all students, faculty, and staff. Copyright 2000 by MCM, Inc. All rights reserved. Written content cannot be republished or redistributed in any way without permission from The Current. All news is generated and/or written by student reporters or editors. The Current accepts original content, photos, video, or artwork. Submit works to: The Current, 7940 Natural Bridge Road, St. Louis, MO 63121.
Volunteer program to begin next month

by Mary Lindsey

According to the librarian, the new program will see some opportunities available through the Office of Student Activities.

Rick Blunt, interim director of Student Activities, plans to make a program that will match incarcerated students with organizations that use college volunteers. The program is set to begin in mid-October.

Blunt said most of the volunteer opportunities currently available involve reading to children from those dorms by campus organizations. “Again, there’s a niche that needs to be filled,” Blunt said. “That’s for the individual who’s not involved in a student organization, not a part of a fraternity or sorority, and interested in community service but needs the opportunity to find out.”

Program participants will be able to meet with a staff member to discuss their interest and the availability with a variety of opportunities.

The program will initially consist of over 100 organizations, including organizations that host events for their volunteer efforts, along with “the coalition’s ongoing group, with the others large community support agencies,” Blunt said.

---

At a glance

TJ Library: Volumes: 750,000 Value: $50 million Depository: bank deposits to: 200,000: 60 to 56 Specialties: metro area’s largest govt documents collection

UPB Library: Volumes: 200,000 Value: $5 million Volumes coming to UM-St Louis: 10 Specialties: 150 years ok some of the rarest collections in the Midwest

---

Oppose, from page 3

King’s need for more people to be involved in the program, but we close to open it and a variety of opportunities. He added that he hopes to be able to match students with organizations that use college volunteers as well.

---

Services, from page 1

"We were going to interview two or three more people today.

Unfortunately... the people were just not available right now.

Sharon Hopkins, president of the University Program Board, has 11 members and the board has filled 11 of 12 spots for going to work. "We were interviewing two or three more people today," said Hopkins. "Unfortunately, that’s w-h-a-t we had today. The people were just not available right now.

According to the UPB constitution, the purpose of the organization is “to present a varied series of educational, social, cultural, recreational, and amusement programs.”

The 11-member board makes this decision in collaboration with various departments and organizations.

While there are several programs that are set to begin in the fall, some of the larger programs include the student program board, which is responsible for organizing various events on campus.

"We’re going to be working with various departments and organizations to determine the fall schedule," Hopkins said. "We’re going to work with various departments and organizations to determine the fall schedule.

Hopkins added that the board is currently working on planning various events for the fall semester.

"We’re going to have various events set up for the fall semester," Hopkins said. "We’re going to have various events set up for the fall semester.

---

UPB plan's year activities, continues focus on recruitment, diversity

Board remains 4 members short of 15-member capacity

UPB holds meetings every Thursday at 3:30 p.m. in room 266 of the University Center.

---

Get in touch with our interviewers!

Getting to be a Doctor of Chiropractic is more than just choosing a profession. It’s truly the beginning of a new path for helping patients and changing lives. At CLEVELAND Chiropractic College, we are dedicated to preparing the next generation of chiropractors to meet the needs of our community.

In the first step toward our future as an independent healthcare professional, you will need the admission packet, so call And so..."
The Current

Opinion/Editorial

Your response is an important part of the weekly debate on this page. We have included this page for no other purpose than to get your feedback. We will edit for clarity, length, and grammar. All responses will be accompanied by your name and daytime telephone number.

As my path diverges the choices get harder

Friday's been in school now for almost 17 years. The second far more pragmatic and frightening real­ issue is that I'm rapidly approaching a fork in the path you will come, you never having had the means of education or get on the gravy train of gainful employment.

Get a job and get a girl, Ted Nugent sang. I have the harbor.

Thing is, I like school. Of course I don't get much for my efforts, I don't get a raise every time I get off work that afternoon and I was going to go home and sleep. It's not good news for the aspiring literary critic.

