

Certificate in Modern Languages

Certificate in Modern Language and Study Abroad

Students seeking the certificate must complete language courses at UMSL and abroad. The Center for International Studies and the Department of Languages and Cultures Cultural Studies cooperate in offering the Certificate.

1. Modern language study at UMSL

Students must select one of the following languages and complete the required courses at UMSL. Total: 6 credit hours. (8 hours for Spanish)

French

FRENCH 2170	Intermediate French Language And Culture	3
FRENCH 2180	Readings In French	3
Total Hours		6

German

GERMAN 2170	Intermediate Practice in Speaking and Writing	3
GERMAN 2180	Intermediate Readings In German	3
Total Hours		6

Spanish

SPANISH 2172 2172A	&	Spanish Composition Grammar for Spanish Composition	and	4
SPANISH 2180 2180A	&	Readings In Spanish Grammar for Readings in Spanish	and	4
Total Hours				8

Japanese

JAPAN 2102	Intermediate Japanese II	5
JAPAN 3201	Intermediate Japanese III	4
Total Hours		9

2. Foreign language study abroad

Students must complete a minimum of two additional three credit hour courses taught in the target language, at a foreign university that is affiliated with the UMSL Study Abroad Program, with the goal of increasing linguistic competence. All courses must be approved by Language faculty members.

Students should consult the study abroad advisor in International Studies and Programs to select a site for their study abroad experience. Then, students should consult their advisor in the Department of Languages and Cultures Cultural Studies to select appropriate courses.

Sign-offs from other departments affected by this proposal

None

Rationale	Removing courses that no longer exist.
-----------	--