* Students pursuing a Bachelor of Arts in History at UMSL must complete three levels of coursework in a Foreign Language. At STLCC, a student can complete all three of these levels in French, German, and Spanish though the completion of one of the following sequences of courses: FRE 101, FRE 102, and FRE 201; GER 101, GER 102, and GER 201; or SPA 101, SPA 102, and SPA 201. Alternatively, a student can complete the first two levels of a Japanese sequence at STLCC with JPN 101 and JPN 102, but would need to complete the third level at UMSL after transferring. Lastly, a student can complete the first two levels of an Italian sequence at STLCC with ITL 103 and ITL 104. However, UMSL does not offer coursework in Italian and so the student would then need to complete the third level of Italian with another institution.

Students that plan to transfer to UMSL to pursue a Bachelor of Arts in History but do not wish to complete an Associates degree at STLCC should focus on completing the Highlighted Courses above in conjunction with those outlined in the STLCC General Education Transfer Guide.
