

Faculty Senate
University of Missouri – St. Louis
October 16, 2007

MOTION

An ad hoc Committee on University Relations reporting to the Faculty Senate should be created to provide a liaison between the faculty and the external relations staff of the university, including advancement, marketing, communication, and special events. This committee would also provide recommendations and advice to the vice chancellor responsible for these activities.

Membership on the committee shall include five or more faculty broadly representative of the Faculty, two students, one non-academic employee selected by the Staff Association, and the Vice Chancellor for University Advancement.

The term of the committee will end on July 31, 2008 unless reconstituted by the Faculty Senate.
