Teaching Philosophy:

As an online course, please bear with me for your added efforts required. So, please read the syllabus carefully and follow the specified requirements. I will work with you all the way until we finish this course. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me directly (email) so we can work together for the journey!

Questions to be answered for FIN 3500 Class in this semester to be on-line section due to Covid-19:

How will our class meet?

If we are unable to meet on campus for class, I will post an announcement on Canvas about how we will be meeting going forward. Zoom will be used for the class meetings and class discussion will take place on the Canvas discussion board. I will post regular announcements through Canvas but please do not hesitate to reach out through email with any questions you may have.

How will I meet with my instructor?

I will hold virtual office hours with you over Zoom if necessary or phone conversations with you during my designated office hours. If these hours no longer work with your schedule, please reach out and let me know. Please call me at my office phone (listed above) to discuss. Emails sent during the week (M-F) on the syllabus, will receive a response within 24 hours. Emails received over the weekend or during breaks/holidays will receive a response within 48 hours.

How often do I need to login to Canvas to view our online course?

You are expected to participate in the online activities for as long as we are unable to meet on campus. This may be one day if we experience inclement weather, or several weeks in the event of another wave of the pandemic. It is expected that you visit the course site daily. Below you will see a suggested schedule for how you should plan your time online and interact with the content.

Is it possible to receive course announcements as a text?

*I will set notifications within Canvas to send you announcements as a text.
<https://community.canvaslms.com/docs/DOC-26683-42121235713>*

How will I turn in my homework?

Homework and other assignments will be turned in through the assignments tab within Canvas or you can email it to my email address (fungh@umsl.edu). Instructions for submission can be found within the assignment.

How will I take my exams?

Exams will be delivered through Canvas. We will co-create an honor code for the class for ethical behavior in the class. Exams will now be open book. However, it is expected that you do not collaborate with others on exams. Please see the academic integrity specification by the University requirements about what is considered cheating and the associated consequences.

How will I see my Grades?

You can view your grades through the gradebook on Canvas.

If I am ill or can't attend class for any other reason how I can participate in class?

Please contact me if you are ill or have changing situations so that I can understand how I can best help you through this difficult time. I will post a recording of the lecture, you can also participate through Zoom live. Participation can be completed through an asynchronous discussion board about the content.

Manner in communication on the internet

Please be reminded that netiquette and civility are expected during the course of discussions over the internet in my class. Please be polite and respectful to the other people, your colleagues, and your group members.

Technology Requirements:

As a student in a blended course, you are expected to have reliable internet access almost every day. Please reach out to your academic advisor or student success network if you need hardware or access to the Internet. If you have computing problems, it is your responsibility to address these through the ITS Helpdesk (helpdesk@umsl.edu) or to use campus computing labs. Problems with your computer or other technology issues are not an excuse for delays in meeting expectations and missed deadlines for the course. If you have a problem, get help in solving it immediately. At a minimum, you will need the following software/hardware to participate in this course:

1. Computer with an updated operating system (e.g. Windows, Mac, Linux)
2. Updated Internet browsers (Google Chrome (required) or Mozilla Firefox)
3. Ability to navigate Canvas (Learning Management System)
4. Minimum Processor Speed of 1 GHz or higher recommended.
5. Reliable and stable internet connection.
6. Adobe Reader or alternative PDF reader (free)
7. A webcam and/or microphone is highly recommended.
