Wilma Calvert, Nursing, was awarded $39,001 for the project “Health Promotion Practices in Black Noncustodial Fathers.”

Louis Gerteis, History, was awarded $11,364 for the project “The Civil War in Missouri.”

David Kimball, Political Science, was awarded $6,900 for the project “Controversies in Voting Behavior.”

Edward Lawrence, Business, was awarded $5,000 for the project “The Economics of Consumer Behavior for Payday Loans.”

Guogiang Li, Optometry, was awarded $85,000 for the project “Special Opportunity Grant: A new approach for vision correction using tunable lens.”

Haitao Li, Business, was awarded $23,800 for the project “New Models and Algorithms for Stochastic Resource-Constrained Project Scheduling.”

Nevenia Maric, Mathematics and Computer Sciences, was awarded $13,000 for the project “Stochastic models with spatial constraints.”

John Meriac, Psychology, was awarded $15,900 for the project “Beyond Cognitive Tests and GPA: Work Ethic in the Academic Environment.”

Joyce Mushaben, Political Science, was awarded $6,064 for the project “‘Ms-Underestimating’ Madam Chancellor: Angela Merkel and the Berlin Republic.”

Andres Rengifo, Criminology and Criminal Justice, was awarded $39,517 for the project “Dynamics of Crime, Order and Disorder.”

Kurt Schreyer, English, was awarded $10,000 for the project “Banning Shakespeare: Sixteenth-Century Histories of Early English Drama.”

Teresa Thiel, Biology, was awarded $46,350 for the project “A genetic approach to maximizing solar biohydrogen production in Anabaena.”

Eric Wiland, Philosophy, was awarded $15,000 for the project “Reasons.”

Amy Zanne, Biology, was awarded $49,940 for the project “Xylem longevity, leaf longevity: interconnections between stems and leaves.”

Total Awarded: $366,836