WHA HISTORY

The Western History Association was founded in 1961 by a group of professional and avocational historians bound by their belief in the American West as a place rich in history and deserving of further study. "Its purpose shall be to promote the study of the North American West in its varied aspects and broadest sense," reads the WHA's constitution, and the association maintains this ideal by providing incentives for excellence through its prize and scholarship programs, and by offering a venue for a wide variety of scholarship during its annual conference. Although scholarship is the pride of the association, its mainstay continues to be the combination of professional and avocational historians that formed the WHA over four decades ago. This combination has given the organization the reputation of being not only intellectually stimulating, but just plain fun.

2009 CALL FOR PROPOSALS

49TH ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE WESTERN HISTORY ASSOCIATION
DENVER, COLORADO, OCTOBER 7-10, 2009

WIRED WEST

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: SEPTEMBER 1, 2008
SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

The Program Committee for the WHA 2009 annual meeting invites papers on the theme of "Wired West."

Wire conducts and symbolizes western history. We seek papers that explore the development and interconnection of the North American West, a region divided by barbed wire and border wire and border wire and yet one of the first whose sub-regions were united by telegraph, telephone, electric line, and fiber optic cable.

We are interested in the wiring of the world to the West metaphorically and materially. No country in any part of the world is untouched by what happens in the western provinces of North America. Western industries in mine, ranch, farm, and forest, Hollywood and dude ranch, Silicon Valley, Denver, and elsewhere, have drawn immigrants, generated exports, and reconfigured the world's economies, cultures, and politics. So the world has been wired west, constantly rebuilt, retooled, and rejiggered to accommodate the realities of the rapidly growing and changing region.

Our interests encompass the changing relations of western peoples with the earth, from which wire itself is made, and over which western peoples have fought to determine how best to live. We are equally compelled by the social and cultural wiring of the West—the struggles of natives and immigrants for justice, equity, and autonomy, of women and men to understand sexual, racial, ethnic, and class identity and connections from the most intimate human bonds to the most formal relations, and the constant effort to make and re-make the good society.

We encourage innovative presentations, including performances, workshops or moderated discussions. Submissions may be for an entire session, a panel discussion, or an individual paper. When submitting an entire session, include an abstract that outlines the purpose of the session, if any, and designate one panelist or participant as the contact person. Each paper proposal, whether individual or part of a session, should include a one-page abstract and a one-page c.v., including the address, phone, and email address for each participant. Indicate equipment needs, if any. The committee will assume that all listed individuals have agreed to participate. Send all program submission materials to: Colleen O'Neill, History

Department, Utah State University, 0710 Old Main Hill, Logan, UT 84322-0710
(colleen.oneill@usu.edu). Submissions should be postmarked by September 1, 2008.

WHA ORGANIZATION

The WHA is governed by its members who elect a president, president-elect, council, and nomination committee. The latter consists of five members, each serving a two-year term. The council consists of the president, president-elect, executive director, seven regularly elected members (serving three year terms), and past presidents and executive directors during the two years succeeding their terms of office. Membership in the organization is open to all.

WHA CONFERENCE

The annual conference is held Wednesday through Saturday in mid-October, and features over fifty sessions on all aspects of the American West, as well as tours to nearby historic sites on Thursday and Saturday afternoons. The location changes yearly, with recent conferences held in Las Vegas, Scottsdale, St. Louis, and Oklahoma City. The highlights of the conference include the Presidential Luncheon where the president addresses the association as well as an evening banquet where the WHA awards are presented and the incoming president ushers in the new year. Conference programs with registration information are mailed in July.