Can't sleep, I'm about ready to retire but that's my own fault, I don't need to be making someone else's life miserable by hurting them with the main details of my daily experiences.

Oh yes, I heard that phrase so many times that semester that I

So anyway. The point is that residents pay $8,000 a year to live here. And that home may be a quarter mile from the pattern of their schools.

Old Bhoy: "Get a haircut and a get a real job, Ted Nugent sang. I have the harbor."

One percent pays for the luxury car and the second and third percent pays for the need cars. At some point, everyone pays for the need cars. I heard that phrase so many times that semester that I

Every year I go to the floor and break out into convulsions every night, to get to and from their homes. And the professor, I was going to go home and sleep. It's not good news for the aspiring literary critic.

Can't sleep, I'm about ready to retire but that's my own fault, I don't need to be making someone else's life miserable by hurting them with the main details of my daily experiences.

Oh yes, I heard that phrase so many times that semester that I

So anyway. The point is that residents pay $8,000 a year to live here. And that home may be a quarter mile from the pattern of their schools.

Old Bhoy: "Get a haircut and a get a real job, Ted Nugent sang. I have the harbor."

One percent pays for the luxury car and the second and third percent pays for the need cars. At some point, everyone pays for the need cars. I heard that phrase so many times that semester that I

Every year I go to the floor and break out into convulsions every night, to get to and from their homes. And the professor, I was going to go home and sleep. It's not good news for the aspiring literary critic.

Can't sleep, I'm about ready to retire but that's my own fault, I don't need to be making someone else's life miserable by hurting them with the main details of my daily experiences.

Oh yes, I heard that phrase so many times that semester that I

So anyway. The point is that residents pay $8,000 a year to live here. And that home may be a quarter mile from the pattern of their schools.

Old Bhoy: "Get a haircut and a get a real job, Ted Nugent sang. I have the harbor."

One percent pays for the luxury car and the second and third percent pays for the need cars. At some point, everyone pays for the need cars. I heard that phrase so many times that semester that I

Every year I go to the floor and break out into convulsions every night, to get to and from their homes. And the professor, I was going to go home and sleep. It's not good news for the aspiring literary critic.

Can't sleep, I'm about ready to retire but that's my own fault, I don't need to be making someone else's life miserable by hurting them with the main details of my daily experiences.

Oh yes, I heard that phrase so many times that semester that I

So anyway. The point is that residents pay $8,000 a year to live here. And that home may be a quarter mile from the pattern of their schools.

Old Bhoy: "Get a haircut and a get a real job, Ted Nugent sang. I have the harbor."

One percent pays for the luxury car and the second and third percent pays for the need cars. At some point, everyone pays for the need cars. I heard that phrase so many times that semester that I

Every year I go to the floor and break out into convulsions every night, to get to and from their homes. And the professor, I was going to go home and sleep. It's not good news for the aspiring literary critic.

Can't sleep, I'm about ready to retire but that's my own fault, I don't need to be making someone else's life miserable by hurting them with the main details of my daily experiences.

Oh yes, I heard that phrase so many times that semester that I

So anyway. The point is that residents pay $8,000 a year to live here. And that home may be a quarter mile from the pattern of their schools.

Old Bhoy: "Get a haircut and a get a real job, Ted Nugent sang. I have the harbor."

One percent pays for the luxury car and the second and third percent pays for the need cars. At some point, everyone pays for the need cars. I heard that phrase so many times that semester that I

Every year I go to the floor and break out into convulsions every night, to get to and from their homes. And the professor, I was going to go home and sleep. It's not good news for the aspiring literary critic.

Can't sleep, I'm about ready to retire but that's my own fault, I don't need to be making someone else's life miserable by hurting them with the main details of my daily experiences.

Oh yes, I heard that phrase so many times that semester that I

So anyway. The point is that residents pay $8,000 a year to live here. And that home may be a quarter mile from the pattern of their schools.

Old Bhoy: "Get a haircut and a get a real job, Ted Nugent sang. I have the harbor."

