Flex Masters of Business Administration

The Master of Business Administration (MBA) at the University of Missouri-St. Louis (UMSL) is a selective program designed to create business managers and leaders. The MBA at UMSL is fully accredited by The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) International, the premier accrediting body in collegiate business education.

Career Outlook

The MBA degree offers students the chance to learn an effective, diverse mixture of management theory and applied strategies, from communication and supply chain management skills to financial and marketing needs. Students can apply these newly cultivated abilities in a management-level position across a broad range of industries. Predictions from the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) indicates strong growth in management positions overall, with an 8 percent average increase in supervisory-level employment expected across all professions from 2016 to 2026, creating 807,000 jobs. Additionally, the BLS pegged the median salary for managers at $102,590.
