

Criminology & Criminal Justice Newsletter Fall 07

ANNOUNCEMENTS

New CCJ Faculty

The department is happy to welcome three new tenure-track assistant professors. Kristin Carbone-Lopez received her Ph.D. in Sociology from the University of Minnesota in 2006. Her research considers the intersection of gender, crime and victimization, with a particular emphasis on violence between intimate partners. Kristin has a joint appointment with the Institute for Women and Gender Studies.

Lee Ann Slocum received her Ph.D. in Criminology and Criminal Justice from the University of Maryland in 2007. Her research focuses on intra-individual change and stability in offending and substance use over time, with a specific emphasis on understanding the role of stressors in the process. She is also interested in the study of person-environment interactions and selection processes, intergenerational patterns of antisocial behavior, and research methodology.

Andres Rengifo received his Ph.D. in Criminal Justice from the City University of New York (CUNY) Graduate Center - John Jay College in 2007. His research focuses primarily on communities and crime, emphasizing the linkages between neighborhood effects, social networks, and informal controls. Andres' current areas of interest include the study of incarceration and reentry using network simulation as well as the development of a network-based approach to measure local processes of social integration.

Faculty Awards

Richard Rosenfeld was promoted to the rank of Curator's Professor. A Curators' Professorship is the highest and most prestigious academic rank awarded by the Board of Curators of the University of Missouri. It is awarded to a select few "outstanding scholars with established reputations."

Jody Miller will be awarded the Chancellor's award for Excellence in Service. This Award recognizes and honors outstanding academic, humanitarian, or professional service on the campus and/or beyond the boundaries of the University. The award ceremony will be held on September 18, 2007 in the JC Penney Conference Center. Jody will also be honored at the Annual Founders dinner held on September 25th at the Ritz-Carlton.

(Dr. Jody Miller is featured in the far left of the photograph with the other recipients of Chancellor's Awards)

Dave Curry, Beth Huebner, Dave Klinger, and Jody Miller were awarded the UM-St. Louis Meritorious Service Award from Office of Disability Access Services.

Jennifer Cobbina will be awarded the American Society of Criminology Graduate Fellowship for Ethnic Minorities.

Special Appointments

Jody Miller and Dave Curry have been appointed Program Committee Co-Chairs for the 2008 Annual Meeting of the American Society of Criminology Annual Meetings to be held in St. Louis, Missouri.

Richard Wright was named the new editor of the British Journal of Sociology in April, 2007. The editorial term is six years.

Employment News

Chris Melde, Ph.D. accepted an Assistant Professor position at Michigan State University.

• Students who plan on graduating in December 2007 or May 2008 should have already filed an M-1 Form (Program for Master's Degree) with the Graduate School. MA students should contact their faculty advisor if they have any questions about anticipated graduation dates. Students should contact M.A. Graduate Director David Klinger to confirm their graduation date. The M-1 Form (and all other Graduate School Forms) are available on-line. Go to "Rules and Regulations" under the UMSL Graduate School web page to find the forms.

Ph.D. PROGRAM NEWS

New Ph.D. Students

WELCOME to Ethan Amidon (B.A., University of Maryland), Ekaterina Archakova (M.A., University of Missouri-St. Louis), Dena Carson (M.A., University of South Florida), Krystle Leugoud (B.A., University of Missouri-Columbia), Natalie Metz (M.A., Southern Illinois University-Carbondale), Breanne Pleggenkuhle (B.A., Wartburg College), and Kaitlin Rayne (B.A., University of Denver).

New Ph.D.s

Congratulations to Chris Melde for successfully defending his dissertation. Dr. Melde's dissertation is entitled, "Peer-Group Composition and the Perceived Risk of Victimization: Modeling Fear of Crime in a School-Based Sample". The chair of his committee is Finn Esbensen.

Congratulations to Rob Fornango for successfully defending his dissertation. Dr. Fornango's dissertation is entitled, "Structural Changes and Neighborhood Homicide Trends in St. Louis, Missouri, 1980 – 2000: A Multi-Level and Spatial Analysis". The chair of his committee is Richard Rosenfeld.

New ABDs

Congratulations to Robin Schaum for successfully defending her dissertation proposal. Ms. Schaum's project is entitled, "The Marriage Certificate as a Shield? The Role of Marital Status and Violent Victimization". The chair of her committee is Janet Lauritsen.

New Ph.D. Candidates

Congratulations to Jennifer Cobbina and Mark Berg for successfully completing the comprehensive exams. Graduate students are designated "Ph.D. Candidates" after they have completed coursework and exams.

Dissertation Deadlines

In order to receive the Ph.D. by the end of this semester, ABDs must be ready to submit a copy of their dissertation in "essentially final form" to the Graduate School six weeks prior to the end of the semester. Students who plan to receive the Ph.D. by May 2008 must have their dissertation completed by April 1st. Finally, students who plan to complete their degree by the end of this academic year must have completed the dissertation by July 1st. Remember, you must be enrolled in the semester in which you defend your dissertation. Also, be aware that summer graduations are much more difficult to coordinate because of faculty research obligations. Be sure to plan ahead.

Comprehensive Exams

The Winter 2008 comprehensive exams will take place on December 6th-8th. Students who plan to take their exams should confirm their place with Rick Rosenfeld, the chair of the Ph.D. program.

Professional Development Seminars

Attendance at professional development seminars is required for all Ph.D. students.
