

Driving Directions to the Center for Transportation Studies

If you are coming from St. Charles County, take I-70 east to Florissant Road (exit 240). Merge right onto Florissant Road and proceed south to Bellerive Drive (If you pass under an old railroad bridge, you have gone too far south on Florissant). Turn right on Bellerive and continue on East Drive until you go down an incline and see a fountain on your right. Turn right at the fountain. Parking Lot C will be on your right. You may park anywhere in this lot.

Walk west toward J C Penny building. You will see a long set of steps (20 to be exact). When you get to the top and enter the building, you will turn right in to the lobby area (There are airplanes hanging from the ceiling). Turn right again up one flight of steps (7), then left and you will be in the Center.

If you are coming from Downtown St. Louis, take I-70 west to Lucas and Hunt Road going south. Then, turn right on to Natural Bridge Road. The campus will be about a mile on your right. Please turn into the main entrance of the campus, and follow the other directions. Follow the road which turns to the right, but stay in the left lane. After the second stop sign, you will see JC Penny Bldg on your left. Past that is a fountain. Please turn left immediately after the fountain. Stay to your right, and Parking lot C will be on your right. You may park anywhere in this lot.

Walk west toward the J C Penny Building. You will see a long set of steps (20 to be exact). When you get to the top and enter the building, you will turn right in to the lobby area (There are airplanes hanging from the ceiling). Turn right again up one flight of steps (7), then left and you will be in the Center.

If you are coming from I-170 north or south, go east on Natural Bridge Road. There are two entrances to the University's North Campus. Please turn left at the second entrance. Follow the road which turns to the right, but stay in the left lane. After the second stop sign, you will see JC Penny Bldg on your left. Past that is a fountain. Please turn left immediately after the fountain. Stay to your right, and Parking lot C will be on your right. You may park anywhere in this lot.

Walk west toward the J C Penny building. You will see a long set of steps (20 to be exact). When you get to the top and enter the building, you will turn right in to the lobby area (There are airplanes hanging from the ceiling). Turn right again up one flight of steps (7), then left and you will be in the Center.

If you are taking Metrolink from the airport, take an Eastbound train to the UMSL North station. Upon exiting the platform walk to the right and enter the Millennium Student Center (approximately 200 yards across Parking Lot E). Pass through the student center and cross the glass enclosed pedestrian bridge. Walk left across the central quad area to the far end until the library. Then follow the pavement on the left which leads to J C Penny building. Enter the doors facing the east. Walk up the first stairs on left hand side and the Center for Transportation Studies is on the second level.

If you have questions, please call 314-516-7270.