

FRIDAY, APRIL 8th 2011

6:30 PM SGA Chamber Room, Millennium Student Center

Eric Schwitzgebel

From the University of California, Riverside

Presenting:

"The Problem of Known Illusion and the Problem of Unreportable Illusion"

Please join us for hors d'oeuvres after the talk in Lucas Hall, 5th floor.

SATURDAY, APRIL 9th 2011

CLARK HALL, 311

8:30 Assorted Pastries, fruit, coffee, tea, and juices.

9:30 Nils Richards, University of St. Thomas – Minneapolis
I-Language Games: A Chomskyan Critique of Wittgenstein

10:30 Neil Mehta, University of Michigan - Ann Arbor
Phenomenology and Self Representation.

11:30 Daniel Sportiello, University of Notre Dame
Objectivity, Introspection, and Virtue

12:30 Lunch: Boxed lunches provided

1:15 Joseph A. Hedger, Syracuse University – Syracuse, NY
How We Understand Our Own Mental States: The Private Language Argument is Supported by Empirical Psychology

2:15 Sanne Lodahl, Aarhus University, Denmark
Is Introspection Still Doing its' Business?

3:15 Daniel Tigard, Brandeis University, MA
The Will to Love.

4:15 Stephanie Hare, Loyola University – Chicago
Philosophy of Neuroscience and Complexity: An Alternative Methodology to Studying Inter-level Relations

SUNDAY, APRIL 10th 2011
CLARK HALL, 201

9:30 Coffee and bagels

10:00 Galen Mitchell, University of Colorado – Denver
Donald Davidson, The Hulk, and Evil Zeta Radiation

11:00 Wenwen Fan, University of Missouri – Columbia
Are Kind Properties Represented in Perception?

12:00 Isaac Wiegman, Washington University - St. Louis
Natural Necessity and Evolutionary Contingency