

Department of Economics Course Offerings – Summer Semester 2010

College of Arts and Sciences — One University Blvd., 408 Social Sciences Building, St. Louis, MO 63121-4400, 314-516-5353

The department of economics is pleased to be offering the following courses during the summer semester 2010. Please note that all students must contact an advisor before registering for classes. Students will also need an advisor's signature for courses requiring special consent and to be admitted to "closed" sections. Some courses also require prerequisites that must be met prior to registration of said course (see The Bulletin at <http://www.umsl.edu/bulletin/as/economics.html> for more information).

A minimum grade of C- is necessary to satisfy any course prerequisite. Also, seniors with an overall GPA 3.25 may enroll in 5000 level courses; however, a special permission form signed by the Director of Graduate Studies is required.

ECONOMICS

Course		CR-HR	REF	DAY	TIME	INSTRUCTOR
1000	Introduction to the American Economy
	SESSION I 5/17/10-6/12/10	3	11902	MTWR	9:00-11:30	EDWARDS
1000	Introduction to the American Economy
	SESSION V 6/14/10-8/7/10	3	10248	TR	5:30-8:00	FEDAK
1001	Principles of Microeconomics
	SESSION II 6/14/10-7/10/10	3	10249	MTWR	9:00-11:30	EDWARDS
	SESSION V 6/14/10-8/7/10	3	10250	MW	5:30-8:00	SANDERS
1002	Principles of Macroeconomics
	SESSION III 7/12/10-8/7/10	3	10251	MTWR	9:00-11:30	FEDAK
	SESSION V 6/14/10-8/7/10	3	10252	TR	5:30-8:00	SANDERS
1003	Microeconomics in the News: A Virtual	1	10253	ARR	ARR	ROGERS
This course uses a virtual chatroom to host one-hour discussion weekly about current events with microeconomic content. News articles will focus on business, public policy, and individual choices that can be understood within a microeconomics framework. Chatroom can be accessed from any location - on or off-campus - with internet access.
1004	Macroeconomics in the News: A Virtual	1	10254	ARR	ARR	SORENSEN
This course uses a virtual chatroom to host one-hour discussion weekly about current news events with macroeconomic content. News articles will focus on macroeconomic phenomena - e.g., interest rates, the global economy, the Federal Reserve and public policy decisions - that can be understood within a macroeconomics frame work. chatroom can be accessed from any location - on or off-campus - with internet access.
4980	Special Readings	1-3		TBA	TBA	STAFF
Prerequisite: Special consent form required. Independent study through readings, reports, research projects, and conferences.
4990	Internship in Applied Economics	2-6		TBA	TBA	STAFF
Independent study involving work with an appropriate private firm or public agency. A max. of six hours may be earned but only three may be applied to your economics degree. To qualify for the program, you must be an undergraduate student with a junior standing and a GPA>3.0. You must also have completed Econ 3001 and have a faculty reference as well as the permission of the faculty coordinator, Professor Donald Kridel (kridel@umsl.edu)

GEOGRAPHY

Course		CR-HR	REF	DAY	TIME	INSTRUCTOR
1001	Introduction to Geography
	SESSION IV 5/17/10-7/10/10	3	10612	TBA	online	NAUMANN
1002	World Regions
	SESSION IV 5/17/10-7/10/10	3	10613	TBA	online	NAUMANN