* The UMSL Bachelor of Arts in Modern Language: Concentration in Japanese requires a student to complete a Japanese course every semester for eight semesters to be able to graduate in four years. STLCC does offer two semesters coursework in Japanese. However, if a student were to complete an Associate in Arts degree with only these courses and then transfer, they would still have three years to go to graduate. Therefore, it is recommended that a student begin attending UMSL through dual enrollment while working on their Associates and take an UMSL Japanese course in their third and fourth semesters. These courses can then be transferred back to STLCC to apply as Electives in this Associates program and the student will be able to graduate with their Bachelors degree in four years.

Students that plan to transfer to UMSL to pursue a Bachelor of Arts in Modern Language: Concentration in Japanese but do not wish to complete an Associates degree at STLCC should focus on completing the Highlighted Courses above in conjunction with those outlined in the STLCC General Education Transfer Guide.