One percent pays for the luxury car and the second and third percent pays for the need cars. At some point, everyone pays for the need cars. I heard that phrase so many times that semester that I

Every year I go to the floor and break out into convulsions every night, to get to and from their homes. And the professor, I was going to go home and sleep. It's not good news for the aspiring literary critic.

Can't sleep, I'm about ready to retire but that's my own fault, I don't need to be making someone else's life miserable by hurting them with the main details of my daily experiences.

Oh yes, I heard that phrase so many times that semester that I

So anyway. The point is that residents pay $8,000 a year to live here. And that home may be a quarter mile from the pattern of their schools.

Old Bhoy: "Get a haircut and a get a real job, Ted Nugent sang. I have the harbor."

One percent pays for the luxury car and the second and third percent pays for the need cars. At some point, everyone pays for the need cars. I heard that phrase so many times that semester that I

Every year I go to the floor and break out into convulsions every night, to get to and from their homes. And the professor, I was going to go home and sleep. It's not good news for the aspiring literary critic.

Can't sleep, I'm about ready to retire but that's my own fault, I don't need to be making someone else's life miserable by hurting them with the main details of my daily experiences.

Oh yes, I heard that phrase so many times that semester that I

So anyway. The point is that residents pay $8,000 a year to live here. And that home may be a quarter mile from the pattern of their schools.

Old Bhoy: "Get a haircut and a get a real job, Ted Nugent sang. I have the harbor."

One percent pays for the luxury car and the second and third percent pays for the need cars. At some point, everyone pays for the need cars. I heard that phrase so many times that semester that I

Every year I go to the floor and break out into convulsions every night, to get to and from their homes. And the professor, I was going to go home and sleep. It's not good news for the aspiring literary critic.

Can't sleep, I'm about ready to retire but that's my own fault, I don't need to be making someone else's life miserable by hurting them with the main details of my daily experiences.
Tucked away in the depths of Lucas Hall students will find a hidden treasure: by Peter Schrappe

GALLERY 210

The reading began at 7pm last Monday (Oct. 11) at Lucas Hall 210. At least 30 people attended. The focus was on contemporary poetry. The audience responded very well to my performance, and lasted for about two hours. The attendees included students, faculty, and someone who has never had a poetry reading before. The reading included many different types of poetry, from limericks to sonnets. The students were enthusiastic and engaged, and the environment was very relaxed.

The authors of the poetry shared their thoughts and ideas with the audience, and the students were able to ask questions and receive feedback. The atmosphere was very positive and encouraging, and everyone was happy to be a part of it.

The reading continued for about two hours, and everyone had a great time. The students were very receptive to the poetry, and there were a lot of enthusiastic responses. The audience was eager to learn more about poetry and the importance of literature.

The next poetry reading will be held on Wednesday, November 14th at 7pm in the same location. Everyone is welcome to attend and participate in the reading. For more information, please contact the Poetry Club at 516-5174 or email them at poetryclub@usl.edu.
Silverstone steps aside to let co-star shine in *Excess Baggage

Excess Baggage

Columbia Pictures

First, there is a kidnapping. Then, a real kidnapping occurs reminiscent to the kidnapping. Next, there is a fire and yet another kidnapping. Lastly, there is love, of course. This may sound scattered because Excess Baggage is just that, scattered.

The scenery and cinematography are reason enough to spend three bucks at a matinee. The acting only veers its ugly head a few times. In fact, the lead characters are annoying until the plot thickens. The believable roles of Emily Silverstone, Vincent (Benicio Del Toro) steal the BMW containing Emily and Vincent, traits to which people might relate.

Excess Baggage is not a film aimed at the box office, but a film aimed at the box or normal sense of humor. You must watch this film with an open mind because it offers a fresh perspective on the Generation X dating fantasy.

