2. Bios of incoming grad students

Frank Bertone frankiebertone@yahoo.com

-- Frankie majored in philosophy at the University of Texas-San Antonio. He has spent interludes in advertising and marketing ("selling sugar-water and salty snacks to children") and as an art director.

Michelle Catalano mkostec@siue.edu

-- Michelle earned a B.S. in business from SIU-Edwardsville and has been working on her MBA. Her main research interest is the philosophy of economics.

Jeff Dauer dauerjeff@hotmail.com

-- Jeff graduated from UMSL with a dual degree in philosophy. After first considering a career in law, Jeff decided to enter our M.A. program. He has a particular interest in philosophy of mind and cognitive science.

Terrance Dunnigan tjdwd6@studentmail.umsl.edu

-- Terrance majored in computer science at UC - Berkeley and has been taking a variety of philosophy courses here at UMSL. He decided it made more sense to earn an M.A. than to work towards a second bachelor's degree.

Eric Dzinski Dzinski@mac.com

-- Eric graduated from Whittier College in California with a dual degree in philosophy and English. His contributions to the student newspaper and radio station made his views well-known on that campus.

Jonathan Fuqua jonathanfuqua@yahoo.com

-- After majoring in history at Culver Stockton College in Canton, Mo., Jonathan has earned an M.A. in church-state studies from Baylor University.

Latoya Gordon toyal0785@yahoo.com

-- Latoya just graduated with a B. A. in English from the University of Northern Texas. She is interested in the philosophical foundations of justice and in issues of race, class, and equality.

Amy Heuer alheuer4@aol.com

-- Amy has just graduated from Bennington College with a degree in fine arts. A course on John Rawls's views on justice triggered her interest in philosophy.

Tom Knoten tknoten@sbcglobal.net

-- Tom is returning to his first love, philosophy, after a successful career as a corporate lawyer in St. Louis. He worked for a number of well-known companies (Emerson Electric, Seven-Up, Brown Shoe) and local law firms.

Alexander Lilley

-- An undergraduate philosophy major at UMSL, Alex has studied Greek and Latin as well as computer science and advanced formal logic.

Dane Muckler dmuckler@gmail.com

Dane majored in philosophy at Occidental College in Los Angeles. He hopes to prepare for a Ph.D. in philosophy, a J.D., or job with a software company that seeks out philosophers.

John Mulderig mulderig@umsl.edu

-- John earned a B.S. in business from UMSL in 1976 and now runs the financial side of things in the College of Arts and Sciences. He is eager to think more broadly and philosophically about matters.

Tyler Paytas tsp336@truman.edu

-- Tyler just graduated from Truman University with a degree in philosophy. He says the Euthyphro Dilemma ("Is X right because God commands it, or does God command it because it is right?") roped him into philosophy.

Conway Wong conwayletitia@yahoo.com

-- Conway works at Boeing and has just completed an undergraduate degree in philosophy at UMSL to complement his degree in (I think) computer science. He has decided to continue with graduate work in philosophy.

Mark Youssef marknasryoussef@yahoo.com

-- Mark earned a electrical engineering degree from the University of Kentucky. After briefly sampling law school there, he decided to spend the rest of the year building houses for Habitat for Humanity and applying to graduate programs in philosophy.
