

Table of Contents

M.A. Program Handbook

I: Who's Who

1. E-mail list of current grad students
2. Bios of incoming grad students
3. Faculty specialties and contact info

II: Getting Started

1. Your student number
2. Activating your e-mail account
3. How to register
4. Navigating the university website
5. Residency and transfer of credit
6. Selecting an advisor

III: Moving through the Program

1. Program Requirements
2. Progress to the Degree
3. Taking Courses at SLU
4. Comprehensive Exams
5. M-Forms; What They are and When They're Due

IV: If You Choose to Write a Thesis

1. What counts as an M.A. thesis?
2. Who should write a thesis?
3. Choosing an advisor and a topic
4. Your Committee
5. The Defense
6. Meeting Deadlines
7. Format and Electronic Submission

V. Financial Aid Available within the Department

1. How the system works
2. Telecourse and webcourse TAs/ships
3. Lecture/Breakout Section courses
4. Grading Positions
5. Full responsibility for a course
6. Research Positions

VI: Looking Ahead

1. Applying to Ph.D. Programs
2. The GRE's
3. Adjunct work in and around St. Louis

VII: Extras

1. The Philosophers' Forum
2. Participating in Graduate Philosophy Conferences
3. Parking and Transportation
4. Tips from the faculty