---

Movie Review

Smashing your expectations

Newest release from alternative band not so great

Smash Mouth

Fush U/Mang

Interscope Records

The new release from Smash Mouth on Interscope Records is somewhat of a disappointment. The hit single, “Walkin’ On The Sun,” is the only song on the entire album that is not Green Day punk.

With songs about the Fonz and a neighbor who realized he had no message, they might persuade the audience. The music that grated on my nerves was “Looking For A Dollar” on the album. I felt I was listening to The Bloodhound Gang.

If you happened to catch them recently at Mississippi Nights playing with Sugar Ray, I distinctly want to extend my apologies, I almost thought his timing to the record. Who knows, they might perform a spectacular show! New wave, I doubt it.

---

Music Review

Homecoming ‘97

“The Dance”

Regal Riverfront Hotel

October 11, 1997 7:30 pm - 12:00 am Dinner Starts at 8:00

Semi-Formal Attire

Cost: $12.50/one $20/two $90/table of 10

Tickets on Sale at 267 University Center and 262 University Center

The Games

Saturday Oct. 11, 1997

Women’s Soccer Riverrwomen vs. Quincy

Game Time - 12:00pm

Men’s Soccer Rivermen vs. Quincy

Game Time - 2:30pm

Both Games at Don Dallas Stadium and are Free for Students!

Questions?

Call 516-5105

---

The Court

Elections

Elections for Homecoming Court Will Be Held During The Week of Homecoming Monday through Thursday.

The Homecoming Court will be announced at half-time of the Men’s Soccer game on the 11th.

The King and Queen will be announced at The Dance

Sign Up Today.

---
One-on-one with MU-St. Louis student paper editor.

That's it. You won't get to go to the gym.

That's it. You won't get to take advantage of these school's money and run with it.

So what are your plans now, the University will have a day on the campus. Lord knows that you should be able to. Lunch time resting and relaxing. Those are the main events of the day. Just get on the bus and go back to the dorm and find something to do still have enrollment space out and enjoy the last breath of everything.

This is Division-I football and has to offer. This will be a great opportunity to appreciate health, to appreciate life.

New coach wants to appreciate life, to appreciate health, to appreciate what he/she has to offer.

The match marks the first time since 1994 that

One has the potential to make this jump successful. The defense will lack size, but the players. The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.

The players.
Rec Sports introduces new, free events

by Ken Dunkin

Rec Sports and the Office of Student Activities have two new events set to kick off in October. The first is a take-off along the Katy Trail; the second is a soccer head-to-head.

Katy Trailive

The events are free to students and open to the general public. Both events will be held on October 22. More information will be released at a later date.

Soccer Head-to-Head

The soccer head-to-head will be held on October 29 at 7:30 p.m. at the UMSL Soccer Field. The event will feature the UMSL Rivermen vs. the UM-St. Louis Tritons.

Injuries, player slumps continue to plague Rivermen soccer

by Ken Dunkin

The men’s soccer team has had a tough time against early-season opponents. The team has struggled with scoring and consistency.

The Rivermen were shut out by UMSL in their season opener on September 15. The team has only scored two goals in their first two games.

UM-St. Louis University Center

The Rivermen will try to improve their conference record when they travel to Northern Kentucky and Bellarmine on September 27 and October 3.

According to Silvers, the team is working hard to improve.

“Nothing is going to go wrong this year,” he said. “We are going to work hard and make sure we have the best team in the conference.”

Silvers said the Rivermen are still working on their chemistry.

“We are still trying to get our chemistry together,” he said. “We are still trying to work on our chemistry.”

The Rivermen are looking to improve their conference record in their upcoming matches.

Please note: This article is a summary of the information provided. For more details, please refer to the original source.
New players should strengthen volleyball team

by Ken Danick

With six newcomers and a squad due in hungry for victory the Riverwomen volleyball team will look to add to last season’s game record. While the Riverwomen luck depth at many positions they will have quality players all around the field.

Forwards
Came Marin-Marinino will be a huge key to the offensive attack as she was last season. She was an All-Region selection after scoring 17 goals and 10 assists for a 44 point total. She will be expected to be an offensive force once again. Jenny Smolinski-A talented player that should step into a starting role in her freshman year.

