IS 6840 Term Paper Grading

-topic was relevant to Systems Analysis

-paper provided a meaningful overview and compelling argument of the importance to systems analysis

-material was correct and complete

-material was above and beyond class reading

-presentation included meaningful examples

-presentation included a set of useful lessons or best practices

-presentation was clear

-individual demonstrated enthusiasm for the topic

-appropriate references were included

-appropriate format was used, especially for references

-paper used web technologies effectively for navigation

-individual used web technologies creatively to contribute to the presentation of the topic

-other