Middlefielders
Beth Ernst-Beth is one of the best players in the country. After sitting out several years after leaving Michigan State Ernst led the Riverwomen to one of their best seasons ever. She became the second player in school history to score over 20 goals and amassed 51 points. She was also an All-America selection.

Soccer, from page 5
consider it a necessity. If the Riverwomen are going to play quality soccer and return with a winning record, Redmond said the team’s attack and overall midfield play will have to improve.

With our attack, we are creating shots but not finishing,” Redmond said. "With our midfield play, we need more leadership there, but we are working hard to improve.”

Redmond added that the team works on its strengths and weaknesses continuously in practice, and he said he is excited about his new arrivals. "This team will raise expectations each week, and since we accomplished a lot in our first game, I am real anxious to see how this team responds," he said.

"I think we will get beyond that and have another good season."
The Current

NEWswire

The St. Louis Mercantile Library at UM-St. Louis will host its monthly Lunch & Lecture from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Wednesday in the Summit Lounge. The featured speaker will be author of "Author Fanz - a Musical Pioneer." Tickets are $10 for Mercantile Library members and $12.50 for others. Call 621-0670 for more information.

Joyce Mushaben, associate professor of political science, will serve on a panel discussing "Gender, Before and After the Vote?" at 5:30 p.m. Thursday in the Summit Lounge. The panel will feature Freya C. German, writer and filmmaker, and Jim Kirchen, KETC Channel 9 news producer.

Interested faculty and staff are invited to attend a meeting Oct. 13 at 2 p.m. in Rem 200 to discuss various University initiatives, including the Performing Arts Center.

Kyongho Oh, assistant professor of mathematics and computer science, will discuss "String Theory and Mirror Symmetry" at 4 p.m. Wednesday in Room 302/304 of the Computer Center Building. The colloquium is sponsored by the mathematics and computer science department. Call 5743 for details.

The Newman House, 8200 Natural Bridge, will host a weekly, in-depth presentation titled "Book of Revelations: Unfolding the Mystery" beginning at 7 p.m. Wednesday and ending Wednesday, Nov. 19. For more information, call 385-3455.

Candidates for the next student representative to the UM Board of Curators were announced Friday by Joyce Wagner, Patricia Grant, Thomas Cole, Tracy Carpenter, Bruce Archayo, Steven Renfro, Gary Welch, Karen Sieve, M. Erle Myers, Dan Vasay, Joshua Stegeman, Bob Fritchey, Jim Avery and Kim Hudson. Watch The Current next week for more details about each candidate.

Contact David Baugh at 518-574 to submit items for Newswire.

---

Students praise career days

by Becky Zajacik

spoke to The Current.

Many employers and UM-St. Louis students said good things about the Fall Fair sponsored by Career Services.

UM-St. Louis alumni and MIS majors, Carl Smith, said he was "very impressed" and praised Career Services for "opening the door to corporate America." Smith said he talked to three companies that he believed were good job prospects.

UM-St. Louis alumni, Dan Little, went to the fair seeking a job with advancement opportunities. He said many companies seemed to be looking for interns, but he was pleased they were willing to sponsor him in their Human Resources Department.

Many employers were pleased by the fair as well.

Marshall Holley, a representative for New Horizons, a computer training firm, called the fair "well-organized."

"The students were great," he said. Jerry Elshas, Human Resources representative for DelMar Health Center, said the candidates presented themselves well, and he hopes they will keep DelMar in mind when they graduate.

The Fall Fair was Career Services' first major recruiting event of the school year. Career Services Director Debbie Kitele said most employers voiced "pretty happy" about the fair.

Kitele said the coming fall fair is a very good year. As a result of the fall, some companies plan to use the Career Services website to post future job openings. Kitele said more than 500 students attended the event.

---

Contact David Baugh at 518-574 to submit items for Newswire.